Notes for NANCY JANE DOUGHERTY:

1932 Newspaper article Birth: 1845 Death: May 7, 1924

Mother of Mrs. Anna McDoanld of Walla Walla..."While plowing in his wheat field near College Place Saturday, Horace Cook exhumed the body of a woman that had been buried in a shallow grave...it has been found that the body was embalmed before burial, and the officers hold the theory that it was originally dug up from some graveyard and buried in the wheat field to dispose of it...it is thought the body had been buried for about eight months. It is said to have been of an elderly woman (Excerpts from Milton, EAGLE, 10 Mar 1932) "was identified as that of Mrs. Nancy Bunnell...was buried in the Milton I.O.O.F. cemetery...two young men admitted opening the grave for the purpose of securing a skull to use in their medical studies. Not being able to detach the head, they removed the entire body from the grave..The deed was committed in December 1930" ...daughter identified pieces of ribbon as being on her mother when she was buried (from Milton EAGLE, 24 Mar 1932)

- Sex: F
- Birth: 18 FEB 1871 in Pleasant Hill, Cass County, Missouri
- Death: 5 JAN 1957 in Walla Walla, Washington
- Note: Annie and her family came to the west in 1876. They left Joplin, Missouri in August of 1876 and traveled on RR30 which was an old Oregon trail and it took three months to cross the plains in 62 covered wagons. They saw indians but no trouble came. When they arrived in Wallowa, they had only 75 cents. To earn money, they thrashed oats and sold them in Walla Walla, Washington. They homesteaded in Wallowa and got a few head of cattle, then later acquired a good herd of cattle and opened a store called the General Mercantile.
