Notes for ELSIE ELNORA SYLVESTER:

<http://www.geocities.com/possumlover3/GENEALOGY/sylvester.html>

SYLVESTER-DEMARIS

ELSIE ELNORA SYLVESTER, born May 20, 1897, was one of four children born to ALBERT and MARY MERL HARRISON SYLVESTER (MARY was a cousin of President Harrison). The other three children were FRANK, RALPH and EVA. The Sylvesters live on a ranch in the Labanon area. a few years later plans were made to sell the ranch and move to Prineville, Oregon. the trip at that time took about a week.

Mr. Sylvester met JOHN DEMARIS at Prineville and was offered a job cutting and hauling wood, contracted for Crook County for the courthouse.

The Demaris family, JOHN and his wife, JANE, had nine children, namely: WALTER, JESS, FLORENCE, BERT, DUDE (ENOCH BELL), CRYSTAL, HAZEL, RUTH and WARREN. They were very kind to the newly arrived Sylvester family and a home was provided for them at the Demaris Sawmill site in one of their houses.

The group at the sawmill would go to dances about 14 miles from home. Quilts were put in the wagon for the young folks to sit on. FLORENCE played the piano, JOHN DEMARIS the violin, and JESS played the fiddle, as it was called then. The dance usually lasted all night.

ELSIE SYLVESTER, age 16, and DUDE DEMARIS, age 21, were married December 25, 1913, and moved to the homestead that DUDE had filed on, which was located on Sealy Creek. To this marriage ten children were born, seven living to maturity, namely CLARENCE, HELEN, IRENE, HAROLD, CLINTON, GERALD and DONALD. The children attended school in Bend at the time DUDE was employed by Shevlin-Hixon Lumber Company.

IRENE married JAKE HEBERLEIN and they live in Pasco, Washington with their two adopted children, SHEILA and PAT. SHEILA married JOHN SAY.

HELEN married JOHNNY LARKIN and they had sixteen children.

CLINTON married SURE LASSITER and they had three children.

GERALD married NORMA JEAN LEWIS.

DONALD married EYVONNE HOYT and (2) DONNA RAYMOND.

After the loss of their son, HAROLD, at the age of 22, the DUDE DEMARIS family felt there was great need for a good hospital in Prineville. When the drive for the hospital was started they donated $200. The hospital since has had many improvements and all should be very proud of this accomplishment.

DUDE passed away in 1963 and ELSIE still lives at their home just north of town, though crippled from a stroke suffered several years ago. Her son, GERALD is with her when his work is in this area.

Twyla Turner – 1921-2005

Published: October 11, 2005

Twyla Turner

Twyla Turner died on Sept. 25. Services were held on Sept. 28 at the Pioneer Presbyterian Church with Reverend Jean Hurst officiating. Casket bearers were Steven Fenley, Alex Cooper, Dave Bossuot, Tom Barnes, Todd Prince and Scott Turner. Concluding services and burial were at the Burns Cemetery.

Turner was born on Aug. 26, 1921, to Alvon and Emma Baker. She was the third of six children, all girls. They lived on Trout Creek north of Burns on a ranch until they moved to Frenchglen, where she attended school until the third grade. The family moved to Linder, Idaho, where Turner attended school and graduated from Star Grade School in Star, Idaho.

The family moved back to Harney County in 1936 and Turner graduated from Burns High School in 1940.

Turner married Allen Turner in 1940. They lived on and ran a ranch on Spring Creek, 30 miles northwest of Burns until 1944, when they purchased the Walter Mauzey ranch 1 1/2 miles south of Burns. While living at Spring Creek, the Turners were snowed in five months of the year with no telephone, running water or electricity.

Turner's accomplishments and community service included being chosen Woman of the Year in 1957 and Woman of the Week by the Burns Times-Herald in May 1961. Turner served on the committee for selecting the Woman of the Year and the Senior Woman of the Year for 39 years.

Turner was a member of the Poison Creek Grange and the Harney County Pamona Grange for 57 years. She recently received the Golden Leaf award from the Oregon State Grange for her long and distinguished service. She served as Master of both and held all the other elected offices in both granges over the years.

Turner helped organize the first grange sponsored 4-H clubs, lined up 15 leaders, five junior leaders and watched over 100 4-H members, providing the grange hall for them to meet. She was herself a club leader, cooking at the 4-H summer camps, acting as superintendent of the 4-H building and president of the 4-H leaders association.

Turner was instrumental in organizing the first PTA in Burns. She also helped organize the Hospital Auxiliary and served as a volunteer at the hospital. She was the president and secretary for the Harney County Health Council.

Turner served as a member of the Burns-Hines extension unit and was on the Harney County Planning committee for many years. In addition, she was a member of the Sylvia Rebekah Lodge for more than 50 years and was a member of the Sagebrush Embroidery Club.

Turner's other community involvement included being a member of the Pioneer Presbyterian Church, Harney County Historical Society, Harney County Pioneer Association and the Senior Center Board. She also served as a volunteer for various fund-raising activities.

Turner was preceded in death by her husband Allen in 1986.

She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Louise and Gale Prince of Burns; son and daughter-in-law, Harley and Vickie Turner of Reno, Nev.; sisters, Roselle Connall, Betty Cheek, Arlene Shaw and Kathryn Barstad; six grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren.

Contributions in Turner's memory can be made to the Harney County Senior Citizen Center in care of LaFollette's Chapel, P.O. Box 488, Burns, OR, 97720.
