Notes for GEORGE W. STAGGS:

An illustrated history of the state of Oregon : By Rev H K Hines, D.D., Chicago, The Lewis Publishing company, 1893

GEORGE W. STAGGS, one of the young and enterprising business men of Weston, was born in Yam Hill County, Oregon, December 20, 1862. His father, Alfred Staggs, is a native of Kentucky, who married Miss Sarah Davis, a native of Missouri. Mr. Staggs emigrated to Oregon in 1852 with his brother. They fitted up an ox team and started on the long journey to the coast.

The brother was taken sick and died. His lonely, unnamed grave is on the plains, where his sorrowing relatives were obliged to leave his remains, among the savage Indians. Mr. Staggs was a brickmaker by trade, but in later years he abandoned it for the occupation of farming. He was married in Oregon, and he and his faithful wife lived together until 1872, when death claimed his own and called the beloved wife to her last home, at the age of forty-two. They had five children, and George was the fourth. Only three of these children are now living, two in Idaho and our subject in Oregon.

George received his early education in the common schools of Oregon, and was reared on the farm and to farm work. He followed that occupation until 1888, when he continues to farm in connection with his other business interests. On this farm he grows wheat principally.

In August, 1892, he engaged in the hardware business in Weston, where he carries a stock of $5,000, consisting of all kinds of hardware and agricultural implements. He does a good business for a newcomer in the town, and, as he is well known and liked throughout the entire county, he will command a large trade in time.

Mr. Staggs was married, in 1872, to Miss Martha Pinkerton, daughter of William and Sarah Pinkerton. This lady is also a native of Oregon, and has borne her husband two children, namely: Emery and Beulah, two bright children, who render happy the lives of their parents. Mr. Staggs is a member of the Modern Woodmen of the World, Camp No. 112, of Weston; also a member of K. of P. He votes the Republican ticket, and is a thoroughly respected and representative citizen of Oregon.

Walter Price Dies Suddenly

Walter E. Price, prominent retired farmer, native of Walla Walla valley and a resident of the district practically his entire life, died suddenly Wednesday morning at his home, 380 South First Avenue. He was 75 years old.

Although he had not been in too good health in recent months, he was going about his morning chores in the yard at his home, when he collapsed.

Born near Waitsburg on February 28, 1874, he was educated in the public schools of that town and attended business college later at Quincy, Ill. He had long been active in farming operations and prominently identified with farm organizations, including the Farm Bureau.

On November 28, 1899 he was married to Miss Ella Minnick at Waitsburg. She survives as do two children, Mrs. Edna Mildred Fitzsimmons of Yakima, and Harold Walter Price of Waitsburg; a brother, Harvey Price of Portland; and four grandchildren.

A life-long member of the Christian church, he served on the board as deacon and elder for close to half a century. He also was a member of the Men's "99" Bible Brotherhood and belonged to the Walla Walla Chamber of Commerce.

The Prices moved from Waitsburg to Walla Walla about eight years ago.

Plans are being made for a 2 o'clock funeral Friday afternoon from a local chapel with burial to take place in the family lot of the Waitsburg cemetery.

MILTON-FREEWATER -- Charles (Bud) Nelson, 88, of Route 3, died Friday in a local nursing home here.

Born Feb. 17, 1882 in Athena, he was the son of James A. Nelson and Mary Alice (Pinkerton) Nelson farming pioneers of Umatilla County.

On Aug 23, 1903, he married Catherine Beck in Athena whose parents also were Oregon Pioneers.

He was a farmer all his life and operated farms in Weston, Athena and near Lacrosse, Wash. He also homesteaded in Montana.

Nelson was a member of the First Christian Church of Milton-Freewater and BPOE No. 288 of Pendleton.

Survivors include his widow at the home; two daughters, Mrs. Aaron (Rhoda) Weis of Milton-Freewater and Mrs. Alvin (Catherine) Hawk of La Grande; two sons, James A. Nelson of Walla Walla and Charles R Nelson of Milton-Freewater; 10 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. Services will be 4 p.m. Monday at the Munselle-Rhodes chapel with the Rev. George Knox of the First Christian Church officiating. Vault interment will follow in the Milton-Freewater Cemetery.
