6. ROBERT R³ CHAPMAN (DAVID D², ISAAC¹) was born 23 Apr 1874 in IA, and died 24 Feb 1951 in Umatilla, OR¹³. He married EVALENA MARY GORDON 17 Nov 1893 in Umatilla County, OR. She was born Sep 1877 in OR, and died 16 Jan 1959 in Umatilla, OR¹⁴.

Notes for ROBERT R CHAPMAN:

ORAL HISTORY by LLOYD CHAPMAN - 23 February, 1971.

Robert R. Chapman came from Sidney, Iowa with his parents Mr. & Mrs. David D. Chapman in 1875. They settled on the South Fork of the Walla Walla River, 7 miles from Milton, on the place now owned by Dr. Jack Woodhall, known as the Snow Storm House. His father raised horses.

They lived there until 1888 when Robert's father was struck in the chest and killed by a horse, while he was putting out salt. His mother and family later moved to Milton, where Robert met and married Eva Gordon in 1893, and they lived in Milton where their first two children were born; Lloyd and Earl.

After a few years they moved up the Walla Walla River buying some land near the Forks of the river, on the South Fork, where they built a house, which is still standing; now owned by Burris Elliott. Their daughter, Iola, was born there in 1908. After a few years they bought a place about 3 miles farther up the South Fork, where he spent the rest of his life. Robert saw many changes on the river in his lifetime. In his days he could go out and watch a mess of trout in a few minutes and in the spring the river would be alive with Salmon. Now most of our fish is planted and hardly ever see a Salmon. He saw two power plants built on the river; one by the P.P.& L.CO., which he helped to build; and contracted and built the City Power pipe line from Milton Intake to Power Plant where the Dorion Park is now being built. Their children, Lloyd, Earl, and Iola are all still living on the river.

John Donovan "Jack" Hubert

Long-time Vancouver resident, John D. Hubert passed away peacefully at age 88 while surrounded by his family on Tuesday, January 11, 2005 from pneumonia following a series of illnesses. Jack was born February 6, 1916, in Milton, Oregon. At age 16 he joined the navy and served as a Radioman aboard the Battleship USS Colorado. Following his release from active duty he married Josephine Miller of St. Helens, Oregon. They had two children, Patricia and Jon. After working and living in Portland, he and his family moved to Vancouver in 1949 about the same time as the Vanport flood.

Jack had a great sense of humor. He was a long-time active member of the Gyros, and as an avid golfer, he was an early member of the Royal Oaks Country Club. Jack loved gardening especially growing roses and orchids. He retired as a Plant Manager after working 35 years for the Union Carbide Corporation. While at Union Carbide, Jack also served as an efficiency expert. He traveled to other Union Carbide facilities helping to reorganize them.

Jack was preceded in death by his wife Josephine, his son Jon, and his grandson Chad. He is survived by his daughter Patricia McConnaughey, her husband John McConnaughey, granddaughter Sandra Daubenspeck, grandson Jamie Daubenspeck and his wife Becki, all of Vancouver, WA.

There will be a celebration of Jack's life at the Waterford at Fairway Village at 2 PM on Wednesday, January 19th, 2005.

Published in The Columbian on 1/18/2005.

Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1945 > September > 9, page 16
Vern S. Hartgraves, AMM 1-c, USNR, of Freewater, received the navy cross at Tinian. The award was for his part in a daylight air strike at Marcus Island which smashed a Japanese attempt to mass planes for raids on strategic U.S. Central Pacific bases. Hartgraves' plane roared over the Jap airfield strafing and bombing installations and planes. Four enemy bombers were destroyed on the runways and installations were bombed and burned out of commission. His plane was hit by Japanese anti-aircraft fire which knocked two other U.S. planes from the sky. A shell exploded in Hartgraves' plane and caused belts of ammunition to explode and burn. Hartgraves grabbed the blazing, exploding boxes of ammunition and threw them out of the plane saving the aircraft from possible destruction. Hartgraves is the son of Idell Hartgraves of route 1, Freewater. (U.S. Navy photo)
