Major Ashworth Gets Cluster to His Medal

Maj. William J. Ashworth of Portland, formerly of WEston, has been awarded an oak leaf cluster to the bronze star for meritorious achievement during the invasion of Palawan. He won the bronze star during the battle of Biak last year. The decoration was bestowed on him by Maj. Gen. Jens A. Doe, commander of the 31st infantry division.

A 1931 graduate of WEston, Ore., high school, Ashworth subsequently attended George Washington University and Northwest College of Law. Prior to entering the federal service when the Oregon National guard was called to active duty in September, 1940, Maj. Ashworth served as secretary to the United States district attorney of Oregon. He served as campaign secretary to Walter M. Pierce, former eastern Oregon congressman, from 1934 to 1938. In 1937 he went to Washington, D. C., as speaker of "the little congress."

Mrs. Gertrude L. Ashworth, his wife, is residing at 2533 S. E. Taylor street, Portland. The major has served in the adjutant-general section of the 41st for six years. He went overseas in March, 1942, as a master sergeant and won his promotion to major last May. He has been awarded the air medal for courier operations in Papuan, New Guinea, in January 1943.
