He was an Odd Fellow and Frankfort Lodge attended his funeral, at which at least 1000 people were present. The procession was nearly one mile long; religious services by Rev. Hopkins, from Thorntown."

Notes for JACOB HODGEN:

A Portrait and Biographical Record of Boone and Clinton Counties, Ind. by Chris Brown
<http://www.rootsweb.com/~inclinto/bios.html>

HODGEN, Jacob , retired farmer and highly respected old citizen of Frankfort, was born July 9, 1831, in Clinton county Ind., of which he is now one of the oldest native residents. His father, William HODGEN, was of Scotch-Irish descent and grew to manhood in Kentucky, where he was married a number of years ago to Mary Magdalene. William HODGEN was a farmer and followed that useful calling in Kentucky until his removal to Daviess county, Ind., of which he was one of the pioneers. In 1828, he became a resident of the county of Clinton and entered a tract of government land, from which he developed a farm and upon which he resided until his death in 1831. His wife survived him a number of years, departing this life in 1864. William and Mary HODGEN had a family of ten children, only two of whom are living at this time --- Pleasant, who was born March 12, 1827, and Jacob, whose name appears at the head of this sketch. The names of those deceased are as follows : James, John, Sarah, Harrison, Joseph, and Eliza; two also died that were unnamed. Jacob Hodgen spent his boyhood days assisting with the farm work, and his education, by no means elaborate, was obtained in the subscription schools of the township where he resided. He remained with his mother until after attaining his majority, and in 1853 went to California, making the trip to that far away country by water, the journey requiring twenty-seven days. While there he followed mining, a part of the time in the employ of other parties, and for two years operated a claim of his own with very successful results. After remaining in California for a period of three and one-half years, he returned to Clinton county and purchased a farm, which he made valuable by good improvements and upon which he resided until 1890, in which year he moved to Frankfort and purchased a grocery store and meat market. He continued in business for about eighteen months, disposing of his interest at the end of that time and retiring from the active duties of life. He sold his farm in 1893 to his son and is now enjoying that rest and quietude so nobly earned by a long life of activity.

Mr. Hodgen, on the eighth of April, 1857, was united in marriage to Mary McKINZIE, daughter of Mercer and Sarah (ELMORE) McKINZIE, natives of Ohio and of Scotch lineage. The following are the names of the brothers and sisters of Mrs. Hodgen: Jacob, Mary, Catherine, Noah, Patrick, Hale, Juliana (deceased), Melvina, Job (deceased), Thomas and Emeline. To the union of Mr. and Mrs. HODGEN have been born six children, namely: Laban C., born June I, 1861; Henry H. October 3, 1862; Oscar, July 9, 1864, died February 19, 1865; Josie, wife of D. V. Lucas, born January 18, 1867; Anna F., born August 27, 1869, died February 14, 1892, and Magdalene, who was born July 27, 1876. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgen are faithful members of the old Christian church. Originally he was a republican and as such served one term as trustee of Jackson township. Of late years he has affiliated with the prohibition party, the principles of which he believes to be for the best interest to the country. By close application and successful management he has gained for himself and family a comfortable competence, and he deserves mention as one of the representative citizens of the county of Clinton. pages 728-729. Went to California in 1853 as a miner and returned to Clinton County 3 1/2 years later. Used the money from mining to buy a farm in 1867 and then later bought a grocery and meat market in Frankfort.

"ALBERT H. HODGEN

FOUND DEAD AT HOME

Hemorrhage Believed Responsible for Death of Prominent Retired Farmer at Main Avenue Residence This

Afternoon - Body Found by Mrs. Hodgen

Albert H. (Ab) Hodgen, 66, prominent retired farmer, widely known over the county, was found dead in the bath tub at his residence, 352 Main Avenue, shortly before 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Death is believed to have resulted from a hemorrhage and it is thought he had been dead an hour when the body was found by Mrs. Hodgen.

Mr. Hodgen had been in impaired health for some time and it had been his custom to rest a short time during the morning and each afternoon. He went upstairs shortly before ten o'clock, this being the last time he was seen alive. At two o'clock Mrs. Hodgen, who had been busy downstairs, never realizing the passing of time, went upstairs to awaken him. When she found the bedroom empty she stepped into the bath room and was horrified to find the lifeless body of her husband hanging over the side of the bath tub.

Mrs. Hodgen ran screaming to the home of Mrs. William Doty, a neighbor residing on the north, and Mrs. Doty hurried to the Hodgen home. Mrs. Doty states she believes that Mr. Hodgen had been dead for an hour when she first saw the body. Dr. Boulden was summoned and worked frantically to revive life, but was unsuccessful. The coroner was called to conduct and inquest in the death.

Mr. Hodgen, who for many years resided south of Antioch on the Jackson highway, was widely known over the county. About six years ago he sold his farm and moved to Frankfort. He is survived by one son, Bernice Hodgen, of Philadelphia."

N.B. Atkinson, Area Pioneer, Dies at Age 91

N.B. "Bony" Atkinson, who came to this area via steamer and the old Baler railroad in 1879, died Tuesday at the home of a daughter at Waitsburg.

He was 91 years old at the time of his death and had been well known in Walla Walla county as a dairyman, wheat raiser, legislator and county commissioner.

Born January 15, 1859, in St. Joseph, MO, he was educated in Jackson, CA, where his family had migrated. In 1879 he left San Francisco by boat for Portland and Wallula and settled near Helix, OR, where he farmed on a homestead for several years.

He married Margaret Hodgen, the daughter of a Umapine pioneer family and moved to the state line area where he entered the dairy business, continuing that until 1899. Just before the turn of the century, the Atkinsons moved to Waitsburg and took up the dairy business again. A few years later, "Bony" - for his given name, Napoleon Bonaparte - took up wheat raising which he continued until his retirement in 1920.

He was one of the main organizers of the Waitsburg Farmers Union, holding the office of state president in that organization for several years.

Atkinson also served on the Waitsburg school board several years in the state house of representatives for two terms and six years as a county commissioner. A charter member of Nasburg lodge No. 91, F. and A.M. at Helix, he also was a member of Waitsburg lodge No. 16, having been master of the Helix lodge once and three times master of the Waitsburg lodge.

He was preceded in death by his wife, two daughters, and a son and since his wife's passing in 1944, had made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Gene Ray, at Waitsburg.

Surviving are sons, Van of Prosser, Pete and Lewis of Walla Walla, Zo of San Jose, CA, and Jack of Bakersfield; daughters, Mrs. Verna Hampton of Navarro, CA, and Mrs. Nellie Ray of Waitsburg; brothers Ike of Walla Walla and P.L. Atkinson of Los Angeles. Several grandchildren and great-grandchildren also survive.
