wife of B. B. Cox

"Departed this life, June 13th, 1869, near Jefferson, Marion County, Oregon, Phebe COX, aged 79 years. Phebe TEEL (her maiden name) was born in Pennsylvania. She embraced religion in early life, and united with the Presbyterian Church, remaining in her communion until she came to Oregon, in 1853. She was united in marriage with James GUNSAULES in early life, living in much harmony till 1844, when he was called away from earth. Their family consisted of three sons and three daughters. Two died in childhood, the others, are useful and honored members of society. Some twelve years since, she was joined in marriage with father COX, with whom she lived till removed by death, leaving him again to feel his loneliness and desolation. The old people lived among us and kept house till last fall, when they moved to her son's to suffer on a short time and then pass away. She united with the M. E. Church in Jefferson, some eleven years since, remaining a worthy member until she went triumphantly home, to join the glorified hosts of God's elect in heaven. She was a great sufferer here for several years, but when the angel came, she only lingered in the tottering tenement a few hours, when it fell, and the soul unfettered, plumed its wings and bathing them in eternal light, soared to the celestial city. She was indeed a mother in Israel. She is gone, but she lives in the affections and the memory of her family and friends. All that was mortal of her was followed to the cemetery by a large company of citizens. Burial services were conducted by Father PARRISH and Brother JUDKINS of the M. E. Church. May the loving arms of Jesus encircle her aged companion and children in their hour of bereavement, and may we all follow her up to the cloudless land. B. N. LONGSWORTH"

Burial: Apr 1879, Jefferson, Marion County, Oregon²⁹

Notes for JACOB CONSER:

Jacob Conser was born in Center County, Pennsylvania, 20 July 1818, but ran away from home at an early age. Arriving in Illinois, he engaged in various enterprises, among them the operation of a saw mill. He married Nancy Gunsauls 28 February 1839, in Knox County, Illinois, and they eventually had 10 children. May 4, 1848 he and his wife left St. Joseph, Missouri, to cross the plains to Oregon, bringing with them besides their household possessions, several yoke of oxen, two cows and two steers. They were in a company made up of 13 wagons, the last company that made the trek in 1848. When they arrived in Oregon, they purchased land and settled in Linn County, near Scio. The following year, Conser took up a claim of 320 acres and bought another 320 at Santiam City, a site which now lies under the Santiam River about 2 miles downstream from Jefferson. At Santiam City he was a partner with Mr. Evans, in a gristmill on the north side of the river in Marion County. He was also the postmaster of Syracuse, a community on the south side of the Santiam River just opposite Santiam City. After the flood in 1851, he left Santiam City and took up a claim upstream between Mr. Bates and Mr. Holt and started his own community, now called Jefferson.

Jefferson, known first as Conser's Ferry, is really considered to have started because of Conser's vision of the future, as well as his understanding of the river by which he chose to live. Jacob Conser was a practical and shrewd man. He moved when he saw that Santiam City was eventually to wash out, and then did everything possible to draw other settlers to the new community; built his ferry in 1851, started a hotel, built mills, arranged to have an educational center there, and then platted the town and sold lots to reap the harvest. The Conser House was built in 1854, five years before Oregon became a state, as Conser's home and a hotel. It appears he was still serving as postmaster at Santiam City in the summer of 1852. In 1853 he started a sawmill in Jefferson, later erecting a flour and gristmill. He, with his partner, Burnett, added to the mill until in 1870 it has a capital of $25,000. About 1868 or '70 Conser built near the ferry landing a three-story residence which at that time was the finest home in the country.

Active politically, Conser was elected to the first Territorial Legislator Linn County in 1849, and for Marion County in the special session of 1852, and was elected again in 1855-6. In 1859 he was sent to the first state convention in Eugene. He was a judge in Marion County, and active in the Democratic party. Conser was one of the first board of trustees of Willamette University and was a director in the Oregon Central Railroad. His wife, Nancy, died at Walla Walla, Washington, April 18, 1879. In 1881 Conser married Mrs. Elizabeth Humphrey, widow of Norris Humphrey who had been on the same pioneer trek with Conser. In 1885 Conser retired and moved to Eugene, where he died March 18, 1893. He is buried at Jefferson Cemetery.

(on w/Nancy Gunsauls Conser)

"Jacob CONSER Dead—Another of the Pioneers who Helped in the Building Up of Oregon Passes Away—Uncle Jacob CONSER, who is well known throughout the Willamette valley, died this forenoon at 9:50 o'clock of pneumonia.

Deceased was born in Union county, Pa., Feb. 20, 1818. On the 28th of February, 1839, he was married in Knox county, Ill., to Nancy GUNSAULES. Several children resulted from this union and the family came across the plains to the Pacific coast, arriving in Oregon in the fall of 1848. They settled in the Santiam country where they lived for thirty years, during which period, however, Mrs. CONSER died. Mr. CONSER and children then moved to Jefferson where they lived until 1881. Eight of these children are still living. Mrs. J. (Phoebe Catherine) WATSON, of Chehalis, Wash., Lewis and H.P. (Henry Phillip) CONSER of Linn county, Mrs. R. O. (Mary Ann) THOMAS of Turner, G.W. (George Witherite) CONSER of Heppner, John and W. S. (Wesley Shannon) CONSER of Portland, (and H. D. (Hope Douglas) of Jefferson, the last five of whom with two grandchildren, Ada and Hallie THOMAS were present at the time of his death. Mr. CONSER had also one sister living in this state, Mrs. Burnett of Sweet Home. He served several terms in the territorial legislature during the pioneer days of Oregon.

In 1881 he removed to Eugene, and on May 5, was married to Mrs. Elizabeth FELIX-HUMPHREY, who also survives him. This lady always enjoyed the highest esteem of his children, and especially was this won by her gentle consideration during the last illness of the deceased.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at Jefferson, Marion county, at 1 o'clock p.m. Short services will be held at the residence in this city in the forenoon, at 9:30 o'clock under the auspices of the Eugene Masonic lodge who will escort the remains to the depot and send a delegation to accompany them to Jefferson, where the Masonic lodge of that city will receive them and conduct the remaining funeral rites." "Jacob CONSER Dead---Another of the Pioneers who Helped in the Building Up of Oregon Passes Away--Uncle Jacob CONSER, who is well known throughout the Willamette valley, died this forenoon at 9:50 o'clock of pneumonia.

Deceased was born in Union county, Pa., Feb. 20, 1818. On the 28th of February, 1839, he was married in Knox county, Ill., to Nancy GUNSAULES. Several children resulted from this union and the family came across the plains to the Pacific coast, arriving in Oregon in the fall of 1848. They settled in the Santiam country where they lived for thirty years, during which period, however, Mrs. CONSER died. Mr. CONSER and children then moved to Jefferson where they lived until 1881. Eight of these children are still living. Mrs. J. (Phoebe Catherine) WATSON, of Chehalis, Wash., Lewis and H.P. (Henry Phillip) CONSER of Linn county, Mrs. R. O. (Mary Ann) THOMAS of Turner, G.W. (George Witherite) CONSER of Heppner, John and W. S. (Wesley Shannon) CONSER of Portland, (and H. D. (Hope Douglas) of) Jefferson, the last five of whom with two grandchildren, Ada and Hallie THOMAS were present at the time of his death. Mr. CONSER had also one sister living in this state, Mrs. Burnett of Sweet Home. He served several terms in the territorial legislature during the pioneer days of Oregon.

In 1881 he removed to Eugene, and on May 5, was married to Mrs. Elizabeth FELIX-HUMPHREY, who also survives him. This lady always enjoyed the highest esteem of his children, and especially was this won by her gentle consideration during the last illness of the deceased.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at Jefferson, Marion county, at 1 o'clock p.m. Short services will be held at the residence in this city in the forenoon, at 9:30 o'clock under the auspices of the Eugene Masonic lodge who will escort the remains to the depot and send a delegation to accompany them to Jefferson, where the Masonic lodge of that city will receive them and conduct the remaining funeral rites." GEORGE W. CONSER BIOGRAPHY

A country or community is prosperous or otherwise according as its finances are manipulated properly or misapplied, consequently it is of the utmost importance that good financial ability be domiciled within the borders of every municipality, and it is matter of congratulation that the county of Morrow is well supplied with men who are representative in this particular qualification, and as a leader among this goodly number must be mentioned, because of his distinguished ability and practical demonstrations in that capacity, the worthy pioneer and esteemed citizen and gentleman whose name initiates this paragraph.

Mr. Conser was born in Marion county, this state, on November 23, 1854, being the son of Jacob and Nancy (Gunsauls), who came to Oregon from Illinois, crossing the plains in 1848. Jacob Conser was one of the prominent men of the state, being a member of the first territorial legislature and active in the advancement of all that was for the good of the infant commonwealth, while in social matters he was ever interested, having served one year as grand worthy chief templar of the Good Templars for the state of Oregon. His death occurred in March, 1893. His wife is also deceased.

Referring more particularly to our subject, he was educated in the public schools of his native state and here grew to manhood, engaging for a number of years with Thomas & Company, and then taking a position with the First National Bank, of Heppner, where he has served for thirteen years as cashier and is at the present time engaged. He owns a third interest in the Ayers Cattle Company, which has besides other stock about seven thousand five hundred head of sheep, and is interested in the coal mining company. In 1888 he was elected treasurer of Gilliam county, where he did efficient service, manifesting ability and faithfulness.

Mr. Conser was married to Lillie L., daughter of C. A. Rhea, and a native of this county, on December 3, 1889, the wedding taking place in this county. He is affiliated with the A. F. & A. M., having attained to the royal arch chapter, is also a member of the O. E. S., the B. P. O. E. and the A. O. U. W. Mr. Conser has served as mayor of the city of Heppner, giving entire satisfaction, and displaying commendable enterprise and wisdom in his administration. (end)

(on marker w/Jesse W. Looney)

"Mrs. J. W. LOONEY died at the home of her son in this city at 6:30 Monday evening, aged 67 years, 1 month and 5 days, the cause of her death being paralysis. Mary Ann Gunsauls was born in Knox County, Illinois, coming to Jefferson when 11 years of age, and has resided in this vicinity continuously since. She was married to J. W. LOONEY in 1861. They were a most devoted couple, and during their long married life it is said were separated but 10 days prior to Mr. LOONEY's death on Dec 25th last.

"Aunt Mary," as she was affectionately called by our people, was loved by all and sincere sorrow is felt at her death; yet we would not, if we could, call her back, for since the death of the loved husband she appeared to lose interest in life--she was lonesome--the companion who had shared her joys and sorrows from girlhood to old age was gone, and all was desolate, and she gladly went to join the loved one beyond the mystic river, to part no more forever. Her life was filled with kind and loving acts, and she has gone to beyond the reward therefore.

Three sons, F. E. (Fred), W. J. (Walton Jesse) and W. F. (Frank), all of Jefferson survive her, one son preceded the parents to the other shore. The funeral ceremonies were held Wednesday afternoon, the discourse being delivered at the M. E. Church by Rev. G.O. OLIVER. The large concourse of people assembled proved the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The remains were laid in the city cemetery besides of the husband. True, faithful and loving in life, in death they were not long divided. May they sleep sweetly until the resurrection morn."

"Jesse Walton LOONEY, one of our best known and highly esteemed citizens, died at his home in this city at 3:30 p.m. Dec 25, of Typhoid Fever. He had been ill for but a few days, and the announcement of his death was a sad surprise. Mr. LOONEY came to Jefferson with his parents in 1843, settling at Looney Butte, and has resided here continually since that time. Having acquired a competency by farming, a few years ago he purchased a home in this city, where he has since lived quietly, ever willing with the generosity of the true pioneer to extend a helping to a needy neighbor. No one of our citizens would have been more missed. He leaves a wife, 3 sons, 4 brothers and 4 sisters, all prominent in the affairs of the state and county. The funeral services were held at the M. E. Church at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, that edifice being crowded with friends of the deceased, many being unable to gain admission. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. G.O. OLIVER, of Turner. The remains were laid in the Jefferson Cemetery, the grave being covered with a profusion of beautiful floral tributes, beneath which, within view of the home where he passed along and the useful life, he will sleep until the last great morn. Jesse W. LOONEY was a good man, and died with the knowledge that the world was better for his sojourn here of 69 years."

Hines, H. K. "An Illustrated History of the State of Oregon." Chicago: Lewis

Pub. Co. 1893. p. 1123.

JOHN CHARLES JOHNSON a representative citizen of Marion county, Oregon, has been a resident of the Pacific coast from childhood, and since arriving at mature years has been prominently identified with the agricultural interests of this section. He is a native of Illinois, born May 29, 1842, and at the age of five years was brought with his father's family across the plains to this State. (See sketch of Hiram A. Johnson). He received his education in the schools of Jefferson, and was reared to the occupation of a farmer. When he came of age his father gave him 160 acres of land; four years he devoted to the cultivation and improvement of this tract, and then disposed of the farm. He afterward purchased 900 acres of land in Linn county, and after four years spent in placing this under cultivation, he sold it and embarked in mercantile trade at Scio, Linn county. He formed a partnership with J. C. Brown, and they did a successful business until 1890, when Mr. Johnson sold his interest, and came to Salem. He invested in city and country property, and engaged in real-estate transactions on his own account. He has been very fortunate in his operations, and has become possessed of much valuable property.

He was married in 1863 to Miss Violet Gunsauls, a native of Illinois, but a resident of Oregon since 1853. They have had born to them a family of seven children, five of whom are living: Lizzie, wife of John Daniel; Archie J., who married Miss L. Young; Ettie A., wife of J. Simpson; Virgil and Leta at home. Mr. Johnson cast his first presidential vote for Abraham Lincoln, and has since been a member of the Republican party, doing active and efficient service; he has been a delegate to many conventions, and while a citizen of Scio was twice elected Mayor of that city. In 1890 he was elected a member of the City Council of Salem. He is a member of the A.O.U.W. and of the Masonic fraternity, belonging both to the blue lodge and chapter of the latter order. He is a man of excellent business judgment and by energy and perseverance has achieved success in all his undertakings.

9. JOHN³ GUNSAULES (MANUEL², JAMES GEORGE¹)⁶⁸ was born 10 Feb 1858 in Jefferson, Marion,OR, and died 13 May 1935 in Stayton, Marion County, Oregon⁶⁹. He married (1) SEREPTA MISSOURI DEVANEY⁷⁰ 22 Jun 1881 in Linn County, Oregon, daughter of FRANK DEVANEY and JEMINAWOLFPOINT. She was born 22 Mar 1856 in Cass County, Missouri, and died 19 Jun 1931 in Lebanon, Linn County, Oregon. He married (2) SUSANNA MAY NOIS 08 Nov 1887 in Benton County, Oregon, daughter of WILLIAM NOIS and EVA SLATER. She was born Abt. 1869 in Iowa, and died 24 Aug 1947 in Marion, Oregon⁷¹.

Notes for JOHN GUNSAULES:

John GUNSAULES, 77, Buried Wednesday

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for John GUNSAULES of Stayton at the Weddle & Son mortuary, with Rev. W. H. LYMAN in charge. Interment was in Jefferson cemetery.

John GUNSAULES, 77, died Monday night at his home in Stayton, and although he had been in failing health for some time, he had been critically ill only since Saturday.

He was born on the donation land claim of his parents, Manuel and Esther (Cox) GUNSAULES, near Jefferson, on February 10, 1858, and had spent practically all his life in Marion County. His parents crossed the plains in 1853 and he was the last surviving member of their family.

He was married November 8, 1887, to Susan NOIS, who survives, together with two daughters, Mrs. Hattie FICKLIN and Mrs. Roxey FORETTE, and a son, Ben M. GUNSAULES, all of Stayton. Others surviving are four grandchildren and one great grandchild. A son Elra F., died in 1915.

Pallbearers were George RAY, G. L. BROWN, George SANDNER, Joseph FISHER, Jake MISSLER and Harry PORTER, all of Stayton.

Although of a quiet and unassuming nature, Mr. GUNSAULES will be missed by many old friends throughout the Jefferson and Stayton communities."

GUNSAULES, Elra F.

b. 1889

d. (11 July) 1915 3S 10

"Jefferson people were all sorry to hear of the death of Elra GUNSAULES, which occurred at the home of his parents near Stayton at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. The deceased was a native of Jefferson and was 26 years of age. He is survived by his parents, two sisters and a brother. Four weeks ago he cut his right leg, between the ankle and knee, with a handax. The injury did not seem serious and little attention was paid to it at first, but blood poisoning ensued and the best of medical skill failed to check it. Finally gangrene set in and death quickly followed. The remains were brought to this city and services held Monday afternoon in the M. E. Church. Business houses were closed and a large crowd assembled to pay last tribute to one whom all _____. Interment was in the city cemetery." (Parents: John and Susan (Nois) Gunsauls

CRUSHED TO DEATH

Darius Moorehouse Falls Under a Wagon and is Killed

On Saturday, Darius Moorehouse, residing in Umatilla county just across the line, came to town with a four horse team for a load of chopped feed. He was accompanied by two young men named Saling and Lynch. While returning home in the evening, and when within 300 yards of Mr. Moorehouse's place, the three men began "skylarking" and sculling on the wagon, and Mr. Moorehouse lost his balance and fell under the wheels. Before the team could be stopped one of the wheels passed over him in the region of the abdomen. The wagon was loaded with a ton and a half of chop. The injured man was carried to his house, where he died in 30 minutes. Deceased was 48 years old, and was well and favorably known in Umatilla and Walla Walla counties, where he has resided for many years. He leaves a wife and several children well provided for. The funeral took place today at the Saling cemetery.

The East Oregonian, Pendleton, Oregon, Monday, May 14, 1888.

AN UNTIMELY END

Mr. D. L. Moorhouse Crushed to Death Under His Wagon.

In to-day's dispatches, published elsewhere in this issue, the sudden death of Mr. D. L. Moorhouse, oldest brother of T. L. Moorhouse, one of Pendleton's most respected and popular citizens. Mr. Moorhouse was returning from Walla Walla, where he had been with a load of barley, and was accompanied by two young men. The seat of the wagon in which they were riding was very high, and in some way Mr. Moorhouse lost his balance and fell under the wheels, one of which passed over his body and crushed him fatally. He lived until he got home, the last words he uttered being "Take me home." He was one of the most prominent and respected citizens of the vicinity where he lived. His farm was on Cottonwood creek, only a few miles from Walla Walla. Mr. Lee Moorhouse left here last night to be in attendance at the funeral, which will be held this afternoon at the Saling graveyard near Walla Walla, where his wife is now resting. He was about forty-five years old, and leaves a small family, well provided for, to mourn his untimely death.

HON. ARCHIE J. JOHNSON.

Hon. Archie J. Johnson, president of the Benton County State Bank of Corvallis, is a man of resourceful business ability who has not only won distinction in the field of finance but is equally prominent as an agriculturist, stock-raiser, lumberman and statesman. A representative of one of the oldest families of the state, he was born in Marion county, Oregon, September 18, 1867, on the old donation land claim of his grandfather, Hiram Alvah Johnson. His parents, John Charles and Violetta (Gunsauls) Johnson, were natives of Illinois, the former born in Pike county in 1842 and the latter in Knox county, April 19, 1846. In 1847 Hiram Alvah Johnson started with his family across the plains, traveling with ox teams and wagons, his son, John C. Johnson, being at that time but five years of age. On reaching Oregon, Hiram A. Johnson took up a donation claim in Marion county, three miles north of the present site of the town of Jefferson, and it was upon this property that Archie J. Johnson was born. The grandfather at once began the arduous task of clearing and developing his claim, on which he continued to reside for several years, and subsequently he was for some time engaged in general merchandising at Jefferson. At length he removed to Salem, Oregon, where he became prominent in public affairs, serving as justice of the peace for a period of eighteen years. He passed away at Salem at the age of seventy-seven years, and his wife, surviving him for two years, died at the age of seventy-six. She also crossed the plains with her parents in 1852, making the journey with ox teams and settling near Jefferson, Oregon.

John C. Johnson, the eldest son of the family, was reared and educated in Marion county, Oregon, and after completing his studies he engaged in teaching school for two years. He then turned his attention to farming and stock raising, purchasing land near Scio in Linn county, which he improved and developed, and he was active in its operation until 1874. He then removed to Scio, where he engaged in general merchandising for a number of years and subsequently became interested in the money-lending business in that city and was thus active for some time. At a still later period, in association with his son, Archie J., he purchased the mercantile business which he had formerly owned and managed at Scio, conducting it under the firm name of J. C. Johnson & Son at that point for about four years, when he removed to Salem and there lived retired until 1913, when he took up his abode in Corvallis, where he resided up to the date of his death, December 3, 1920. The mother survives. As pioneers of this state their experiences were broad and varied, bringing them knowledge of every phase of frontier life. Great indeed have been the changes which have been wrought in the intervening period, and in the work of development and improvement they bore their full share.

Archie J. Johnson was reared and educated in Linn county, attending the public schools of Scio, and subsequently was a student in the Portland Business College, from which he was graduated at the age of eighteen. On starting out in the business world he became a clerk in a general mercantile establishment, with which he was connected for a period of six years. In 1888 he went to Seattle, Washington, where he became associated with the firm of White & Company, dealers in real estate, with whom he continued for one and a half years, platting six additions to that city and selling four while there and two after leaving Seattle. In 1889 he returned to Scio and in association with his father purchased the store which the latter had formerly conducted there and this they continued to operate for about three years. In 1890, while a resident of Scio, Archie J. Johnson became one of the organizers of the Bank of Scio and thus received his initial experience in financial affairs. Two years later, or in 1892, in association with T. J. Munkers, Mr. Johnson purchased the bank, becoming its cashier. In 1895 he turned his attention to manufacturing interests, purchasing an interest in the Scio Milling Company, of which he became manager, and serving in that capacity until 1902, when he disposed of all of his business investments in the town. In 1900 he had been appointed national bank examiner, which position he filled for six and a half years, covering the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming and ably discharging his duties in that connection. In 1903 he purchased a stock farm of forty-one hundred acres in the northern part of Benton county. This was the largest stock ranch in the county in a single body of land, and Mr. Johnson's brother-in-law and his brother C. V. assisted him in its operation. In 1903 he and his family removed to Corvallis. In 1906 he resigned his position as bank examiner and organized the Benton County National Bank of Corvallis, erecting the building in which the institution is now housed. On the 25th of July, 1907, the bank opened its doors for business and in 1916 it was made a state bank, through taking out a state charter. From the time of its organization Mr. Johnson has been president of the bank, which has become known as one of the strongest financial institutions of the county, the successful conduct of the enterprise being largely due to his initiative and ability. The policy of the bank has been strongly influenced by his business principles, and while he is ever progressive and aggressive, he employs that conservatism necessary to safeguard the interests of depositors as well as stockholders. Mr.

Johnson also acts as manager of the bank, with J. L. Gault as vice president and cashier; his son, Elmo E. and Floyd B. Bogue, his son-in-law as assistant cashiers. The institution is capitalized for sixty thousand dollars, has a surplus of twenty thousand dollars, resources amounting to one million and a quarter dollars, while its deposits have reached the sum of approximately one million, two hundred thousand dollars. Mr. Johnson is also president of the Willamette Valley Stock & Land Company, live stock, lumber and bond brokers. He is likewise interested in farming and stock raising, having a valuable farm near Corvallis, on which he has until recently kept his fine herd of registered Jersey cattle. He also specializes in the breeding of Hampshire-Down sheep with his associates on their fine farm of five hundred and forty acres in South Benton. His agricultural interests are extensive and important and in addition to his holdings in this state he is the owner of large ranches in Montana and Washington. During the World war he purchased some fine spruce timber land on the Siletz river in Lincoln county and erected a mill at the mouth of that stream, taking large government contracts for cutting spruce lumber for airplanes and continuing its operation until the close of the war. He is a man of exceptional business qualifications, who is continually broadening the scope of his activities with good results, carrying forward to successful completion whatever he undertakes, for in his vocabulary there is no such word as fail.

On the 31st of January, 1885, Mr. Johnson was united in marriage to Miss Linnie Young, a daughter of Nathan and Mary Young, natives of Ohio. In an early day her father moved westward, becoming a resident of Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he engaged in the milling business. In 1880 he came to Oregon and after residing at various places in the state he at length removed to Scio, where he continued to make his home from 1884 until his demise in May, 1919, at the venerable age of ninety years. The mother passed away in 1914 and they were highly respected residents of their community. To Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were born seven children, as follows: Cleo married J. F. Porter, formerly cashier of the Benton County State Bank, but now secretary of the Willamette Valley Stock & Land Company. They reside in Corvallis and have one child, Lyle. Zeta became the wife of Floyd E. Bogue, assistant cashier of the Benton County State Bank, and passed away in January, 1919, as a victim of the Influenza. Elmo E., who also acts as assistant cashier of the Benton County State Bank, married Linnie D. Durrell and they have two children, Donald and Charles. Darrell D., manager of the Willamette Valley Stock & Land Company, married Bertha McHenry and they have become the parents of a son, Dick. Orlo O. is a student in the Oregon Agricultural College. Wanda L. is a high school pupil. Archie J., Jr., who is eight years of age, is attending the graded schools.

In his political views Mr. Johnson is a republican and he has taken a prominent part in the public affairs of his county and state. In 1894 he was elected state senator from Linn county, in which office he served for four years, giving earnest support to all the bills which he believed would prove beneficial to the commonwealth. He carefully studied the problems which came up for settlement and his legislative career is one over which there falls no shadow of wrong or suspicion of evil. While a resident of Scio he was for two terms a member of the town council and also served as mayor of the city for one term. Since becoming a resident of Corvallis he has served as a member of the council for one term and for two years as mayor, in which connection he gave to the city a most businesslike and progressive administration. In 1906, while still serving in the office of mayor, he was elected state senator from Benton county, which office he filled for four years, again rendering important and valuable service to his county and state, his influence being ever on the side of advancement and improvement. At the expiration of his term in 1910 he refused to be a candidate to succeed himself. He is much interested in the welfare and development of his city and for two years was president of the Corvallis Commercial Club, in which connection he contributed largely to the extension of its trade relations. Fraternally Mr. Johnson is identified with the Modern Woodmen of America and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and in the latter organization he has passed through all of the chairs. In religious faith he is a Presbyterian and an active worker in the church, having since 1905 served as chairman of its board of trustees. The activities of Mr. Johnson have ever been of a constructive character and he deserves classification with the builders of the great northwest, for he has taken an active part in the development of the material resources of the country and the promotion of commercial and financial interests. His initiative spirit and notable ability have carried him into important relations and the breadth and scope of his interests have been such that his labors have constituted an important feature in the history of the state. He stands always on the side of progress and improvement, of right and reform, and he is a representative of the highest type of American manhood and citizenship.

During the World war, Mr. Johnson accepted the chairmanship of Benton County's War Council and was made chairman of all war drives, devoting practically all of his time to such work, ever putting his county over the top. His son Darrell D., was one of the first to volunteer his services in the army, going to the first training camp at the Presidio, where he was given a second lieutenant's commission. He went to France with the Ninety-first Division; was in the great Argonne Forest fight, where he was wounded on the night of September 26, 1915, and was compelled to lie in the hospital at Bordeaux for two and a half months before he could return to his home in America. He is now fully recovered however. Orlo O. volunteered as a marine but spent his time along the Atlantic coast mainly, not being privileged to go across the waters.

Kennewick Now Home of Pair with Long Pioneer Heritage

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Witherrite, who live at 403 North Everett St., Kennewick, have it over most old timers in the matter of long association with Northeastern Oregon or Souteastern Washington.

She is a native of La Grande, where she was born 77 years ago; he came to Eastern Umatilla from the Willamette valley as a boy of three years, 79 years ago. In that long period both have never lived elsewhere than in the area mentioned.

It must be noted, however, that within the territory referred to, they have resided in numerous places.

Hudson Bay Resident

Witherrite's people located on upper Birch creek, northwest of Milton-Freewater. From there they moved to the area below Umapine which has long been spoken of as Hudson Bay, that designation being a corruption of Hudson's bay company farm of long ago.

The family acquired land via timber culture means, and it was long known as the Weatherman farm. In an interview with the pair at Kennewick the other day, Witherrite defined what area was considered Hudson Bay district - he said it included the Rice, Young, Goodman and Sturgis places.

Visit ends in Romance

Meanwhile, the Israel Young family moved from La Grande to Eagle valley, being one of the first three settlers around Newbridge. Part of their family was Edith, born before the Eagle valley move. She attended school at Island City when she was 16.

Immediately prior to 1890, Edith Young paid a visit to the Youngs in Hudson Bay, being of the same clan. There she met her future husband. The romance led the couple to wedlock in Walla Walla nearly 58 years ago. The Rev. T. Ryder officiated.

The couple had a home nearer Umapine, known earlier as Vincent, lived in Walla Walla very briefly and then Crow creek in Wallowa county called them. That district is remote even now, and much more so in those early years.

They also resided near Enterprise for a time and then located in Richland in 1927 where they resided until 1934. That year they sold out and moved to Kennewick.

Witherrite's mother is buried in Valley Chapel, and his father, who was Mitchell Witherrite, two brothers and a sister were buried in Bowlus Cemetery.

Have Four Children

The Witherrites have four children: Vern of Oroville; Ray of Seattle; Lyal, who lives four miles below the Imnaha store; Daphne (Mrs. George) Nelson of Weston. The Kennewick couple follow articles on this page which are written by their granddaughter La Rayne Nelson, the Roving Reporter's Tokyo representative.

The year 1877 saw a big flood in the Snake and the Columbia, Witherrite revealed. He also remembers that the railroad was built down VanSycle canyon that year. It was also the year in which he helped run a herd of Weston country cattle to the range on the south bank of the Snake.

Skulls Intrigue Him

"We were moving along the Columbia (where Attalia now stands) letting the stock feed as we went", he told the interviewer. 'Before we reached what is now Burbank we headed up toward Five-mile on Snake river. In the swale just south of Burbank we found a big collection of human skulls, though we saw no other bones.

"The incident impressed me. Shortly after that, while camped on the Snake, we saw an Indian procession moving down river carrying a man's body on the usual pole conveyer - two poles snubbed to a pony, the free ends dragging, and on that contraption was the body.

"Later I went down to where the skulls were and I saw a platform as high as a man, with a lot of fresh brush piled on it. While I didn't investigate too closely. I am convinced that the dead man was buried by placing his body on that platform.

"All this led me to believe that Indians of that time and place practiced that sort of burial. If there are any oldtimers who can either support or disprove that contention, I wish they would write to the Roving Reporter. I am anxious to know if I am right."

In his youth, Witherrite helped haul grain to Wallula where it was stacked on the docks for movement down river by boat. Rail transportation was a later facility.

Witnessed Shooting

Away back in the early 1890's Witherrite was a bystander at part of the rumpus when a trooper from the fort near Walla Walla was killed in a soloon argument. The killer was a man named A.J. Hunt and by the time the soldiers had organized their vengeance program. Witherite wa walking along Main street, close by the courthouse fence. An armed soldier told him to cross the street and keep away.

Unaware then of what was soon to happen, he stopped to "find the scor". Then it happened, Hunt was being brought out from the jail in the hands of irate soldiers. Witherrite tells what he saw:

"I saw him fall, either from stumbling or being knocked down. Then someone shot him at close range. Other soldiers followed suit, each taking a shot at the prostrate form as, he passed it."

Notes for HIGBEE HARRIS:

Milton Eagle Vol.111 No. 37 October 4th, 1889 - "Say," said HIG HARRIS to the reporter yesterday, "doggone if I haven't a notion to lay off my ranch above town in 'additions'. It seems to be all the go, and if property keeps booming like it has in the past 2 or 3 weeks, darn if Milton won't need all the farms from the depot to the to of the Blue Mts."

37. ROSSWELL⁴ BRANSON (AMANDA³ CHURCH, MARY ANN² GUNSAULES, JAMES GEORGE¹) was born 08 Aug 1864 in Washington Territory, and died 03 Jul 1931 in Montana²³⁷. He married ROSA STILER 20 Jul 1897 in Glasgow, Montana. She was born Dec 1876 in Minnesota, and died 21 Oct 1928 in Valley, Montana²³⁸.

Notes for ROSSWELL BRANSON:

Montana, Its Story and Biography, Vol 3, History of Montana page 594

Roswell L. Branson, the proprietor of the Hotel Nashua, is numbered among Montana's early day cowboys and permanent settlers. He is strictly a man of the West, born at Walla Walla, Washington, August 8, 1864, and he was reared as a farmer lad there, where the family home had been established in 1858. His father, Thomas Branson, was a native of Illinois, and crossed the plains to the Pacific Coast country with his parents. None of the incidents of that early westward journey are now available. (but they are now)

Thomas Branson led a company of volunteers at the Willow Creek fight at the time of the Nez Perce outbreak, and the wound which he received at that time caused his death four years later. During the days of pack freighting into that country he was a packer, freighting goods from the dalles, Oregon, across the country to Walla walla and other inland points. When he finally settled down to a permanent livelihood it was as a farmer, and his home was ten miles south of Walla Walla. He entered land there and prospered as a ranchman, and at the time of his death owned 4,400 acres, numerous cattle and large bands of horses, and his success made him one of the conspicuous ranchmen of that region.

Thomas Branson married Amanda Church, who was born in County Clare, Ireland, a daughter of Andrew Church. She was brought to the United States when a child of twelve years, and the family crossed the plains and settled in the Willamette Valley of Oregon. Mrs. Branson was reared there on a farm, and she survived her husband many years. Her children were as follows; Otis P., of Lewiston, Idaho, Roswell L., whose home is in Nashua Montana; Alfred M., of Kalispell, Montana; Fannie, who became the wife of Almon Jones, and died in Umatilla County, Oregon; Ella, who married John Gratz and died in Arizona; Mazina died as Mrs. Bird at Baker City, Oregon; Alta married a Mr. Musgrove of Walla Walla Valley; Charles E., of glacier Park, Montana. Mrs. Branson married for her second husband Charles Lewis, and her final home was at Lewiston, Idaho.

Roswell L. Branson was a pupil in the district schools near the Branson home in Walla Walla Valley until he entered Huntsville, Washington, college and he pursued a business course at Helena after he came to Montana. Leaving home with his brother, Alfred, they started out on horseback with little knowledge of their destination, knowing only that they were on their way somewhere. At Malhuren, Oregon, they overtook Charley Flowers with his band of horses, and they hired out to Mr. Flowers to help drive the stock through to Bozeman. After reaching Bozeman the Branson brothers hired to Charkes Ancny, of the firm of cruse and Ancny, to handle stock on the company's ranch on Prarie Elk, near Bozeman, spending three years there. They then crossed over to Lewiston, where Alfred Branson entered the service of McNamara, of Roswell, and became connected with the Diamond outfit, belonging to Henry Sieben. The Diamond Company was later consolidated with the Pioneer Cattle Company, owned by Davis, House, Stewart and Conrad Kohrs, and during a period of six years Roswell L. Branson worked under the orders of Mr. Kohrs on their Malta ranch.

While associated with that famous cattle company Mr. Branson came into intimate contact with numerous young men doing duty as cow punchers from every point of the compass. Among the more noted ones may be mentioned Puck Powell, who has since given many years of his life to the office of sheriff of Valley County. Another was Kid curry, who ended his notorious career as a train robber, and S. C. Small, who served as an official of Valley County for many years and finally became identified with the Milk River Valley Bank as its cashier, Johnny Edward, who finally became a power in republican politics in Montana, was another of the men of that day who slept on the ground and fed at the "chuck" wagon with the boys. He was a Texas man and came into Montana about the time the Branson brothers became cowboys in this state.

When Roswell Branson left the employ of Conrad Kohrs he began clerking and tending bar in the Coleman Hotel at Glasgow. Following this business experience he began ranching for himself at Whatley Siding east of Glasgow, in partnership with Sky C. Small, and they ran their stock under the brand "MU" for two years, when Mr. Branson bought his partner's interest and continued ranching until 1908. at that time he disposed of his ranching interests and entered the hotel business in Nashua.

This new venture made him the proprietor of the Nashua Hotel, a building 20 by 32 feet, and a two-story structure, 120 by 32 feet has taken the place of the original building. Mr. branson has taken an active part in the development of Nashua from a mere hamlet to an incorporated town, has also assisted in the work of opening roads through the Fort Peck reservation, and in making the region of Valley county passable for tourists and local travelers. In his political affiliations he supports the democratic party, voting for Mr. Cleveland for his first presidential candidate. Fraternally he is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias.

Mr. Branson was married while in Glasgow, Montana, July 20, 1897, to Miss Rosa Stiler, who was born in Minnesota in December 1876. a son, Earl Otis has been born to bless their union, and he is a pupil in the Nashua schools.

Samuel R. Hoon Dies in Dayton

Samuel Ross Hoon of Route 1, Dayton, died suddenly at his home Monday. He was 83, having been born on the family farm near Stateline on Aug. 1, 1873.

Mr. Hoon's father came across the plains and homesteaded in 1851, and the girl he married, Mattie Humphrey, also crossed the plains and met him at The Dalles in 1865. They were married and began farming on the homestead, which they never left. Their three children, Samuel, Mattie and Olive, were born there.

Samuel Hoon received his early education at the academy in Milton. He married Bessie Church June 3, 1901, and farmed the family place until 1936, when he moved to Dayton. He continued farming actively there until his death. His golden wedding anniversary was celebrated by almost the entire family in 1951, although some members had to come a considerable distance to do so. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, Trinity Lodge No. 121 of the Odd Fellows, Dayton Grange No. 1064, and the Columbia County Farm Bureau.

He is survived by his wife, Bessie at the home; sons Roy and Ray Hoon of Dayton and Dr. Henry Hoon of Yakima; his daughters Mrs. Lester (Pat) Mann of Eureka and Mrs. Robert (Iri) West of Spokane; a sister, Mrs. Mattie Hedrick of Los Angeles; seven grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 19 at a local funeral home, with interment in the Odd Fellows Cemetery. Ritualistic graveside services will be conducted by Trinity Lodge NO. 121 of the Odd Fellows.
