An Illustrated History Of North Idaho Embracing Nez Perces, Idaho, Latah, Kootenai, and Shoshone Counties, State Of Idaho, Western Historical Publishing Company, 1903

EVERETT G. DEARDORFF is a young man of promise and although he is not one of the earlier pioneers, still he comes to Idaho County with that capability and energy which will materially augment the building force and advancing spirit of the county. He was born in Callaway county, Missouri, on December 17, 1879, the son of James R. and Rebecca (King) Deardorff. The father was born in Ohio, on October 6, 1859, and is now a farmer, also operates a sawmill and a gristmill. The mother of our subject was born in Illinois, was bereft of her parents when an infant, and she died in 1886. Our subject was a constant attendant on the common schools between the times of farm work up to 1897, then he went to Illinois, and was rejected when enlisting for the Spanish war on account of his youth. Returning home he remained until the spring of 1899 then wrought, on government work on the Mississippi and six months later went to Chillicothe normal school in Missouri, then returned to the government work, being foreman of the cutting crew. Later he served in the capacity of cook, then wrought in a glucose factory, then returned to the same normal school, after which he visited his home and on the third day of July, 1902, he came west, landing in Idaho county, where he went to work near Grangeville on a farm. He took the school examination and securing a certificate for teaching, chose his first school in the Redrock district, and on February 20, he finished successfully a five months' term. Three days later he began another term, at the Lamb school near Lowe and is fast making himself popular as a teacher. Mr. Deardorff has one brother, Urban, one half-brother, Earl, and one half-sister, Leota. Mr. Deardorff is a Democrat and active in the realm of political life. He has made application for a membership in the I. O. O. F. and is a popular young man.

Excerpt from Valley Herald, May 28, 1993 by Helen Woodroofe.

Woodroof's parents, Henry and Kathleen Barrett, courted after meeting while working at their fathers' rival hardware stores in Athena. The Barrett's had two other daughters, Beverly Tillman of Athena and the late Genevieve "Genny" Geissel. Henry was a farmer and sheep man, but later became the Athena postmaster with Kathleen as his assistant. Later, she became postmaster with Henry as her assistant until his retirement. Her tenure in the Post Office spanned 30 years.

Henry had also been president of the Weston Normal School Alumni Association and the Umatilla County Pioneer Reunion until his death in 1962.

Death Claims Athena Native

ATHENA -- Mrs Henry A Barrett, who died Friday night at her home here after an extended illness, was a lifelong resident of the community.

As Kathleen McEwen, she was the daughter of Mrs. Andrew B McEwen, now living in Portland, and the late A. B. McEwen, pioneers who early settled farming land in Umatilla County. She was born Nov. 11, 1888, on their farm near Athena.

September 13, 1912, she was married to Henry A Barrett, who survives.

Mrs Barrett had spent nearly all the past 30 years in the Athena postoffice, first as assistant and since 1937 as postmaster. She belonged to the Presbyterian Church at Pendleton, was a charter member of McKenzie Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and was active in civic and social work of the community.

The new McEwen High School of Athena was erected on land donated by her mother from the original McEwen farm.

Besides her husband and mother, Mrs. Barrett leaves three daughters, Mrs Robin (Helen) Woodrooffe, Mrs Leonard (Genevieve) Geissel and Mrs Jack (Beverly) Tillman, all of Athena; a brother, Ralph McEwen of Haines, Ore.; two sisters, Mrs William (Jessica) Jenkins of Riverside, Calif., and Mrs. Dallas (Thelma) Smith of Portland; and five grandchildren.

The funeral is tentatively set for 2 p.m. Tuesday from the Athena Baptist Church with the Rev Earle Cochran, pastor of the Pendleton Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Rev. M. B. Ketchem of the Athena Baptist Church, officiating.

Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1976 > November > 7 Pg 1

'Leonard Gas Station' finally gets vacation

ATHENA – Leonard Geissel was the official bicycle repairman for at least three generations of Athena's youngsters.

He could always be counted on to fix a flat bike tire or repair a broken bike.

And these services were offered by Geissel for free.

Last week, he ended that career when he locked the doors of the Athena Service Station for the last time.

Geissel, 68, retired after doing business on the corner of Fourth Avenue and Main Street for more than 37 years.

In addition to his avocation of repairing bicycles, Geissel, over the years, became the semiofficial crossing guard for many children on their way home from school.

Nearly every day, he could be seen taking time out from his business to help a kindergartener make it across Main Street.

He also acted as an arbitrator on many occasions for the area's youngsters, and his telephone was always available just for the asking.

Geissel, Athena's recipient of this year's Man of the Year award, could always be counted on to buy raffle tickets or candy from area children.

Two year's ago, a group of third-graders made Geissel birthday cards with "I love you" written on them.

One said, "Happy Birthday Leonard Gas Station".

On Geissel's last day in business, he arrived at the station to find that the outside walls had been papered with drawings and notes from the children.

There was also a big sign which said, "Thanks for the Helping Hand"

In addition to the town's children, Geissel is well liked by everyone he comes in contact with, according to his friends.

"He's the only man in the world I know of who doesn't have an enemy," says Athena lawyer Don Duncan.

His station became the unofficial meeting place for many of the area's citizens, according to Duncan.

Geissel would always have a fresh supply of peanuts available on any day.

Farmers, lawyers, insurance men, hunters or fishermen could be seen with Geissel huddled around the station's pot-bellied stove, hulling peanuts and exchanging commentary on the day's current events, Duncan says.

"The whole town's going to miss him," the lawyer says.

Geissel moved to Athena with his family 62 years ago.

Fifty of those years were spent working on Main Street. First at the drug store, then at the bank and finally the service station business.

Geissel says the only thing he is sure of about his retirement is that he won't have to get up each morning and come down to the station to open it up.

He says he might take a vacation because he hasn't had one in 14 years.

Beverly Tillman

Athena Beverly Jean Barrett Tillman of Bend died there July 19, 2000, of complications arising from Alzheimer's disease; she was 79.

The funeral service was held Tuesday, July 25, at Athena First Baptist Church.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Athena Civic Memorial Association, Umatilla County Historical Society, Athena First Baptist Church Missionary Society or the Oregon Trail Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association via dotti.wilson@akz-or.org.

Tillman was born July 25, 1920, in Athena, the youngest daughter of Henry Adams and Kathleen McEwen Barrett. She attended Athena schools and Oregon State College, where her education was interrupted by WWII.

She worked in the Kaiser Shipyards in Portland and as a bookkeeper for G.M. Whitney Pea Co. On May 31, 1948, she married John H. Tillman, Jr. in Pendleton.

In 52 years together, they ran a wheat and cattle operation north of Adams, and raised three sons. She resumed studies at Whitman College during the 1960's.

A descendant of Oregon Trail immigrants of the 1850's, she pursued a lifelong interest in genealogical research. Each year, Tillman donated a trophy in honor of her father, a former mayor of Athena, to the winning team in the Pony Express Race at the Pendleton Roundup.

An active rider, Tillman was a princess on the 1945 Round-Up Court.

She served many years as an organist for her church. Her interest also include reading, gardening and travel.

She was treasurer of the Athena Civic Memorial Association and a Caledonian Games committee member and was active in the Athena Chamber of Commerce, Baptist Missionary Society, local Daughters of the American Revolution, Umatilla County Historical Society, Athena Study Club, Boy Scouts, Athena Drum and Bugle Corps and PTA. She was a secretary for the Agriculture and Rules committees during two terms of the state Senate.

In declining health for several years, Tillman was cared for by family members in her home until she moved to care facilities in Walla Walla lastsummer and in Bend this spring.

She is survived by her husband, of Athena; and three sons and a daughter-in-law, Barrett Tillman of Mesa, Arizona, John Tillman of Athena and Andy and Cheryl Tillman of Bend. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Genevieve Geissel in 1980, and Helen Woodroofe in 1994.

Athena author chronicles history of bomber by Frederick A. Johnsen

Barrett Tillman, a dryland wheat rancher in Athena, is something of a Blue Mountain contradiction. Tillman writes historical accounts about Navy warplanes that spent most of their time over the vast Pacific Ocean.

His latest work, and first full-length book, is "The Dauntless Dive Bomer of World War Two," published by the Naval Institute, Annapolis, Md. It is hardcover, has 232 pages, including 53 illustrations, and sells for $14.95. The book chronicles the development and use of the Douglas SBD Dauntless dive bomber.
