Notes for FRANCES L BEARDSLEY:

History of Oregon, page 3_224

To Mr. and Mrs. Beardsley were born six children: May Matilda, who is now the wife of William Green; Frances L., the wife of Ralph Boothby; Frank; Agnes L.; the wife of William Green; Frances L., the wife of Ralph Boothby; Frank; Agnes L.; Walter P.; and Geraldine. The family circle was broken by the hand of death when on the 25th of Novemeber, 1919, the husband and father was called to his final rest. In politics he had been a stanch republican and was ever a consistent member of the Episcopal church. His had been a well spent life, inharmony with the record of an honored ancestry. His course was always marked by the same fidelity and loyalty to dute in all matters of citizenship and his sterling worth was recognized by all with whom he came into contact.

Charles Nelson

MILTON-FREEWATER -- Charles (Bud) Nelson, 88, of Route 3, died Friday in a local nursing home here.

Born Feb. 17, 1882 in Athena, he was the son of James A. Nelson and Mary Alice (Pinkerton) Nelson farming pioneers of Umatilla County.

On Aug 23, 1903, he married Catherine Beck in Athena whose parents also were Oregon Pioneers. He was a farmer all his life and operated farms in Weston, Athena and near Lacrosse, Wash. He also homesteaded in Montana.

Nelson was a member of the First Christian Church of Milton-Freewater and BPOE No. 288 of Pendleton.

Survivors include his widow at the home; two daughters, Mrs. Aaron (Rhoda) Weis of Milton-Freewater and Mrs. Alvin (Catherine) Hawk of La Grande; two sons, James A. Nelson of Walla Walla and Charles R Nelson of Milton-Freewater; 10 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Services will be 4 p.m. Monday at the Munselle-Rhodes chapel with the Rev. George Knox of the First Christian Church officiating. Vault interment will follow in the Milton-Freewater Cemetery.

Eugene HACKNEY

Age at Death: 85

Birth Date: Sep/19/1920

Death Date: Sep/21/2005

Newspaper Title: Spokesman-Review, The

Newspaper Location: Spokane, WA, US

Obituary Publication Date: Sep/23/2005

HACKNEY, Eugene O.

(Age 85) - passed away at the Cheney Care Center on September 21, 2005. Gene was born on September 19, 1920, in Huxley, Alberta, Canada to Odos and Inez (Dieran) Hackney. He spent his boyhood in Medical Lake, WA, and graduated from high school there in 1938. He has resided in St. John, WA for the last nine years. Gene entered the U.S. Army near the beginning of World War II. He was an expert rifleman, and he once held the range record at Camp Steward, GA. Gene trained in gliders for a mission in Burma, but his unit was not selected to go. He went to New Guinea as an infantry replacement. Later he was interviewed and selected to go to a counter intelligence school at MacArthur's headquarter in Hollandia, New Guinea. When he graduated, he was attached to the 1st Calvary for the landing at Lingayen Gulf on Northern Luzon and the drive down the Canyon Valley to Manila. After the battle of Manila his duties were to investigate different factions who had collaborated with Japanese forces during the occupation of the Philippine Islands. He was in Tokyo Bay during the signing of the peace papers. He served the first three months of the occupation, and during this time he arrested the infamous Tokyo Rose. Gene was a former member of the Spokane Club, the Manito Country Club, and a 42-year member of the Indian Canyon Men's Club, where he worked as an assistant golf pro. Gene also operated three fishing resorts. In the 1980's, after he sold his resorts, he spent several years exploring and developing gold mines in the Northwest Territories. He was an avid golfer, hunter, fisherman, and hiker, having hiked Alaska's famous Chilikoot Trail twice. Gene is survived by three daughters: Gail Worthen, Waterville, WA, Kim Jim, Payson, Arizona, and Tiffany Duval, Beaverton, Oregon; one sister, June Katz of Dover, Delaware; special friend, Hetty Fowler, St. John, WA; and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. At his request, no services will be held. Memorial contributions can be made to the St. John Golf Course, PO Box 232, St. John, WA 99171, or to the St. John EMTs, St. John, WA.
