Destroyed

A fire completely destroying the N. D. Crofutt Livery stable, a building belonging to Mrs. Minnie Stevens of Cove, on Main St, and a barn back of the livery stable owned by H. D. Driver, occurred in Wallowa on Monday evening at 9:30 o'clock. Three horses belonging to B.F. and G. W. Ross were also burned. The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Crofutt states he had no fire in any part of the stable that day. Some men who intended to sleep in the barn that night had retired; one of them, who had not yet fallen asleep, noticed smoke coming up through one of the hay shutes and upon examination discovered the lower part of the barn ablaze. The alarm was immediately given and the fire brigade was soon upon the scene. A number of horses were in the barn, five belonging to Ross Bros. and all were rescued with the exception of the three horses belonging to these gentleman. The horses were valued at $640, this price having been refused only a short time before, and a pet racehorse. They also lost a camp outfit worth $300. They felt their loss keenly both being old gentlemen, who were on their way to Baker. B.F. Ross narrowly escaped with his life.

Owing to such a strong wind, the fire gained such rapid headway that it proved utterly impossible to save the buildings or much of the contents.

The residence of E. A. Holmes occupied by E. L Holmes was saved only by the miraculous efforts of the men, as it lay directly in the path of the wind. The west side of the residence was slightly damaged, and the fruit trees between the house and the Stevens building were ruined, Other buildings slightly damaged were the roof on Morelock's Opera House, and the front of the building occupied by Enterprise Electric Co. Had it not been for the steady down pour of rain, the greater part of the town would have been in ashes, as the water pressure would not have been great enough to extinguish the fire.

N. D. Crofutt estimates his loss at $2,000 and carried no insurance, the insurance having run out only a few days previous. Mr. Driver's loss is valued at $500 and no insurance. The Stevens Building was insured for $900

The livery stable was one of the first buildings in Wallowa and was built about 25 years ago.

Generation No. 2

2. IRA J.² CROFUTT (*ALBERT JAMES*¹) was born Oct 1858 in Guthrie county, Iowa, and died 20 Aug 1947 in Benton, Washington²³. He married NETTIE WHEALER 29 Jun 1884 in Umatilla, OR²⁴. She was born Jun 1860 in Wisconsin.

Notes for IRA J. CROFUTT:

An Illustrated History Of The State Of Oregon: Containing A History Of Oregon From The Earliest Period Of Its Discovery To The., The Lewis Publishing Company 1893, page 450

IRA J CROFUTT, one of the leading business men of Weston, was born in Guthrie county, Iowa, October 17, 1858. He remained in Iowa until he was ten years old, when his parents removed to Oregon. The trip was made across the plains in wagons, the journey consuming six months. He was the oldest of the two children born to his parents, Albert and Irene (Walters) Crofutt.

The father of our subject was a native of Pennsylvania and came to Iowa at an early date and here he was married, but soon after the birth of the second child, Mrs. Crofutt was taken away, leaving two children, Ira and Cora. Mr. Crofutt was married a second time to Miss Anwise Davis and in 1868 the family removed to Oregon and settled in Umatilla county, where the father resided for many years and nine children were born to him there. Mr. and Mrs. Crofutt, Sr., are now living near Arlington, Oregon, both having attained a ripe old age.

Our subject was reared on the farm and as soon as he was old enough he pre-empted a quarter section, which he occupied, improving it and farming for some years. Concluding to change his business he removed to Weston and continued for a while and then removed to Adams and started a stable there, where he remained for some time and then returned to his farm and continued on it for two years, when he returned to Weston, built a store and engaged in the grocery and fruit business and is still pursuing the same occupation. He carries a stock worth $2,500 and is doing an average business of $11,000 per annum. Although Mr. Crofutt was reared on the farm and received no other advantages of education, except those afforded by the common public schools, he possesses good business ability and is considered a great benefactor to Weston. By his close attention to business Mr. Crofutt has made the property he now possesses. He, like many others started in life with nothing, but by economical labors earned a competency. Mr. Crofutt was married, June 29, 1884, to Miss Nettie Wheeler, of Wisconsin. She came to Oregon, in 1883, to visit a sister and while here married Mr. Crofutt. Mrs. Crofutt's father was killed in the late war, but the mother still resides in Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Crofutt have had three children, of whom only one, a little girl, Mable, is now living. Mr. Crofutt is a member of the K. of P. Lodge, at Weston, and both he and his estimable wife are highly esteemed citizens of the town in which they have made so many friends.
