William Duran

A Biography by Richard Duran

William Duran was born November 18, 1827 in Elizabethtown, Hamilton County, OH and died October 6, 1902 in Athena, Oregon and is buried in the Athena Cemetery. William married Jane Catherine Boothby on January 18 1854 in Polk County, Oregon. Jane was born August 6, 1838 Pittsfield, IL, daughter of Reason Rounds Boothby and Mary Jane Waller. William and Jane were divorced in 1880 and in 1884 Jane married John McFarland. Jane and her new husband moved to Eugene, Oregon where she died April 9, 1915. Jane and John McFarland are buried in the Pioneer Cemetery, Eugene, OR. No evidence has been located as yet to indicate when William moved to Oregon, most likely it was in 1849. In 1850, William was listed both in the Polk County, Oregon Census, as well as the 1850 census of Pike County, Illinois.. He had 314 acres on the Willamette River close to the mouth of La Creole Creek. The old town of Eola was laid out on a portion of his land.

By 1865 the town of Eola had started to decline. William Duran and his father-in-law, Reason Boothby, moved their families to Whiskey Creek near present day Waitsburg, Washington. In 1871 William returned to Oregon and took up a homestead on Dry Creek, just north of Weston. He also took a position with Wells Fargo as division manager of the Blue Mountain Stage Station near Weston, Oregon.

Jane Duran reportedly told her granddaughter, Cassie Beck, that her father, Reason Rounds Boothby, ordered her to marry William although he was twenty years older. According to the divorce proceedings, Jane had left William in 1876, she probably moved to Weston where she had property. William filed for divorce in 1881 and, after the divorce was final, moved to Morrow County.

The wife of Thomas Jasper was Maria Boothby, born 11 Jan 1851 in Polk Co., OR. Her parents were Reason R. Boothby and Mary Waller, who were married in Morgan Co., IL and came west in 1849. After his wife died in 1863, Reason moved to the settlement at Coppei in Washington Territory, returning to Polk Co, OR about 1870. Maria and Thomas were married 04 Aug 1867 at the home of her father on the Coppei. Minister was John W. McGee, witnesses were Lewis Cox and Andrew Jasper. (Early Marriages of Walla Walla Co., Walla Walla Valley Genealogical Society, 1976; page 48).

The 1870 census, OR, Marion Co., South Salem, page 41 shows Thomas, age 21, b. KY; Maria, 18, b. OR.

In 1880 Thomas and Maria are back in Walla Walla Co., with a daughter, Nellie, age 3, b. OR. In the 1900 census, ID, Idaho Co., Grangeville, ED 123, sheet 3B is a Thomas Jasper, widower, b. Dec 1838, KY.

In the book, "Waitsburg, One of a Kind", pages 13-16 are stories about Albert Lloyd and his wife, Lois Jasper. I have the book if you would like copies.
