

Descendants of Samuel White

Courtesy of Frazier Farmstead Museum

Our goal is to research the pioneers that came into the Walla Walla Valley Area, as a starter for those doing their family genealogy; we are not related.

Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1956 > June > 10, page 28

VAN DONGES CELEBRATING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Bardel Van Donge will observe 50 years of married life on Sunday, June 17, with a potluck dinner at the Prospect Point Grange Hall, and a reception at their home, 147 Tieton St., between the hours of 3 and 6.

Bardel Van Donge and Ethel Cumins were married in Oregon City, Ore, June 20, 1906 and lived in or around Portland until 1908, when they moved to Nolan, Ore. Here they settled on a homestead, which they developed into a 1,200 acre wheat ranch.

In 1923, the couple moved to Cove, Ore., to a wheat and cattle ranch, which they operated for 10 years, moving to Walla Walla in 1931.

The Van Donges' ranch on Powerline Road was well-known for many years for its fine strawberries and other produce.

In 1945, they moved to town, turning the farming operations over to their sons, Millerd and Bardel Jr., to enjoy life of a bit more leisurely pace.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Donge had four children, three of whom are living: Mrs. Jack (Marjorie) Seagraves of Tacoma; Miller, and Bardel Jr., of Walla Walla. Dean Van Donge, the fourth, died in WWII. There are also nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Notes for SUSAN VANDONGE:

SUSAN VAN DONGE

Susan Van Donge passed away peacefully at her familys home in Walla Walla, Washington, on Thursday, March 30, 2006, with her family and friends by her side.

She was born July 30, 1942, in Baltimore, Maryland, to Bardel and Martha Van Donge. The family relocated to Washington State, where Susan graduated from Walla Walla High School in 1960. She attended the University of Washington where her interest in civil rights and peace activism burgeoned.

She became a licensed practical nurse and moved to California, where she would later earn registered nurse status. She put down roots in the San Francisco Bay Area and continued her participation in the peace movement, making many lifelong friends along the way.

She later moved to Willits and served her community working as a nurse at Howard Memorial Hospital. She became an active member of the community, participating in the Willits Community Theater and the Willits Environmental Center. She tirelessly championed a wide range of causes promoting social and environmental justice. Her intrepid spirit carried her across the globe, often to some of the most underdeveloped areas of the world. She volunteered her nursing skills for relief efforts in Israel, Palestine and Egypt as well as Central America.

A woman of steadfast integrity and deep compassion she leaves behind a vast circle of friends and colleagues who will miss her dearly.

She is survived by son Niels Kirk of Willits; stepsons Kristian Kirk of Santa Rosa and Vincent Kirk of San Francisco; mother Martha Van Donge of Walla Walla; sisters Connie Rogers and Carolee White of Walla, Walla; brother Bob Van Donge of Walla Walla; many cousins, and numerous friends she considered family. A celebration of Susan's life will be held at Willits United Methodist Church, at the corner of School and Pine Streets, at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 7. People are encouraged to bring finger foods and/or beverages to share.
