

Descendants of James S Morgan

Courtesy of Frazier Farmstead Museum

Our goal is to research the pioneers that came into the Walla Walla Valley Area, as a starter for those doing their family genealogy; we are not related.

Notes for JAMES ARTHUR BADDELEY:

An illustrated history of Umatilla County, 1902, page 496a

J. A. BADDELEY – The influential and substantial stockman and agriculturist whose name heads this paragraph is one of Umatilla's esteemed citizens and enterprising business men, who has wrought out here a very flattering financial success, as well as gaining for himself an enviable position and reputation among his fellows. He was born in England on February 8, 1851, being the son of William and Mary Baddeley, also of English descent. At the early age of fourteen years he turned to the new world to seek his fortune, and from that time he has made his way, gaining his present wealth by his own industry and wise management. His first occupation in the United States was in a flour mill in Wisconsin, where he remained for two years. Following this he was in Illinois and several other states operating in flour mills until 1878, when he came to Umatilla county. Here he continued for about six years in the flour mills of Weston, when, by careful economy, he had saved sufficient means to warrant his purchasing land, his first venture being about six miles north from Weston. Later he bought where he now lives, one and one-half miles north from Weston. In this place he owns, in partnership with G. A. Hartman, five hundred and sixty acres of well improved and fertile soil. He practices the diversified plan of farming, handling considerable stock, graded short-horn cattle, of which they own nearly fifty head, and trotting horses. He owns the famous horse, "Old Caution," a registered trotter, and a number of his colts, four of which are in training in Pendleton. They also own considerable land about twenty miles west from here.

Our subject was married on November 22, 1879, to Mary E. Morgan, daughter of J. S. Morgan, an old pioneer of this county. To this union have been born three children: James F., Joseph C., Bertie B. He affiliates with the Woodmen of the World, in Weston. Mr. Baddeley enjoys the esteem of his fellows, having ever demeaned himself in a commendable manner to inspire the confidence from his fellows and acquaintances.

Notes for MAUDE C BRYSON:

Ritzville Journal-Times, Thursday, June 5, 1941, issue

Mrs. Dupuis Dies

WASHTUCNA - The Washtucna community was saddened Thursday evening by the passing of Mrs. Maude Dupuis, one of Washtucna's finest and best beloved matrons. Death came at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gross, where she has made her home since the death of her husband in 1929.

She was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday evening and death was due to high blood pressure and uremic poisoning.

Her place will be hard to fill as she always had a kindly and friendly smile and greeting for everyone. She was an ardent worker in the B.V.D. club of which she has been a member ever since coming here.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 9:30 a.m. from the Community church with Rev. A. K. Walborn officiating. Burial was made in the Weston, Ore., in the family plot.

Maude Clarinda Bryson Dupuis was born at Weston, Ore., Oct. 10, 1880, and departed this earthly life May 29, 1941.

On April 24, 1904, she was united in marriage to Benjamin Dupuis, who passed away in 1929. Since that time she had made her home with her sister and brother-in-law, Leona and J.B. Gross. Besides these two, a niece, Mrs. Margaret Rogers and husband, Dudley, and grandnephew, Bobbie Rogers, of Creston, B.C. survive.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Pendleton.
