Bridgewater, Elvina, died Sep 14, 1877 ae 62y 4m 16d, -24

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~iataylor/1881/pp621.html>

The first actual settler of Polk township was Mr. Thompson. He came there in 1844, and died not long afterward. None of his history is accessible to us. Following him came Elias Bridgewater in 1852, from Orange county Indiana. Mr. Bridgewater settled on section 6, where he still resides. In 1877 he suffered the loss of his aged wife and helpmeet by drowning. In a condition of mental aberration she threw herself into a deep well, and when her body was taken out she had long been dead.

Notes for THOMAS BRIDGEWATER:

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~iataylor/queries/tci117c.html>

Last night (January 22, 2004) I visited at the Thomas Bridgewater/Luvisa Elkins family sheet. Is there additional contact that I can make with this family group? I see there is a Hazel P. Bridgewater listed in Portland but the date of information is 02 February, 1977. Do you know if that is still current mailing information? I have mailed a letter to Hazel P. Bridgewater but expect that the Bridgewaters, Shearers, Kuhns, McGuires and Bowels all in the Washington/Oregon area might also be interested some day not to mention the search for the ancestors of George Hamilton Darland. Thanks again for your interest, Please advise. Sincerely, Darwin Saylor San Diego darlinsayl@earthlink.net

Notes for THOMAS JEFFERSON HARRISON:

<http://www.usgennet.org/usa/in/county/orange/biogs9.htm>

THOMAS JEFFERSON HARRISON was born to Christopher and Mary Harrison on the 26th Oct 1842 in Martin County, Indiana. There he remained gaining his schooling and working on the farm, until he had reached his majority. When the call came for men to defend the flag he immediately responded, and on August 2, 1862 he enlisted as Corporal in Company D Sixteenth Indiana Regiment, which was assigned to duty in the Thirteenth Corps under General Grant. Very soon the patriotic farmer youth was amid the smoke and roar of battle, skirmishing a good portion of the time. Mr. Harrison had forgotten the large number of them, but of the battles he participated in many of which the following is a partial list. He fought before Vicksburg and at Arkansas Post, also at Champion Hill and Richmond, Kentucky. He participated in the conflict at Chickasaw Bluff and Bayou and did valiant service at Mansfield, Louisiana, where with others he was taken captive and consigned to the prison at Tyler, Texas, learning for thirteen months what were the ins and outs of a war prison. Being exchanged he was at once in the service again, and continued there until the 15 of June 1865, where he was honorably discharged and returned to the quieter pursuits of agriculture in the home place in Indiana. He remained in that place and occupation until 1886 and then gathered his substance together and came west and located. Later he secured quarter section upon which he now lives, six miles northwest from North Powder, (Oregon) and there he has built himself and family a good home. Mr. Harrison has demonstrated in peace as in war that he is able to fight the battles that came before the pilgrims in this world and success has attended his efforts. He is highly respected and esteemed by his fellows as he was brave and intrepid in the conflicts of war.

Mr. Harrison and Miss Mary Ellen, daughter of Joseph and Rhoda Roach of Orange County, Indiana were married on 15 April 1866 and to this worthy couple have been born ten children: Charles A. married to Mary Reynolds; Joseph C. married to Mary Calhoun; Clara E. married to Edward Carnes; Rhoda J. married to Henry Locken; Matilda A. married to Matthew Simonis; George I. married to Josephine Simonis; Christopher married to Margarette Gilkisen; Bennett and Benton (twins); Mary M. married to Frank Bowers.

Mr. Harrison is one of the most highly respected and substantial citizens of the county, and has always been found on the side of good government. He is an ardent advocate of sound principles, being a man of fine capabilities and unswerving integrity. Mr. Harrison died 10th June, 1920 and is buried at North Powder, Oregon.

Note from Phyllis Hill: This was sent to me by Ruth Harrison Hunt, a daughter of George I. and Josephine (Simonis) Harrison. I have copied it just as it is, except for correcting a couple of spelling errors. She said it was copied from a county history. It has some other errors: the Harrison family moved around a good deal and Thomas J. Harrison could have been in either Martin or Orange County. I found the family in Orange County census records until 1880, when they were in Peculiar Twp, Harrison Co, Missouri. Thomas and his family were with them so they probably left Orange Co. about 1876. Thomas J. Harrison was the oldest brother of my grandmother, Nancy Ellen Harrison Breeden, she was born in Lawrence Co. His wife's name was Louisa Ellen Roach.
