Legal name change to Earl Grant

<http://boards.ancestry.com/localities.northam.usa.states.oregon.counties.union/116.1.1/mb.ashx>

Dena: Thanks for your offer. Do you belong to a genealogical society or should I make a personal donation?

Earl Grant, born on March 26, 1888 in Weston, OR. His name at birth was Uberta Earl Brassfield and was changed when he became a rodeo performer in Oregon. He married Grace unknown, and had one son, Delbert E. Grant. This family is shown on both the 1920 and 1930 Federal Census in LaGrande, Union County, OR. Delbert was born in about 1919, and may still be living.

I know Earl died March 17, 1951 in probably Olympia (or Tacoma) WA. He is buried in the cemetery in Olympia. I don't believe he was married too long as I remember him being around Olympia in the 1940's, without wife or son. He was my Uncle, so Delbert would be my first cousin. Also Delbert may not know he is really a Brassfield.

I can find no sign of the marriage of Earl and Grace, no birth record of Delbert, and no record of Grace or Delbert after Earl left for greener pastures.

I will appreciate anything you can dig up about these people.

Thanks,

John Brassfield
