Camping Out includes Entire Lowden Family

"Cooperation means success,; says Mrs. Leon (Bonita) Mayberry of Lowden, state president of Ladies' Auxiliary, Washington Rural Letter Carriers' Association. "We try to assist our husbands in many ways, especially with correspondence to congressmen and representatives in our government."

Leon Mayberry took over the route out of Lowden, which covers approximately 40 miles, upon retirement of Archie Dennis.

Mrs. Mayberry, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Barney, were pioneers of the Lowden district where she was born and raised, has four children; Daryll and his wife, the former Judy Buckley, make their home in Touchet; Mrs. William (Phyllis) Dial, her husband and 16-month-old son, Matthew, live in Milton-Freewater; Pat is in his junior year at Wa-Hi; and seven-year-old Mike attends Lowden grade school.

Sisters of her daughter-in-law, Charlene and Glenna Buckley, have made their home with the Mayberrys since the death of their parents in an auto accident near Wallula Junction almost two years ago.

Mrs. Mayberry has been an active worker in every organization which could be of benefit to her family and community. She was Lowden 4-H leader eight years; helped organize Lowden PTA; has been active in French town Recreation Club, a group which has provided a meeting place for 4-H clubs and other youth activities; in Lowden Study Club; and for her own pleasure, Lo-Wa-To bridge club.

"A favorite hobby of the whole family is camping out," says Mrs. Mayberry. "We recently acquired a travel-trailer with cooking and sleeping facilities, and other than adding a few groceries we are ready to leave on a moment's notice. And that is just about how much notice my husband often gives," declares Mrs. Mayberry.

In spite of a busy schedule which includes working Saturday as postal clerk in the Lowden post office and occasionally substituting for Mrs. Brashear. Lowden school cook, Mrs. Mayberry is capable homemaker, say members of the family.

"We just don't use mixes of any kind" says Mrs. Mayberry. "We start from scratch with cakes, cookies and homemade breads."

Sewing and gardening are also favorite hobbies. Mrs. Mayberry made her daughter's wedding dress and Charlene's dress for the Touchet May Day celebration last week.

"We celebrated our silver anniversary last November," says Mrs. Mayberry, "and I'm looking forward to another wonderful 25 years. We will strive for the 50-year mark which my parents celebrated three years ago."

The auxiliary's state convention is dated July 9-12 at Moses Lake and the Mayberrys plan to be on hand. The state project this year is the same as the National -- education for the mentally retarded.

Children of LEON MAYBERRY and BONITA BARNEY are:

i. DARYLL6 MAYBERRY, m. JUDY BUCKLEY.
