GEORGE F. LA FONTAINE.

George F. La Fontaine, who is engaged in the transfer and storage business in Portland, was born in St. Paul, Oregon, February 22, 1891. He was educated in the public schools of St. Paul, while spending his youthful days in the home of his parents. His father, Narisace La Fontaine was born in the Province of Quebec, Canada, and came to Portland in 1851 when fifteen years of age. He afterward located at St. Paul, Oregon, where he homesteaded on the Nehalem mountains near Sherwood, residing there for nine years, at which time he disposed of the property and again took up his abode in St. Paul, once more following farming. In 1893 he sold his property and removed to Washington. While carrying on agricultural pursuits at St. Paul he was badly burned in a forest fire, in fact his arms and back were so frightfully burned while he was fighting the flames that it caused him to give up all farming and all active work. In 1896 he returned to Portland and continued to reside here until two years prior to his death, which occurred in the home of his son, B. F. La Fontaine, near Salem, on December 26, 1913. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Margaret Duperre, is a native of Oregon and a daughter of a native French Canadian, who first came to Oregon in 1826. She is living with her son near Salem at the age of sixty-seven years.

George F. La Fontaine of this review has always resided in the west and has long been imbued by the spirit of western enterprise and progress. After attending the public school of his native town he continued his education in St. George's school at Tacoma, Washington, from which he was graduated in 1903. He then engaged in the baggage and express business in Portland and in 1917 established business on his own account at 66 Sixth street, under the name of the Baggage Transfer & Express Company. He now employs four trucks in his transfer department and also has a large patronage in the storage department of his business.

On the 19th of March, 1915, Mr. La Fontaine was married to Miss Delphia May Shephard, a native of western Oregon and a daughter of Leonard and Josephine (Brassfield) Shephard, who were pioneers of this state, crossing the plains with ox teams at a very early day. Both are now deceased. The Shephards crossed the plains from Iowa in 1849. They settled where Baker City now stands.

Mr. La Fontaine has long taken an active interest in politics as a republican. He is a young man of great enterprise and energy and has already made a creditable position in business circles.

12. THOMAS AARON³ BRASSFIELD (*THOMAS ARMINDY*², *DENNIS MICHAEL T*¹) was born Abt. 1863 in Scio, Linn, OR. He married NANCY JANE CLARK 07 Dec 1890 in Gilliam County, Oregon⁵⁷, daughter of JACOB CLARK and JOANNA CUMMINS. She was born Abt. 1865 in OR, and died Abt. 1901 in Baker, Union, Oregon.

Notes for THOMAS AARON BRASSFIELD:

Use of the "BRASSFIELD" vs "BRASFIELD" name has been inconsistent in the same Genealogical line, e.g., RIN 132'S offspring all used "BRASFIELD".

RIN 132'S name and vital statistic dates have been verified By tombstoned inscription By royn love Brasfield, his grandson.

Thomas Aaron Brassfield is buried in the union section of the Mt. Hope Cemetery in Baker City, Oregon. He, his wife and newborn son are buried in a common grave.
