7. JAMES² KIRK (*ROBERT*¹) was born 09 Jun 1859 in Stormount, Osnabrock, Ontario, Canada, and died 27 Sep 1926 in Walla Walla, Washington¹⁴. He married SARAH ANNIE ROMINE 13 Jul 1882 in Umatilla County, OR, daughter of ROBERT ROMINE and LUCETTA PARISH. She was born 25 Sep 1862 in Oregon, and died 17 Dec 1933 in Walla Walla, Washington¹⁵.

Notes for JAMES KIRK:

I have some information if you would like for James and Annie Kirk. You have their marriage listed at abt. 1882. The Kirk family bible lists their marriage as July 16, 1882. Also Annie was born "Sara Annie Romine" but my dad, Robert Kirk, (Son of Arthur, their son) says they always called her Annie. Annie's birthday from the Kirk family bible is September 25, 1862; Jame's birthday is June 9, 1859.

Lucy Kirk was born February 1, 1885, "Lucie Magdalene Kirk" She spelled her name Lucy on the 1920 Census. I don't know why the spelling is different in the family bible.

Notes for MARY ELIZABETH STORY:

Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1952 > September > 18 page 5

DAYTON - Mrs. Mary E. Sleeman, about 65, died here Thursday morning. She had been under heavy mental strain since a stroke two months ago. Her death was declared due to self-administered poison, according to Keith Yates, Prosecuting attorney.

Mrs. Ed Mock, daughter of Mrs. Sleeman, who had been with her mother during her convalescence period, was awakened about 7 am Thursday by unusual noises from her mother's room. She found her in convulsions. During subsequent attendance upon her by the family physician Mrs. Sleeman managed to point toward a nearby dresser and murmur the word "poison." Yates advised. She died shortly afterwards.

Investigation revealed a package of gopher poison in the drawer with a teaspoon on top of the dresser.

The gopher poison had been purchased to use it in her yard which with that of a neighbor had been overrun of late by ground gophers. Hence there was no suspicion concerning the purchase. Yates in his findings declared the gopher poison contained strychnine.

Notes for ELLEN CLARE CORKERY:

Clare Corkery Beall - Vashon-Maury Island Beachcomber - (Dec/4/2003)

Clare Corkery Beall died Nov. 10, 2003, in San Diego, Calif., where she had been living since April 2002. She was 84 years old.

She was born on Sept. 10, 1919, to Alice K. and William H. Corkery in Aberdeen, Wash. Her father was the owner and president of the Donovan-Corkery Logging Company Inc. He later became president of the National Bank of Commerce in Seattle.

The family moved to the Capital Hill area of Seattle in 1928.

Summers were spent in the family beach home on the Burton peninsula of Vashon Island. She graduated from the University of Washington in 1941.

Mrs. Beall met her future husband, George Ferguson Beall (Fergie), on the pier at Dockton Park on Vashon. They were married on July 27, 1942, in Shreveport, La., where Lt. Beall was attending the U.S. Army Air Corp flight school. Not to be left behind, she also got her own pilots' license during the war.

At the end of World War II she and then Major Beall returned to Vashon where she raised their three children while he worked with his father and two brothers in the Beall Greenhouse Company, his responsibility being the Orchid Division. She traveled with her husband searching for orchids in the jungles of South America in addition to traveling with him throughout the rest of the world.

While raising her children, Mrs. Beall was active in the community of Vashon. She and Margaret Philbrick started the Vashon Island Ski School in the early 1960s. (Starting the ski school which bused the kids to the slopes allowed her to get out of listening to her own kids complain about who got to sit in the front seat on the long drives in the snow.) As her children got older she became a real estate broker working for Coldwell Banker and Windermere Realty companies. After the death of her husband in 1976, she moved to West Seattle to continue work as a real estate broker, but she maintained her close ties to Vashon. Upon retirement she became a docent at the Museum of Flight in Seattle and spent many hours helping to restore a World War Two bomber, a Boeing B-17.

Survivors include her daughter Julie Beall Huerta, of San Diego, Calif., her sons Richard Beall of Honolulu, Hawaii, and Peter Beall of Sausalito, Calif. and her sister Mavis Kallsen of Tacoma, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorials suggested to the Vashon-Maury Island Heritage Association, P.O. Box 723, Vashon or the Museum of Flight, 9404 E. Marginal Way S., Seattle 98108.
