Generation No. 1

1. JOHN1 ASHPAUGH was born 14 Jan 1792 in Pennsylvania, and died 11 Feb 1872 in Brownville, Nemaha, NE. He married HESTER PAGE 22 Sep 1814 in Butler Co., Ohio, daughter of NATHAN PAGE and REBECCA JACKSON. She was born 12 Jul 1795 in Terrehaute, Vigo, IN, and died 29 Aug 1878 in Brownville, Nemaha, NE.

Notes for JOHN ASHPAUGH:

<http://iagenweb.org/boards/keokuk/queries/index.cgi?read=53639>

My great+ grandparents were John and Hester Page Ashpaugh. They lived in this county in the 1860's and 1870's - I know they lived in Van Buren and then Sigourney - Would appreciate any information, burial location, etc I could get - I know that they had at least 3 children all born in Illinois. Rebecca Page Ashpaugh married Thomas Edwards and was the first white woman in Nemaha county NE. I am descended from her. Jemina or Jemima Ashpaugh married Jeremiah Ralston and went by wagontrain to Oregon and her husband founded the town of Lebanon Oregon. David Ashpaugh married a Harriet Sunderland and also went by wagon train to Oregon and built some of the first brick buildings in Walla Walla Washington and Umatilla Oregon area. I know John was a mason and builder.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC COMES IN 1880

A branch of the Southern Pacific was built from Albany to Lebanon in 1880. To a generation to whom railroad travel means as little as it does to this generation, it is hard to picture the excitement in Lebanon when the line was built. Mrs. Jeremiah Ralston gave the Southern Pacific a right of way through a field and 13 and a half acres for a station, receiving as a mark of appreciation from the railroad company a lifetime pass.

http://www.linncountyroots.com/Churches/history\_of\_the\_first\_methodist\_c.htm

Rev. T. L. Woodward, often here between preaching trips, started taking subscriptions for a school to be known as Santiam Academy. When the town was platted, Jeremiah Ralston and his wife Jemima, and Morgan Kees and his wife Mary, each gave five acres to form a ten-acre campus. Others gave wheat or money or labor or lumber. Thus the building of this pioneer school in 1856 was a labor of love. Later, in 1861, Owen Kees bequeathed $1800 as an endowment fund. The furnishings came around the Horn, including the old bell which was now in the old high school belfry which later was tolled for the assassination of Lincoln. This building was an excellent example of early American school architecture. In 1857 "Father" Wilbur's building was added to the west side of the Academy building as a residence for the professors of the school.

The Academy was not a definite legal organization until on January 18, 1854, by a special Act of the Oregon Territorial Legislature the school was organized by the Methodist Church. The members of the first Board of Trustees were: John McKinney, Aaron J. Hyde, the Rev. Thomas H. Pearne, William C. Gallagher, Andrew Kees, Alvan H. Wailer, Morgan Kees, Jeremiah Ralston, Luther T. Woodward, Delazon Smith, Luther Elkins, John Settle and David W. Ballard. In 1857, William Helm, Thomas Angell and Ruben S. Coyle are also named as trustees.

The Christian Church was, as has been said, the first religious body in the Territory--except the Indian Mission--and was organized in Brownville in January, 1855. Elder Joel M. Wood was the first pastor, and preached the first sermon in a schoolhouse. Services were held quite regularly in the schoolhouse, and at a later day, in the Baptist Church for several years. Elders Hawley, Connoran and T.B. Edwards ministered to the church for several years after the departure of Elder Wood, and, in 1877, the members, feeling that from carelessness or want of energy the denomination was losing ground, In November of that year a new organization was effected, and measures were taken to wipe out the reproach of using schoolhouses and the buildings of other sects. Funds were raised, and a neat, substantial frame building, 36x66 feet, was built on Main street, at an expense of $2,300. The church numbers ninety members, and Elder Rowe is now preaching on his second year. The Sabbath school numbers seventy-five scholars, with seven teachers. The Elders are D.O. Cross, William Zook, and William Berger.

The wife of Thomas B. Edwards was the first woman to come, and arrived with her husband a few weeks after the first settler. Taulbird Edwards erected the first building on ground where the American House stands

The History of North Washington" Published 1904

JOHN W. ASHPAUGH

John W. Ashpaugh is well known in the Pend d'Oreille county as one of the industrious and progressive citizens. He was born in Linn county, Oregon, March 20,1857, the son of David and Harriet (Sunderland) Ashpaugh, natives of Indiana. In 1853 they traveled the dreary plains from Indiana to Albany, Oregon, consuming six months in the journey. Eight years later they removed to Walla Walla, where they lived for twenty years, then they returned to Oregon and are now dwelling in Arlington,that state. They were the parents of ten children, J.W., who is the subject of this article, Lizzie, Callie, Jemima, May, Cyrus, Hattie, Harry, Lora, and Ralph. Our subject was well educated in the schools of Walla Walla county and remained with his parents until he was seventeen years of age. He then spent several years in making himself master of the brick layer's trade, which he followed for twenty years in different sections of the northwest. In 1892 he first located in Stevens county, settled upon land which upon being surveyed proved to belong to the railroad company. He abandoned it in 1895 and took up his trade in Newport, then he went to Portland,Stevens county and assisted to establish the cement works there, after which he returned to Newport and located his present place about one mile south from that town. He has a large body of timber and he considers the estate worth seven thousand dollars. He has improved his farm in a becoming manner and is a prosperous man. Mr. Ashpaugh is a Socialist in political belief and active in that realm. His father was a Democrat and representative to the territorial legislature from Walla Walla county in 1872. He was on the committee that met President Villard and others at the time of the extension of the O.R. & N. from Pendleton to Walla Walla. Mr. Ashpaugh is a member of the I.O.O.F., the K. of P., and the W.W.

17. ELIZA<sup>3</sup> RALSTON (JESSONICAH JEMINA<sup>2</sup> ASHPAUGH, JOHN<sup>1</sup>) was born 07 Dec 1843 in Lebanon, Linn County, Oregon, and died 16 Jan 1917 in I.O.O.F. Old Folks Home, Portland, Oregon<sup>48,49</sup>. She married DAVID SYLVESTER ROLAND 27 May 1858 in Linn County, Oregon, son of DAVID ROLAND and ELIZA BARNES. He was born 14 Jul 1834 in Danville, Vermillion Cournty, Illinois, and died 25 Sep 1890 in Portland, Oregon.

Notes for ELIZA RALSTON:

Eliza is listed in the City Directory of 1891 as being the widow of David Sylvester Roland and shows that she is living with her sons Jeremiah, David D. and Robert Ralston Roland at 190 S.W. Hooker St., Portland, Oregon. My father David Arthur Roland (b. 1899) remembered visiting her many times as a child at the house on Hooker St. S.W. Hooker St. is between Macadam Blvd and Corbett Ave. close to downtown Portland.
