Milton Eagle Vol.111 No.46 December 6th, 1889 - A Rich Ledge . . . During the past summer, while visiting relatives in Butter Creek, in the S.W. part of this county, Uncle Silas Coe discovered a well-defined gold quartz ledge at the head of the stream, in what is known 'as the Pot'. Samples of the float rock were sent to New York City for assay, and the result showed $100 to the ton. The ore is free working. The ledge is 12 feet wide and can be traced for a distance of one mile. A short distance from this new dicovered ledge is the "Yellow Jacket" mine operated by one man with an Arasta, who makes from $8 to $10 per day. On Sunday last, Mr Coe departed from Milton for his claim, and while there will arrange for its development. The famous "Cracker Creek" mine in Baker County yields $60 per ton, the quartz being similar to this newly discovered ledge.

Death Claims Mrs. Susan Coe

Mrs. Susan Henrietta Frazier Coe, pioneer resident of Milton, died Saturday afternoon at her home at the age of 89. She came to Milton in November, 1867, with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. William S. Frazier, who farmed the land on which Milton now stands.

Her mother was Rachel Paulina Williams of Alabama; her father was born in North Carolina. The two were married in Tennessee, moved to Arkansas, and then to Texas, where Mrs. Coe was born in Jackson City on April 20, 1857.

The Fraziers and another family started for the Willamette valley by mule teams in April of 1867, and arrived in the Grande Ronde valley that fall. The Fraziers decided to stay in the Walla Walla district, living for a year on the Ingle place near Stateline and then moving to Milton.

They farmed land which is now the south end of Milton along the river. Her father plotted the original town of Milton there. At the age of 15 she was married to Samuel Kester Coe, who had come to the district shortly after the Fraziers. They had 12 children, of whom seven survive.

They are Mrs. C. H. Harris, Pendleton, Mrs. W. R. Craig, Portland, Arthur, Elmo and Harold Frazier all of Milton, Ernest Frazier of Portland, and Frank Frazier of Pendleton. She is also survived by a brother, William H. Frazier of Milton, 17 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

In 1875 Mrs. Coe joined the newly-established Methodist church in Milton, and she was also a member of the G.A. R. ladies. She was chosen as queen-mother of the fiftieth anniversary meeting of the Umatilla County Pioneer association in 1942.

Five Generations

As these lines are written, Susan Frazier Coe lies gravely ill at her home in Milton. Since this page a few weeks ago noted that Mrs. Coe had reached the nineties bracket in her life, further distinction has come to her. Since Susan K. Anderson was born in Surf, Calif., a few days ago, Mrs. Coe has become a great-great-grandmother though now too ill to properly appreciate the distinction.

The family tree which involves this five-generation group is: Mrs. Coe; Margaret Coe Campbell; Veril Campbell of Lompoc, Calif.; Phillis Campbell Anderson, Surf, Susan K. Anderson, Surf.

MILTON-FREEWATER - The funeral of Mrs. Susan Coe was held Monday afternoon at the Methodist church. Music was furnished by Oral Garner of Pendleton and during the service Mrs. Oral Garner and Mrs. Rolly Garner sang several selections.

Honorary pallbearers were Sam Adkins, Charles Spence, Charles Winn, Charles McKensie, John Ross, and C. D. Hobbs.

Active pallbearers were the five sons of the deceased, Arthur, Elmo, Harold, Ernest and Frank and her son-in-law Clyde Harris. The ladies of the G.A.R. of which Mrs. Coe was a member attended in a body.

Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Rice who had been in Portland for some time where Mrs. Rice has been with her sister who is quite ill, has returned home. They had also visited their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Saylor of Echo.

I really appreciate your assistance in finding any information about Joseph Frankling Campbell (aka Sheriff Joe) that is available to you. I am particularly interested to know if you have anything that lists names of his parents, siblings, or other relatives. ### PICNIC IN 'HER' PARK HONORS MARY HARRIS

There was a picnic at Harris Park, Sunday, along the swift flowing South Fork of the Walla Walla River.

Sunday's picnic wasn't too surprising. Area residents have been escaping up the Walla Walla for decades to enjoy the cooling stream, soft breezes, outdoor dining and fishing.

The picnic was organized by the Umatilla County Park and county commissioners.

Star of the affair was Mary Harris, widow of Clyde Harris, who helped make the park possible through a contribution of land several decades ago.

More recently the family's Harris Foundation made a significant contribution to a planned upgrading of the facility, and she was invited to the picnic to view the progress.

She saw the improved caretaker facility, a newly completed picnic shelter built around a stone chimney more than 60 years old, areas cleared of brush and a start on 12 planned R.V. pads.

"The park commissioners have done a truly outstanding job of scrounging and scavenging to improve this facility through gifts, grants and contributions and no county general-fund tax dollars." County Commissioner Bill Hansell told the gathering, adding "They are a truly dedicated group."

Hansell noted that the existence of the planned R.V. pads will make the park eliglble for additional state funds.

"I'm very happy to be here and thank you" said Mary Harris after being presented a cake in recognition of her contribution and that of her late husband to the recreational facility.

"My husband and I spent many lovely times here along the Walla Walla and I hope that you and other residents of Umatilla County will have many enjoyable times at Harris Park, too." she added.

Park commissionrs are Gene Palmer, Pendleton, chairman; Bill Widner, Milton-Freewater; Jay Hughes, Pendleton; Dick Sedgewick, Hermiston; Bill McPherson, Pendleton; Wally Mathews, Pilot Rock, and Art Barrows. Pendleton.

Obit - Clyde Harris of Pendleton Dead

PENDLETON - Clyde Harris, 78, who gave a multi-million dollar business to the Seventh-day Adventist Church, died in his home here Thursday morning.

Friends of the family said Harris had complained of a minor discomfort and collapsed while his wife was getting an aspirin for him.

Services are tentatively set for Monday at the Adventist Church here, with Burns Funeral Home handling arrangements.

Harris, who started his business career in 1913 when he and his brother, C.B. Harris, opened a little box factory in Milton, Ore., believed that "the Lord will do all right by you if you do all right by him."

BASIC TENET

"To me and my wife," he often said, "Tithing has always been a basic tenet of the Christian faith." And the two paid much more than lip service to this credo.

"It's worked, every step of the way," Harris once remarked. "Believe it or not, as we added fruit farms and orchards to our holdings, the devourer was rebuked and we invariably had good crops."

Outlining his business success, he recalled that in 39 years of continuous operation, his company showed a profit every year but one.

Talking of his early business days, with the Milton box factory, Harris once said: "We had two bosses and one employe." He and his wife soon joined the Adventist church, and began to expand their business in 1916 when a sawmill and a few more employes were added, and named Harris Pine Mills Inc. Later, Clyde Harris bought out his brother's interest in the firm which was moved to Pendleton in 1939.

Although the business mushroomed into a multimillion dollar operation over the years, Harris followed the Adventist sabbath teaching and refused to operate on Saturday.

"Some of those orchard men would get mighty upset," he recalled, "but I'd tell them we just couldn't work on Saturday. They'd threaten to stop buying from us but they never did, and our business went right on booming. You see, we did right by the Lord and He did right by us."

The mill also employed scores of students from Walla Walla College in College Place, an Adventist institution.

Over the years Harris had been a major benefactor of the college. In 1952 he gave his huge business holdings to the Adventist Church, but remained president until his retirement in 1957. By this time the mill had a 6 branch assembly operations scattered throughout the U.S.

Retirement did not halt Harris' gifts to his church. Several valuable properties also went to the church in 1960, shortly before he began a world tour to inspect Adventist missions and operations.

In August 1967 he was awarded an honorary Doctor of Law degree from Walla Walla College. Shortly after, he gave an additional $50,000 to the institution, plus the present varillon in the college chapel.

He was a longtime board member of the college perhaps the oldest in terms of years served.

Harris was born March 9, 1890 in Milton and attended Milton schools. He married Mary Viola Coe, who survives him, July 8, 1914 in Milton.

Dear Diane,

I really appreciate your assistance in finding any information about Joseph Frankling Campbell (aka Sheriff Joe) that is available to you. I am particularly interested to know if you have anything that lists names of his parents, siblings, or other relatives. I would love a copy of the photograph of him that you have--even a picture of the bullet and a short paragraph about it would be very interesting. Joseph's great-grandson has quite a lot of family history information about the Coe line already, but nearly nothing about the Campbell line--that is mainly where his interest lies, so ANYTHING you have have be greatly appreciated.

Supposedly Joe's father's name was Franklin Campbell and his mother's name was Sarah Clark--both of the parents, and Joe were from Ohio. Perhaps this will help.

My mailing address is:

Jennifer Livingston

Please let me know the cost for any photocopies you may make--including what it costs to make a good copy of the photograph you have of Joe. Also, please send me contact information in order to send a donation for your research efforts.

Thank you,

Jennifer

From Sarah,

I found one possibility, of his parents being William and Sarah (Boyer) Campbell. William's father's name is Johnathan Clark Campbell. But the Joseph Campbell is consistently written Joseph H Campbell. Without some other evidence, I sure don't want to go there.

OBIT - 1984

LINA COE CRAIG

Former Milton-Freewater resident, Lina Coe Craig, 101, of Mission Road, Pendleton, died Monday, Sept. 3, 1984, at Delamarter Nursing Home in Pendleton.

Funeral services will be Thursday, Sept. 6 at 2:30 pm at the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Jim Frisbie of Wesley Untied Methodist Church officiating. Concluding services and burial will be in the M-F Cemetery.

Mrs. Craig was born Sep. 15, 1882 in M-F to Samuel and Susan Frazier Coe.

She attended schools in this area including Columbia College. She worked for the Mosgrove Merchantile for 10 years.

In 1911, she was married to William Roland Craig on Couse Creek, near Milton-Freewater. After their marriage, they moved to Ellensburg, WA, where they owned and operated a book and stationery store for 15 years.

They then moved to Seattle, WA for two years and back to M-F for three years. They moved to the Corvallis and Portland area in the 1940's where they owned and operated hotels.

Mr. Craig preceded her in death Dec. 31, 1949. She returned to M-F in 1956 and lived here 20 years prior to moving to Pendleton to be near her daughter. She lived in Camlu and Village Apartments before she moved into the nursing home.

She was a member of the Wesley United Methodist Church of M-F.

Mrs. Craig is survived by her daughter, Mrs. John (Margaret) de Romanett of Pendleton; a son, Roland Eston Craig of Canoga Park, CA; a brother, Elmo Coe of M-F; a sister, Mary B. Harris of Pendleton; five grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews.

The enterprising and progressive young man whose career we must now attempt to present in brief outline is achieving a success on material things of which he has every reason to be proud. Born in the Evergreen state just north of us, (WA) he has spent his entire life thus far in the west and learned well the art of turning to his own advantage the conditions obtaining here.

Mr. Saling is a son of the well-known pioneers, Edmund S. and Artemisia W. (French) Saling, natives respectively of Missouri and Indiana. The father came to Yam Hill county in 1852, thence to Walla Walla county, Washington, in 1864, where he met and married our subject's mother, and where our subject was born, June 8, 1870. There Mrs. Saling resided until fourteen years of age, acquiring such education as was to be had in the local public school. In 1885 he came to the then newly organized county of Morrow, accompanying his parents to Sand Hollow, where he has ever since lived. After his father's death, which occurred on March 31, 1894, he and his brother, Clyde, took charge of the place and from that time until the spring of the present year (1901) they followed farming and cattle raising, but they have now disposed of their cattle and invested in a herd of twelve hundred sheep. They have eighteen hundred acres of land in their home place and two hundred and forty acres of timber in the mountains.

Fraternally Mr. Saling is affiliated with Heppner Lodge, No. 69. F. & M. He was married on March 14, 1900, to Miss Eva E. Bartholomew, daughter of Judge A.G. and Mary (Coe) Bartholomew, of Heppner, Oregon, and they have one child, M. A. Ruth, born February 7, 1901. Mrs. Saling is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, South.

Notes for Darlene E. Mizer:

OBIT - Darlene Mizer Winters - Walla Walla Union Bulletin, July 16, 2006

Dec 26, 1925 - June 28, 2006

CORBETT, OR - Former Milton-Freewater resident Darlene E. Winters, 80, died of cancer June 28, 2006, at home.

A celebration of life and a dinner will be at 6:30 pm, Friday at Colwood Golf Course, 7913 N.E. Columbia Blvd, Portland.

Mrs. Winters was born Dec. 26, 1925, in Nezperce, Idaho, to Victor and Edith Mizer. She received her education in Milton-Freewater.

She married high school sweetheart Donald Coe on Nov. 23, 1943. They lived on the Coe Ranch in Milton-Freewater until he lost his eyesight from a horse accident. She cooked three meals a day for many hired men on their ranch.

She loved cooking, baking and sewing her family's clothing, including western shirts for her husband, who rodeoed in his spare time. The Coe's divorced in 1966.

On Feb. 7, 1970, she married Arthur Winters. She worked for Terminal Flour Mills and later was lounge and banquet manager for the Colwood Golf Course from 1970 to 1984. The couple moved to Zillah, WA in 1984 to raise apples and grapes. While there she loved entertaining friends and family in a bed and breakfast-style.

She loved a good time and gambling. She and her husband also loved golf, going on cruises and trips to Reno with friends. They were members of Mount Adams Country Club and the Eagles lodge in Toppenish. They moved to Corbett after Mr. Winters had a stroke. He died in 2002.

She then wintered in Tucson, Arizona, at the home of daughter Sharon Angelo, who survives there. Survivors also include daughter Sue Coon; two sons, Tim Coe, and Tom Coe and friend Stella Tyler; four stepdaughters, Darla Prince, Donna Fields, Debi Kysor and Diane Fell; 13 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and 11 step-grandchildren.

I am the son of Nancy Rae Coe (now Nancy Smithson)

who is the daughter of Norma Coe (written Nan Coffman Johnson on your website)

and Charles Ray Johnson

She was then adopted by Jim Coe (written James Arthur Coe on your website).

Jim is the highest up on the blood lineage to William Frazier. (Our line is about 2 thirds to 3 quarters of the way down the lineage page.)

While Jim was not my blood grandfather, I believe learning about his ancestry could help me. I'd like to know who Jim's parents are and who their parents are, at least on the William Frazier line.

Thank you so much for such a quick response.

I must have email about 10 people within the last two days and you're the first to return my email. THANKS!
