Generation No. 2

2. MICHAEL COVER² PEARSON (*HENRY THOMAS*¹) was born 03 Aug 1845 in Montgomery Ohio, and died 16 Jan 1930 in Myrtle, Nez Perce, Idaho. He married (1) ANNA P TURNER 25 Dec 1866 in Mendoto, La Salle, Illinois¹. She was born 30 Dec 1847 in LaSalle, Illinois, and died 06 Jan 1890 in Sulphur Springs, Cloud, KS. He married (2) LILLIE MARILLA J APPLE Abt. 1890. She was born Apr 1866 in Indiana, and died 19 Feb 1951 in Clarkston, Asotin, Washington².

Notes for MICHAEL COVER PEARSON:

Huntington College, PA Historical Center The Christian Conservator February 5, 1930, p14. Rev. Michael C. Pearson son of Henry and Delilah Pearson was born in Montgomery Co., Ohio, August 4, 1846 and passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nellie Coal, near Lewiston, Idaho, aged 84 years, 4 months, and 16 days. He was the father of sixteen children; thirteen still living. Uncle Mike, as he was known to everyone, has been a faithful pastor in the Church of the United Brethren in Christ for almost sixty years, and a member of the Idaho Conference ever since it was organized. His preaching was evangelistic, and during his ministry he saw hundreds of souls converted to Christ. In one meeting eighty-six were converted. He was a constant contender for the faith. He was corageous and continued praising God until the end. He loved the church papers and always took them. He has been known to set a hen and raise chickens in order to have missionary money to take to the conference when he was too feeble to work. He missed only one conference in Idaho, that being last year when his affliction interfered with his going. That which the Apostle Paul said is true of Bro. Pearson: he has fought a good fight; he has finished the course; he has kept the faith; henceforth the crown of righteousness is inevitable. The funeral services were held in the Myrtle School House near his home. Rev. Geo. F. Calvert brought the message from Joshua 3:4, assisted by Bishop F. L. Hoskins. Internment was made in the Myrtle Cemetry by Bower-Wann and Company of Lewiston Idaho. "Twas sown in weakness here, 'twill then be raised in power; that which was sown an earthly seed shall be raised a heavenly flower."

Notes for MYRTLE V. PEARSON:

Huntington College, PA Historical Center, The Christian Conservator June 26, 1907 p13.

Myrtle V. Pearson was born at Sulphur Springs, Kansas January 15, 1888, and departed this life May 20th, 1907, aged 19 years, 4 months and 5 days. Deceased was the daughter of Rev. Jas. L. Pearson of our church and died at her fathers home near Myrtle, Idaho, after a few weeks illness. The immediate cause of her death being inflammation of the stomach. She was married November 23, 1905 to James M. Pearson who survives her. When Myrtle went down to her sick bed she was unsaved but she became anxious about her soul and asked her parents to pray for her, and on April 26, was gloriously converted to God; henceforth her chief concern was for the conversion of her young husband and many were her prayers and tears for him. She also expressed her sorrow that she must appear empty handed before the lord. "I wish I could tell everybody that there is but one way to live and that is to live right" was her testimony. Her death left a marked influence in the community. For her the post office at Myrtle, Idaho was named and for her we opened a new graveyard. She rests in Christ. Funeral by the writer attended by a large concourse of friends.

Notes for MYRTLE V. PEARSON:

Huntington College, PA Historical Center, The Christian Conservator June 26, 1907 p13.

Myrtle V. Pearson was born at Sulphur Springs, Kansas January 15, 1888, and departed this life May 20th, 1907, aged 19 years, 4 months and 5 days. Deceased was the daughter of Rev. Jas. L. Pearson of our church and died at her fathers home near Myrtle, Idaho, after a few weeks illness. The immediate cause of her death being inflammation of the stomach. She was married November 23, 1905 to James M. Pearson who survives her. When Myrtle went down to her sick bed she was unsaved but she became anxious about her soul and asked her parents to pray for her, and on April 26, was gloriously converted to God; henceforth her chief concern was for the conversion of her young husband and many were her prayers and tears for him. She also expressed her sorrow that she must appear empty handed before the lord. "I wish I could tell everybody that there is but one way to live and that is to live right" was her testimony. Her death left a marked influence in the community. For her the post office at Myrtle, Idaho was named and for her we opened a new graveyard. She rests in Christ. Funeral by the writer attended by a large concourse of friends.
