1879

John Henry Piper was a pioneer of this district and arrived in Milton in 1879. Mr. Piper was a native of Holstein, Germany and was born on July 11, 1853. Early in 1871, at the age of 17, he sailed from Liverpool, England for New York. He worked in New York State for one year and then crossed the continent to California where he lived for six years.

In 1878, he took passage on a ship called "The Great Republic" and sailed for Portland, Oregon. From Portland, he moved on to The Dalles, Oregon where he spent another year and then in 1879 he journeyed to Milton.

John Henry Piper married Rachel Laverna Elam on September 17, 1883. Rachel Laverna had crossed the plains in a covered wagon train with her parents the A. M. Elam's when she was one year old.

Piper took an active interest in community affairs. He served on the school board for 15 years and was president of the old First National Bank for 10 years. He was a director of the bank for 20 years and a charter member of the IOOF Lodge, which was organized in 1889. He was a loyal member of the Christian Church.

Mr. And Mrs. Piper celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on September 17, 1933. Their six children attended this happy occasion. Their children are as follows: George H. Piper (now deceased) Milton-Freewater; Anna Piper Lutton, Lloyd M. Piper, Mattie Piper, Maxine Piper Toner all of Walla Walla; Elwood E. Piper, Milton-Freewater.

Notes for ZELLA FRANCIS REESE:

La Verne (Reese) Zimmerman: Zella's husband Willie Williams died in Lostine, OR in Nov 1918. I don't know if they were making their home there or were going to continue on to Freewater, OR. The story goes that Willie had died of the flu and Zella and baby Melvin were very sick. Elizabeth, Zella's mother came to Lostine to take care of them but the person taking care of Zella and Melvin told Elizabeth to go home. If Elizabeth came in that she would leave cause she was not going to take of another person. Elizabeth stayed and the care giver left.

Notes for CLAUS REHSE:

Portrait and biographical record of Portland and vicinity, Oregon, Chapman Publishing company, Chicago, 1903 Page 500 & 503

CLAUS REHSE, one of the extensive farmers and large land owners of Washington county, also one of the organizers, the first president, and later treasurer and director of the Farmington Creamery, was born in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany, April 5, 1853, and was reared to farming and practical hard work. In his native land he attended the public schools when the arduous home duties permitted, and at the age of seventeen, with all a growing boy's enthusiasm for things full of hope and possibility, boarded a sailing vessel bound for America. Arriving in New York City he started at once for the west, and Solano County, Cal., worked for a year on a farm. At this stage of his career he was joined by his two brothers, the three going into partnership in the purchase of three hundred and twenty acres of government land in Calusa (now Glenn) county, Cal., where Claus lived for twenty-two years, during fourteen of which the brothers continued to be associated

In 1892 Mr. Rehse sold out his large farm at Germantown, Cal., and bought the one hundred twenty acres of land upon which he now lives, and to which he added at a later day, so that now he owns two hundred and thirty acres. He is responsible for the many fine improvements which greet the beholder on every side, and his energy, foresight and enterprise have brought about a system of farming which is unequalled in this part of the county. One hundred and fifty acres are already under cultivation, and Mr. Rehse is engaged in general farming, goat and sheep raising, and dairying.

After being in America seven years, March 16, 1877, Mr. Rehse was united in marriage with Louisa Piper, daughter of Henry Piper, a native of Schleswig-Holstein, and a resident of Washington County since 1893. Prior to which he resided eleven years in California. He is still living at the age of eighty-three years. Of this union there have been born seven children; Annie, Bertha, Amanda, Herman, Amelia, Edgar, and Verna. In Political affiliation Mr. Rehse is a Republican, although he entertains very liberal political ideas. He has never found time to accept offices within the gift of his fellow-townsmen, but he may be depended on to firmly support such of his friends as are worthy of holding important positions of trust. In religion he was reared a Lutheran, a church to which his wife and children belong. Mr. Rehse has many friends in Washington county, and he is regarded as an important element in the county's upbuilding.

Obituary Publication Date: Jun/10/2005

Richard Arthur Hanses

Richard Arthur Hanses, 82, of College Place, Wash., died Monday at Washington Odd Fellows Home.

Mr. Hanses was born and raised in Yakima. He was a dairyman for Early Dawn Dairy, retiring in 1980.

Survivors include his wife, Nadine Hanses; a daughter, Judi Kensok of Gilbert, Ariz.; a sister, Mary T. Sandall of Moxee; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral mass was Thursday at St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Interment followed at Mountain View Cemetery.

Herring Funeral Home of Walla Walla was in charge of arrangements.

Richard Arthur Hanses

Herring Groseclose Funeral Home, Inc.

COLLEGE PLACE, WA - Richard Arthur Hanses of 533 NE Villa Ave., College Place, WA, died at the Washington Odd Fellows Home on June 6, 2005.

He was born on April 21, 1923 in Yakima, WA to Arthur J. and Marguerite Gleason Hanses. He attended school in Yakima. He was a member of St. Paul's Cathedral in Yakima.

He and Carol Squires were married on April 25, 1953. She preceded him in death. On August 22, 1964, he and Nadine Piper were married.

He was a farm worker at Mount St. Michael's Seminary in Spokane and was employed by Circle K. Corporation in Spokane, WA. and Lewiston, Idaho. He moved to Walla Walla in May 1980 and was employed at D&K Frozen Foods and Stokely's until his retirement. Following his retirement from Stokely, he was self-employed in yard maintenance until ill health forced him to give it up.

He bowled for many years in the Farmer's Co-Op League and the Independent League. Other hobbies were playing cribbage and pinochle, and also pitching horseshoes with his brothers. Memorial contributions may be made to St. Patrick Church, The Northwest Parkinson's Foundation, or Charity of Choice through the Herring Funeral Home.

OBIT - Valley Herald - June 22, 2001

PIPER

Richard E. "Dick" Piper of Milton-Freewater passed away June 13, 2001, at the St. Mary Medical Center in Walla Walla; he was 75.

Memorial services were at the First Christian Church in Milton-Freewater with Pastor Duane Geyer officiating. Privat interment was held at the Milton-Freewater Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the First Christian Church, Frazier Farmstead or the charity of donor's choice through the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home.

Piper was born July 31, 1925, in Milton-Freewater the son of Elwood and Mytle McCabe Piper.

He was a great-great-grandson of W.S. Frazier who was the founder of MILton. Piper attended local schools and graduated from McLoughlin Union High School in 1944. During the graduation ceremonies, he was traveling aboard a transport ship to Hawaii during WWII. Upon arrival in Hawaii, he was assigned to the LST 124 where he served his country for 22 months in the South Pacific. During that time, his ship was involved in the battles of Tinian, Saipan and they transported supplies, trucks, tanks and wounded to many South Pacific Islands including Guadalcanan, Tillagi, Bora Bora, Bouganville, Samoa and many others. After his discharge from the Navy in 1946, he attended Oregon State University.

He married his high school sweetheart, Louise Samuel in Hood River, OR., Aug. 17, 1947. The couple settled in Walla Walla where he was employed by the Zellerbach Paper Company. He was later transferred to La Grande, OR to work in sales. In 1951, the family moved to M-F and he began his life's work as a wheat rancher. He loved the land and did everything possible to be a good custodian of the century farm with which he had been entrusted. Piper was the fourth generation to farm the Piper/Elam ranch. He retired in 1991, due to ill health, after 40 years of active farming.

As a small child he developed a great love for horses. He and his brother Don rode "Old Button" everywhere they went. "Button" was a retired pack-horse and whenever a child fell off his back, he would stop and patiently wait for them to climb back on. This love of horses continued into adulthood and he owned and bred Quarter Horses. He was very fond of rodeo and participated as a calf roper in his younger years. Later he showed cutting horses in the Northwest and South and derived a great deal of pleasure in that activity. Piper was a loyal supporter of the Pendleton Round-Up and attended their show each year for 54 consecutive years. During the Pea Festival, he, mounted on horseback was in charge of getting each horse exhibit into the parade at the proper time. He did this job every year until the Pea Festival was discontinued. He was also a co-chairman of the horse show that was held during the early days of the Pea Festival. He sold the white horse, to the movie studio, that was used in the movie "The Legend of the Lone Ranger". Piper loved to hunt and fish. He was very proud of his children and five grandchildren. Through the years he served this community by participating on the District #31 School Budget Committee, was appointed by the Director of the Oregon Department of Agriculture to serve as a member of the East Umatilla County Chemical Control District Board, was a Life Member of the Walla Walla Kennel Club, American Angus Association and National Quarter Horse Association. He was appointed and served as a member of the Milton-Freewater Planning Commission and was a Community Committeeman for the Agricultural Stabilization Committee for several years. He served as President of the Milton Ditch Company for eight years and was the second president of the Mac-Hi FFA Chapter. He joined the First Christian Church in M-F in 1937, and has been a member since that time. He was a member of the Milton-Freewater Historical Society (Frazier Farmstead Museum), BPOE #2146, American Legion Post #24, was president of the Pioneer Posse and had been a member of the Chamber of Commerce. He also was an Agriculture 4-H leader of a livestock club.

Survivors include his wife Louise Piper at the home; a son and daughter-in-law Rick and Vickie Piper of M-F; a daughter and son-in-law Kris and Tim Barry of Walla Walla; five grandchildren, Johna Piper, Seth Piper Heidi Piper all of M-F and Patrick Barry and Connor Barry of Walla Walla.

Piper was preceded in death by his parents and a brother Don Piper.

Gloria Dot Piper

Age at Death: 76

Birth Date: 17 Feb 1950

Newspaper Title: Lebanon Express

Newspaper Location: Lebanon, OR, US

Obituary Publication Date: 2 May 2004

Gloria Dot Piper

Sept. 29, 1927 - Apr. 29, 2004

Gloria Dot Piper, 76, a resident of Albany since 1951, died Thursday evening at Timberview Care Center.

Born Sept. 29, 1927, in Medical Springs, to Urdell and Mildred (Wanker) Lay, Gloria was raised there and schooled in nearby Pondosa.

She later attended high school in Union, where she was a drum majorette, and graduated in 1944. Afterward, Gloria attended Eastern Oregon College in La Grande for a year.

She met returned Navy serviceman Frederick Emil Piper, and they were married Sept. 24, 1946, in Walla Walla, Washington.

Gloria was working for Pacific Bell in 1947 when the couple settled in Hubbard. They later moved to Klamath Falls where Fred attended Oregon Technical Institute.

In 1949 the couple moved to Salem and their son, Fred Jr., was born there on Feb. 17, 1950.

Gloria was working for the phone company and continued to do so until the spring of 1952 when they moved to Albany. After that time, while Fred worked for the railroad, Gloria was very involved in volunteer work.

They were deeply affected at the loss of their son when he died unexpectedly in October 1997. Gloria remained a committed homemaker who enjoyed her involvement with the Albany Lady Elks No. 359, where she and Fred worked for years in the kitchen together.

In addition to being an excellent cook, Gloria was an avid reader who loved tending her flowers. Gloria was a member of the Albany Second Ward of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and will be dearly missed by those who knew her.

Gloria's husband, Fred Piper Sr., of Albany; brothers Lamar Lay of Baker City and Ronald and Orin Lay, both of Medical Springs; and sisters Oriel Clark of Pendleton, Charmaine Kohler of McMinnville and Cherin Humphrey of Bellingham, Wash.; along with numerous nieces and nephews, survive her with loving memories.

Viewing will be from 3 to 8 p.m. Monday at AAsum Funeral Home. A funeral service will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home with a committal service following at Willamette Memorial Park. Her friends are invited to a reception immediately following at the Albany Elks Lodge. Memorial contributions can be made to the Oregon Health and Sciences University Cancer Research Center, directly or in care of AAsum Funeral Home, 805 Ellsworth St. S.W., Albany, OR 97321.
