Our goal is to research the pioneers that came into the Walla Walla Valley Area, as a starter for those doing their family genealogy; we are not related.

BIOGRAPHY: History of Adair, Sullivan, Putnam and Schuyler Counties, Missouri,

Goodspeed, Chicago, 1888. Sutro Library Call # F472 A2 H6

Jesse Carter, farmer and stock raiser, was born October 24, 1829, in Lincoln County, Ky., and moved to Schuyler County, October 12, 1849, where he has since resided, devoting his attention to farming and stock raising, at which occupations he has been engaged since his boyhood. When twenty years of age he started out in life with but $5, and what he now owns is due to industry and perserverance, united with practical business ability. He now owns 430 acres of land, well stocked and improved, and is one of the prominent citizens of the county.

In 1853 he was married to Malinda C. Brown, a native of North Carolina, and daughter of Benjamin and Charlotte Brown, natives of North Carolina. Mrs. Carter died July 7, 1855, and was the mother of one son-Benjamin. November 20, 1856, Mr. Carter was united to Miss Sarah Ann Munsell, a native of Miami County, Ohio, and daughter of Asa H. Munsell, a native of the same county. To this marriage eleven children have been born: William A., James T., Elizabeth J., Solomon L., Mary C., Peter E., Annie B. and Charles F. (twins), Jessie, John and Ward H. Mrs. Carter died March 3, 1874, and Mr. Carter was married, a third time, August 4, 1875, Miss Elzira W. Seamster becoming his wife. This lady is a daughter of Green D. and Sarah (Legrande) Seamster. To this union four children were born: Sarah M., Ella, Green and Emma.

Mr. Carter is a member of the Christian Church, and is a Democrat in politics. He represented his county in the Legislature in 1872, and two years later was re-elected, and also in 1876. In 1860 he was elected county assessor, and served two years.

He was the fourth of eight children, seven sons and one daughter, of Peter and Elizabeth (Nevin) Carter, natives of Virginia and Ireland, respectively. Mrs. Carter first came to the United States when twenty-four years old, and settled in Lincoln County, Ky., where she married Mr. Carter. Mr. Carter served as a soldier in one of the early Indian wars.

Carter-Morgan Service is Read

In a candlelight service performed at 3 pm Sunday at the home of Mr and Mrs G Petrelli, 1527 Truman, Mrs Georgie Morgan of Walla Walla, mother of Mrs Petrelli, and Asa Carter of Milton, were married in a single ring ceremony read by the Rev J. Paul Downey, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene. The pair stood before an improvised altar at the large window in the living room. Snapdragons and ferns, in baskets, and candelabra at either side provided the setting. Mrs W.T. Hughes of Spokane another daughter of the bride, lit the candles. A recording of "Because" was the only nuptial music.

The bride was attractively gowned in grey sheer with black accessories and corsage of white carnations. Mrs Edna Keller as matron of honor wore an aqua crepe dress with black accessories and rosebud corsage. W.O. Carter was best man for his brother.....
