Notes for JUNE MARIE WELLS:

Baker City Herald

Published: November 9, 2001

June Blank

June Marie Wells Blank, 80, a longtime Richland resident, died Nov. 6, 2001, at her home after a long battle with ovarian cancer.

Her graveside funeral was today at 3 p.m. at Eagle Valley Cemetery in Richland. Lowell Stidolph officiated.

Her loving sister and daughter took care of her for the past few years. She never complained, kept alert and sharp-minded, and she appreciated all of the kindness that both old and new friends showed her. Three years is a long time to be virtually helpless. She showed a strong will to hold it all together. Marie (as she was known) was buried next to her husband Earl.

Mrs. Blank was born June 14, 1921, in the small town of Heath, Idaho, up Brownlee Creek. She was living in Cambridge, Idaho, when the polio epidemic was raging throughout the country. Marie was six years old when she got the disease. She was taken to the Shriner's Hospital in Portland when she was nine for treatment and an operation. It was not an easy trip back then. She was very brave and never complained. She stayed there for several months all by herself and always said they were wonderful to her. When she was able to go home, they even gave her a new dress.

Mrs. Blank's family moved to Eagle Valley in 1933. She attended the old Daly Creek School and graduated from Eagle Valley High School in 1940.

She attended nursing school and got top grades, but had to give it up as her legs were not strong enough. She was married to Earl Blank on June 2, 1941.

Mrs. Blank enjoyed reading, sewing, tying knots, crocheting rag rugs, and being with her family. She loved to laugh and giggle and was known as 'Ree Ree' by all of the kids who loved her. She was a quiet and shy lady, never a social butterfly, but she will be deeply missed by those who knew her.

She also made the best apple pies ever, and her crusts were gorgeous.

Mrs. Blank is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Earletta Marie and Steven Lee Baker of Portland; a granddaughter, Leslie Marie Cook, and her husband, Scott, and a great-grandson, Jeremy Cook, all of Kelso, Wash., a grandson, Travis Lee Baker and his wife, Christine, of Tucson, Ariz.; a sister, Billie Wells of Richland; nieces and nephews including Loretta Larkins of Richland, Diana Smith and her son, Coby Ryder, of Portland, Zona Ciochetti of Chapel Hill, N.C., and Davis Pollard and his children, Jessica and Logan of Lovelock, Nev.; many cousins who are very dear and close to her; and a special aunt, Fannie Blank.

Mrs. Blank was preceded in death by her parents, Harley and Maggie Wells; a five-year-old sister, Retha, and her husband, Earl, who died in 1981.

Contributions in Mrs. Blank's memory may be made to the American Cancer Society or the Eagle Valley Ambulance Fund in care of Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home, P.O. Box 543, Halfway, OR 97834.

Notes for DALE LAVON BLANK:

Dale L. Blank 80, of Keller, died Saturday, Nov. 25, 2006, at his Keller home.

Dale was born Sept. 15, 1926, in Richland, Ore., to George W. and Lottie C. (Gordon) Blank. He grew up and attended school in Richland, following which he joined the U.S. Navy. Dale served his country during WWII from 1945-1946. During this time he served on a destroyer in the Japanese Theater.

Following his honorable discharge in August of 1946, Dale returned to Richland where he married Ruby Seevers in 1947. Together they had and raised their three children. They were later divorced. He married Helen Daniels in December of 1979 and they have made Keller their home.

Dale worked for many years in the logging industry, including time with Whitelaw Logging & Timber and Bush Aubertin Logging. He also ran his own logging operation in Republic for a time. Dale retired from the timber industry in 1974 and went to work for the Ferry County Road Dept. until his retirement in 1990.

He loved to hunt and fish. Dale loved to work with his hands and he and Helen built their home together in Keller. He was a member of the Keller Community Church having been baptized in 1981. Dale served in various capacities in the church's life. Dale became a Christian later in his life. He had a simple faith that was expressed in a plain and uncomplicated way. He simply believed that when this part of his journey was over, he would go home to be with the Lord he came to know. He served on the Keller School Board for many years.

Dale loved his faithful dog Mindy. They were constant companions to say the least.

He is survived by his wife Helen at their Keller home; two daughters and husbands Maureen & Tim Alling; Shawnee & Yogi Watlamett; a son Perry Blank; three stepchildren & spouses Terry & Arnett Daniels; Debbie & Dick Carroll; Tom & Karen Daniels; his sister Leona Speelman; 8 grandchildren; 13 step-grandchildren and 8 step-great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, 9 brothers, 4 sisters and an infant grandson.

The viewing for family and friends will take place at Strate Funeral Home in Grand Coulee on Thursday, from 3 to 7 p.m. The memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Friday, Dec. 1, at the Keller Community Church.

Memorials are suggested to the American Heart Association or to the American Cancer Society.
