SILVER CREEK CEMETERIAL --

Annual Meeting of the Silver Creek Cemeterial Association:

Interesting Historical Paper by the Secretary"

(written by William H. McCoy)

Minutes of the 11th annual meeting of the Silver Creek Cemetery Association in 1886, published in the National Democrat newspaper in Jeffersonville, Indiana on May 21, 1886

THE PIONEER FAMILIES OF CLARK COUNTY

The families and individuals of whom we shall give a brief history in this the second chapter of our paper, are the Littells, Bowells, Nugents, Nathan Kelly, Thomas Broadstreet, Jeremiah Payne, Whites, Sellers, Peytons, Worrall, Harrods, Perrys, Bottorffs, Capt. John Norris, McCormicks, Listers, McCoys, Jonah Harris, Dr. Kellogg, and Kahls.

The Bottorffs are Pennsylvania Germans. They came from Pennsylvania to Kentucky sometime between 1790 and 1800. Simon Bottorff Sr., was the father of this the most numerous family in Clark county. He had eight sons, viz: Henry, John, Peter, Jacob, Samuel, Lewis, William, and George. His only daughter was the wife of John Ganote, Sr. Mr. Simon Bottorff Sr., was a minister of the United Brethren faith.

He never came to Indiana Territory. He died in Kentucky.

All the sons of Simon Bottorff, Sr. settled in this Territory. None of this name ever connected with Silver Creek church. They were Methodists. Peter and Samuel were Methodist preachers.

Benjamin and William, sons of old Uncle Henry Bottorff, are buried here, and also his daughter, Mrs. Nancy Harrod and a number of others of the same name and family.

Samuel Harrod was the father of Henry Harrod and Squire William Harrod. His daughters were Sarah, Katie and Mary. The first was the first wife of Lewis Bottorff, a second married George Taft, and a third David Reed. Mr. Samuel Harrod, his wife, his son Henry, ex-clerk of the county, and many of the grandchildren are buried here.

Notes for CLAUD ORASTUS BOTTORFF:

From Mitzi Gilbert - gsmutti@nwinform.net Oct. 8, 2003

The web site that shows the descendants of T. J. Bottorff has a few errors and there is further info I can add. I am a direct descendant of these folks. Claude Orastus Bottorff was my grandfather.

Just a few notes:

Although the census shows T. J. it is actually I. J. as in Isaac Jefferson Bottorff. Hannah Bottorff's maiden name is Hannah Jane Andrews. She is also buried in the Milton-Freewater Cemetery. Isaac died in 1885 in Dayton, WA. We have searched the cemeteries in person in that area, but have not been able to locate where he is buried. The final disposition of his property took place in Pine City, WA. A cousin has many of the original documents.

I'll have to check my records, but I think the Curtis Bottorff you have listed as deceased in 1913 and buried in the M-F cemetery is actually the son of Ira Curtis. I'm thinking that my gt-gt uncle Curtis died in California. I'll have to check my records again on that one.

Isaac and Hannah also had one more son-- George Franklin Bottorff.

Although he lived in primarily in California most of his life, there was a short time period when the family moved to Alberta, Canada. Too darn cold, moved back to California. I have the location where he died, but I can't remember it off the top of my head.

Most of my information comes from primary family sources. My gt-aunt Myrtie Bottorff Hagen was extremely helpful with all of this when she was alive. Her granddaughter is the cousin that has most of the original letters, pictures and documents. When the two of us have a free week we hope to scan some of it and create a disk. When that free week is going to be we're not sure. She is busy raising kids and running a business and once school starts back up I don't get much done beyond correcting papers and writing my lesson plans.

If you want any more info about the Bottorff, let me know. Also since it appears that you have spent a lot of time on these folks you must be related. Which side do you hail from?

Mitzi Gilbert

From Mitzi Gilbert - gsmutti@nwinform.net Oct. 8, 2003

Dear Gwen,

Thanks for responding. I did check out the Frazier Farmstead web site after I had e-mailed you at the museum. I realized afterwards my error. I have no idea who paid for the Bottorff family. I'll ask around. Since the advent of the Internet and e-mail it is so much easier to stay in touch with the distant relatives. It may take a while for me to give you more information. At one time I had all of it so neatly organized in a 3-ring binder, but I started pulling some of the documents to scan and right now it is a messy pile of papers and pictures.

Mom and Dad (Fred & Dotty Bottorff) moved to Prosser from M-F when I was 3 so most of my own memories of M-F are from my childhood visiting the cousins. Dad passed away in 1985, but Mom manages to make it down about twice a month during good weather to spend time with her high school friends.

Webmaster is a very important and time consuming job. I did it for a while for my school. Your site is very nice and paints a nice picture of the history of M-F. I enjoyed learning about how and why the town developed into 2 towns and then back to one.

Mitzi
