Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1946 > April > 23, page 6
Lt Merle E Eaton, Son of Mr and Mrs Clarence N Eaton, Waitsburg, has been officially declared dead by the war department. He was reported missing following a flight over the Japanese homeland from Saipan April 4, 1943.

No Hope Held for M. Eaton

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence N. Eaton, Waitsburg, have received word from the war department that their son, Lt. Merle S. Eaton is now officially presumed to be dead. He was declared missing April 4, 1945 when a B-29 left Saipan to bomb an aircraft plant 20 miles west of Tokyo. The flight started at night and no distress or other message was ever received and no trace ever found of the air craft or crew. In a letter to the parents the adjutant general said the war department had hoped for a time some trace might be found but noone ever was, so all members of the crew presumably lost their lives.

Eaton had successfully completed 12 missions and was on his thirteenth when the plane disappeared.

Eaton was born near Waitsburg August 11, 1921 and attended the Coppei grade school and graduated from Waitsburg high school in 1939. He attended Washington State College until 1941 when he went to Seattle to operate a blueprint machine at Boeing field. Afterwards he was employed by Leonard and Slate, general contractors.

He was accepted for service in the air forces in September, 1942 and was ordered in March, 1943 to report as a aviation cadet at Sanata Ana, Calif. He trained at Thunderbird field, Phoenix, Ariz., Merced army air field, Merced, Calif. and Staockton field, Stockton, Calif. receiving his commission December 5, 1943.

Eaton then start3ed his B-17 training at Rosell, N.M. and was assigned to a B-29 group at Clovis, N.M., in February 1944. After intensive training at Walker field, Kas., he was assigned to overseas duty December 5, 1944 and was stationed on Saipan island with the 500th bombardment group of the 73d wing.

Eaton was a member of the Presbyterian church of Waitsburg, the Masonic lodge of Waitsburg and also a member of the Maripan Masonic club in the Pacific, the group holding memorial services for Eaton in May 1945, according to a letter sent by the secretary to the C. N. Eatons. He was entitled to wear the air medal with oak leaf clusteer, unit citation with cluster, a bronze service star for participation in the eastern mandate campaign in the Asiatic Pacific theatre, the Pacific theatre ribbon with three battle stars (Marianas, Japanese homeland and Pacific area.)

Easton was married December 5, 1944 at Stockton, Calif, to Marilyn Kendrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Kendrick, Merced, Calif. Mrs. Merle Eaton is now with her parents at Merced but spent some time with the Eatons at Waitsburg and also while they were at Olympia whose C. N. Eaton served as state representative from Walla Walla county.

In addition to his wife and parents he leaves two sisters, Ursula Flo Eaton, Waitsburg and Clara Jean Eaton, Barstow, Calif. Other relatives include his grand mother, Mrs. N. L. Stimmel, Santa Cruz, Calif.: four uncles, George, Ben, Roy and Lee Stimmel of California and five aunts, Mrs. Lorene Casey of New Mexico and Mrs May Hofer, Mrs. Marcia Weir, Gladys and Ruth Stimmel, Waitsburg.

Goldenweds are Feted At Anniversary Affair

Two hundred guest gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gilkerson, Mill Creek Road, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary, in the YWCA Lounge Sunday.

Hosts were the couple's only grandchild -- B. L. Gossett of Pasco -- son of their only child, Mrs. Frances Gossett, Toledo, Ohio, his wife and their two daughters, Susan and Heidi.

The Gilkersons live in the original home built by his father in 1855. Mrs. Gilkerson, the former Ruth Poe, Carrellton, Mo., came to Walla Walla in 1914. They have farmed at the Mill Creek location since their marriage; Gilkerson was honored recently on his retirement after having served as a school bus driver 35 years.

Mrs. Gossett was unable to attend the reception.

The tea table held a money tree -- receiving an addition unexpectedly and delifhtfully when one of the guests appeared as Santa Claus bearing "gifts" -- and the centered with yellow and white chrysanthemums and gold candles on a lace tablecloth.

Serving were Mesdames George Jilg and Earl Williams, punch; John Figgins and Warren Goode, cake; and Delbert Gilkerson and Harry Darling, coffee. Linda Gilkerson, Sandra Goude and Kathe Venson assisted.

Mesdames Charles Swanson and Andrew Lyons had the guest book. In charge of the money tree were Mesdames Harold Svenson and Robert Lawrence.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Mark, Mayo, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Shemwell, Colfax; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meiners, Pullman; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McKee and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Gilkerson and family, Longview; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson and family, Athena; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Stone, Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawrence and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Darling, Pasco.

Anniversaries

Gilkerson's 65th brings back memories, best man

The best man was there.

And cake was served from a table bought for their first home when Fred and Wilma Gilkerson celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

The Gilkersons, both 84, were married April 7, 1912, in a home built for them on Mill Creek by his parents, Harry and Malina Gilkerson. Nearby resided Gilkerson's grandparents, who had homesteaded on Mill Creek.

Gilkerson recalls that his grandmother, Eliza Sickler McQuirk Gilkerson, was the first white woman to marry in Washington Territory. When McQuirk died, she married Thomas Gilkerson. Gilkerson was born in Big Bend, near Spokane, and moved to Mill Creek with his parents when he was about three years old.

His wife was born in Atkinson, Neb., and came to Walla Walla in 1903 with her parents, Mary and Frank Ziska, who lived in a large log cabin on Lewis Peak with their 10 children. As a young woman, Mrs. Gilkerson "worked out" for Walla Walla families.

After their marriage, Gilkerson engaged in farming on the Mill Creek property. The couple built their second home, the one in which they now reside, in 1920.

When flooding ruined some of his farmland, Gilkerson went to work for the General Mills Co. for 25 years, then took a job as industrial commissary manager at the Washington State Penitentiary where he retired in 1961.

Among those helping the Gilkersons celebrate their anniversary were their son, Dorsey Gilkerson, of Kennewick, and Cliff Tash, Gilkerson's brother-in-law, who was best man at the wedding.
