Mr. Bert R. Edwards

1135 Alvarado Terrace

Walla Walla. Washington 99362

Dear Bert,

The account of your wife's family as it appeared in last night's Bulletin reminded me that the Ballou name is closely tied to the development of the Milton-Freewater.

I am sending you a copy of the July 24th Valley Herald which relates to the project which W.S. Caverhill has spear-headed in development of the "Trail of Pioneers".

The response to the sale of steps has been tremendous, and I feel we should draw your attention to it. In each case we are using the family name and the year of arrival to the valley, and are having this information sandblasted onto each step.

Each family is paying $35.00 for a step, and although Mr. Caverhill and I signed a Contract with Romie Kemp to develop the site and set the steps, it appears that we will have enough step sales to practically cover the cost. Any deficit he and I will make up or will pick up local contribution for the difference.

If you are interested, it would be in order for you to make a check to S.W. Caverhill, Pioneer Trail Fund, and give us the first name or initial of the earliest settler and his wife, and the date of arrival in the valley.

We have had one or two who have not had full information, and they have used just the Family name and the year date.

Having known Mrs. Florence Brown as well as we did, I am sure that historical information is available in your families. If you have any questions, please give me a quick ring.

Yours sincerely,

RB:ekk

(Hand written note on letter: Church and Bertha Ballou was married Nov. 23, 1898. Her parents had come here in 1878 and purchased proplerty that became Ballou Road.)

August 3, 1969

Dear Bert,

I was glad to get your letter of July 31, and the copy of the Valley Herald. I was very much interested in the article about the "Trail of the Pioneers". It would be fitting indeed to have the Ballou family on one of the steps.

Of course, the whole Ballou Family was in the group, but our grandparent's names were:

ORLAND RALPH BALLOU

ELIZABETH BOYD BALLOU

The date of their arrival in the Walla Walla Valley was 1878.

He had been up the previous winter to look things over, but the family arrived 1878 and remained as permanent settlers and developers of the valley.

Other members of the Ballou family arriving in 1878 were:

Lillian 18 yrs old (Phoebe's mother)

Myra 16 yrs old

Grant Albee 14 yrs old Buried in Ford Cemetery near Ballou Road

Clarence Orlando 12 yrs old

Harry Euberto 7 yrs old (Pauline and Allen's dad)

Bertha Amelie 4 yrs old (Our mother)

Aunty Florence was born in 1880 in Oregon Birch Brook Farm.

Aunty Lillian said the outgoing occupants of the cabin on Birch Brook Farm told them there were just a very few bedbugs in the cabin.

Of course, according to the very best authorities on the subject, and believe me, I have talked to some real first class authorities, there is no such thing as a very few bed dugs, even as there is no such thing as a very little, or a "trace" of garlic.

Grandpa Ballou was 44 yrs old. B. Dec 19, 1833 - (45 in Dec.)

Grandma Ballou was 41 yrs old. B. May 12, 1837.

As far as the other members of our family are concerned, you have probably heard many times that our Great Grandfather, Wm. Clement Dement arrive in the valley in 1843, probably stopping at the Whitman Mission, and at the Fort Walla Walla for sure (Where our ferry was on the Columbia). He went on to Oregon City, or near it, on the Willamette.

Our Grandfather Charles Pratt Church passed through the valley in 1862 on his way to the gold diggings at Florence, near the Salmon River in Idaho. He returned by boat down the Snake and Columbia to the Willamette (Harrisburg).

When the Dements came to Walla Walla I don't know - -Catherine probably has the record.

Grandpa Church began buying wheat in the valley about 1880, according to his journal.

I think it is a wonderful thing to have the Ballou names on one of those steps. Thanks a million for your interest.

Love and best wishes to all

Don

Dear Russel:

Here is a check for $35.00 to Mr. W.S. Caverhill to make possible a step in the "Trail of Pioneers" for:

Orlando Ralph Ballou
Elizabeth Boyd Ballou
1878

Donald Church, a grandson of Orlando and Elizabeth Ballou, has written me a very interesting and factual letter about his grandparents and about others of his family who arrived in these parts in the nineteenth century. Donald Church is fast becoming a very eligible replacement for his father W.D. Church who was one of the Valley's renown historians. I thought you might be interested in a copy of this letter.

Best Regards,
Sincerely yours,
Bert R. Edwards.

Dear Bert:

I am mailing you a couple copies of the current Valley Herald which has more information regarding the Dorion Park.

Sorry I missed you when you cam by.

The steps had just been poured when, I am sorry to say, we have had a couple of vandalism episodes up there. The damage to the steps is being repaired, however, and the contractors are going ahead with the development.

We are having a big redwood sign made, but will not hang it until after the project is completed.

Thought you might want to send one of these issues to your brother-in-law.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Russel;

Thank you for the current article of the "Trail of the Pioneers" in the Valley Herald, which I have mailed on to Donald Church in Stewart, Virginia.

The next time I go through Milton-Freewater I will stop by and visit with you, not only about local history but real estate too.

Warmest personal regards,

Walla Walla Union Bulletin Monday, October 29, 2001

Local businessman, Whitman alum, dies

Bert R. Edwards, 80, a longrine Walla Walla resident, prominent businessman and community

A Whitman College graduate, Edwards began his business career in 1937, when he joined the local staff of Sherwood and Roberts, first working as a loan officer and appraiser.

Edwards worked his way up through the company and eventually became chairman of the executive committee and a member of the company's board of directors.

In 1967, he joined the staff of First Federal Savings and Loan Association where he served as managing officer, executive vice president and president. Under Edwards management, the association's assets increased from $29 million to $266 million.

Outside of his business activities, Edwards was an active supporter of Whitman College, where he served as an overseer starting in 1963 and as a trustee beginning in 1976. He also helped spearhead major fund-raising efforts, such as the Cordiner Hall Fund Drive and the "Campaign for Whitman" in the early 1980s.

OBIT

Bert R. Edwards, 80, of 2100 Plaza Way died Oct. 29, 2001, at St. Mary Medical Center.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Herring Groseclose Funeral Home, 315 W. Alder St.
