Biography of Albert Vaughan, 1902, Baker Co., Oregon: Surnames: Vaughan, Mc Carthy, Whitley, Ridenour.

Albert Vaughan

Mr. Vaughan was born at Elko, Nevada in 1877, his parents being Henry C. and Lois (McCarthy) Vaughan. He remained with the remainder of the family in the old parental home until his parents passed away, his business being mining.

After he began life's struggle on his own account he still continued to search for mineral wealth. In 1897 in company with his brother, Jake. P., he discovered what is now extensively known as the Irondyke mine. The two were searching for iron used in fluxing in smelters, and while so engaged they discovered a very rich copper mine, which they named the Irondyke, commemorative of the search in which they were engaged at the time. They retained the claim about six months, at the end of which time they had ten thousand tons of ore in sight. They then bonded their mine for two years, the consideration to be forty thousand dollars.

Immediately upon negotiating this sale our subject engaged in the cattle business and in general farming, purchasing a quarter section of land two and a half miles northeast of Pine post-office, but it is needless to state that he is still interested in mining. He owns some promising claims at Sumpter and Homestead.

In politics Mr. Vaughan is an active Democrat. He was married at Baker City on February 18, 1900, the lady being Amy A., daughter of Emsley and Martha (Whitley) Ridenour, natives respectively of Illinois and Oregon and residents at present of Pine valley.

Laurence J. Cummings

Funeral Services will be held for Laurence J. Cummings at 11 a.m. Friday, April 30th at Newton-Bracewell Chico Funeral Home. He passed away on April 23, 2004 after a long and productive life. Laurence was born in Petrolia, Calif. on December 21, 1903 to Eunice Hazelton and Amos Cummings. On June 4, 1928, he graduated from Oregon State Agricultural College with a Bachelor of Science in Logging Engineering. In 1929 he married Irma Downs, his wife of 75 years. After receiving a Master's Degree from Yale University, he followed a career from 1933 to 1947 in the US Forest Service. He then traveled with his family to Japan from 1947 to 1952 as a forestry advisor in the Natural Resources Division of the Occupation Forces. Finally, he became an Agriculture Advisor for the US Agency for International Development (USAID) until his retirement in 1968. His posts while working for the US Government took him to the Canal Zone in Panama, to Quito, Ecuador, to Bogota, Columbia, to Liberia and then to Arlington, Virginia. While retired in Santa Rosa, California, he enjoyed his family, played golf and traveled with his beloved wife in his Airstream Trailer. Highlights of his life were celebrating 50 years of marriage with family and friends from all over the USA and recently, celebrating his 100th birthday with his family honoring the accomplishments of his life in words and pictures. He will be dearly missed by his wife, Irma Cummings; his two daughters, Laurel Branam-Gold and Lucile Chaille; and his son, Jim Cummings. He leaves behind a son-in-law, Marvin Gold; a daughter-in-law, Susie Cummings; two grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. Larry Cummings was a person of great integrity, never turning down an opportunity to travel abroad for a new adventure. We will miss him dearly. Memorial contributions may be made to the Yahi Group Sierra Club in care of the funeral home, and condolences can be sent online at nbcfh.com.
