T. S. Tibbet

Mrs. S.T. Tippet returned Saturday from Asotin, Wash. where she was called by the death of her son's wife, Mrs. T. S. Tibbet (sic), on May 12th. She brought home with her the youngest of the four children who were left motherless by this sad event. The mother had been failing health for about a year and they had left their home on the Imnaha last fall to spend the winter in Arizona in hopes of benefiting her; but came back to Asotin seven weeks preceding her death.

Eunice Mae 'Mickey' Ruggles

Beloved wife, mother, and grandmother, Eunice Mae 'Mickey' Ruggles passed away on July 23, 2004, at the University of Utah Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah, concluding her valiant struggle with CLL.

Mickey was born September 29, 1932, in Enterprise, Ore., to Roy K. and Nellie (Steen) Tippett. Her father died in 1936, and in 1941, her mother married Calvin Williams. Cal was a true cowboy, sheep shearer, and a wonderful father to her; she always gave him credit for her positive outlook on life. In September 1941, Mickey came to Nevada to "run wild horses" with her stepfather, mother, and older brother, Jim Tippett. She lived on many ranches, camps, and other remote places throughout her childhood.

In the summer of 1949, Mickey came to Cherry Creek. There, she met Arthur C. Ruggles, and the two were married on November 27, 1950. They celebrated their 50th anniversary among many friends and loved ones in Cherry Creek in 2000.

Mickey and Art spent the early years of their marriage in numerous small mining towns in Nevada. They had three children by 1955, and in 1963, the family settled in McGill, remaining there until the children were out of school. Mickey worked as a radio announcer on KELY radio station in the 1960's, and worked several years at the White Pine County Welfare Department, where she had been administrative assistant to the director, and she later managed the commodities program. With their children all grown, she and Art resumed the nomadic lifestyle of their younger years, moving from each mining opportunity to the next. In 1993, Art retired, and they returned to Cherry Creek, where they built the retirement home they had carefully and thoughtfully designed together.

Mickey was a homemaker, and Art's devoted helpmate throughout their life together. She was recognized locally for her painting and folk art, and had earned a certificate for interior design. Her interests were many and varied, including reading, clothing design and sewing, home remodeling, travel, hunting and fishing, and bowling. She enjoyed playing board games and cards, and was a Scrabble champion.

Mickey is survived by her husband, Art; one son, Roy (Cheryl) Ruggles of Oxbow, Ore., and two daughters, Lynne (Cliff) Brown, of Elko, Nev., and Arla Ruggles; five grandchildren: Victoria "Tori" (Shawn) Regan, Angela Ruggles, and Calvin Ruggles, Joshua Brown and Matthew Brown; five great grandchildren: Brendan, Caleb, and Ellie Regan; Cameron Costello; and Colwyn Trouten; a sister, Thelma (Bill) McKinzie; mother-in-law, Mathilde (Fouquet-Ruggles) Collette. Nieces and nephews also survive: James "Butch" Tippett, Bonnie Perkins, Connie Rodriguez, Debbie Murphy; Flynn Johnson, Rocky Johnson, and Sherrienne Johnson-Sievers; Daniel Ruggles and Larry Ruggles.

A celebration of her life is being planned for Cherry Creek, Nev., on Labor Day weekend.
