160. ALTA DELPHINE⁷ DEMARIS (*BERT GEROME*⁶, *JOHN HENRY*⁵, *ENOCH CHARLES*⁴, *ENOCH*³, *JOHN*², *JOHN*¹) was born 30 Nov 1915 in Demaris Ranch on McKay Creek, north of Prineville, Oregon, and died 09 Dec 1985 in Deschutes, OR⁹²⁵. She married JACK LAVERNE NEEL 12 Jun 1938 in Camas, Washington, son of JESSE NEEL and HAZEL VORCE. He was born 08 Oct 1916, and died 09 Jan 1986 in Redmond, Deschutes, OR^{926,927}.

Notes for ALTA DELPHINE DEMARIS:

ALTA DEMARIS NEEL

ALTA DEMARIS was born November 30, 1915 at the Demaris Ranch on McKay Creek, north of Prineville, Oregon to BERT and MAGGIE BIRDSONG DEMARIS. His father and Aunt, MINNIE DEMARIS, acted as doctor and midwife. Her parents returned to their homestead on Camp Creek in southeast Crook County when Alta was a baby, where they made their home until she started to High School in 1929.

Alta was fourth in a family of eight children: BEULAH (1910), WARREN (1912), ALBERT (1914), ALTA (1915), VELDA (1919), LENORA (1922), EDNA (1924) and LEONA (1928). She recalls with pleasure her early childhood. Neighbors gathered for sleigh riding riding their milk cows, and the many chores of the ranch, being always alert for rattlesnakes (which were plentiful) and rabid coyotes (which were also numerous). The neighbors gathered for rabbit drives (rabbits were destroying their crops) and sometimes killed as many as 2,000 rabbits in a drive.

She spent part of each summer, from the age of six to twelve years, at Suplee, Oregon with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Birdsong. Her family made the two day trip by wagon, camping on the Crooked River which was about half way. Sometimes they were accompanied by the families of Alex Ammons, Charley Birdson, and James Taylor. She was about nine years of age when her father obtained his first car, a Model T Ford.

In 1929, her father sold his holding for $800.00 and moved to Prineville, Oregon to send the rest of his children to high school (the two older ones having boarded away from home to attend school).

Alta and Albert (Ab) graduated in 1933. She was the outstanding girl graduate of her class. She enjoys recalling the next summer she spent at the Allie and Floyd Jones ranches caring for Floyd's two small children, as well as cooking for the lambing crew and hay hands, usually from six to fourteen men. They had hot biscuits, steak, fried potatoes and gravy for breakfast every morning (orders of the boss) and either cake or pie for the noon and evening meals. She baked "light bread" at least two times a week and helped shop for groceries once a week. She did the family wash in a tub with a washboard.

She married JACK NEEL in Camas, Wahsington, in 1938. He was the son of JESSE JAMES NEEL (named after the "bad man" by the same name), and HAZEL VORCE NEEL. His grandparents, ZACH and VIRGINIA NEEL had often befriended JESSE and FRANK JAMES in Virginia. They named another son FRANK.

ALTA and JACK had two children, a son, KENNETH, born November 17, 1940, and PEGGY born december 3, 1943.

Alta worked at the Central Oregon District Hospital in Redmond, Oregon for twenty-seven years as a Licensed Practical Nurse. She retired in January 1978

KENNETH married JUDY DEER WING of Butte, Montana. They had four children: KINBERLY DEERE (1963), TYRONE JAMES (1966), JASON (1968) and THAYNA (1972). He worked as a heavy equipment operator and truck driver.

PEGGY also became a Licensed Practical Nurse, and also worked at Diamond International in Redmond.

Alta and Jack lived their later years in and near Redmond, Oregon.

Lionel Lyman Connall, 91, died on Sept. 5 at The Aspens in Hines.

Connall was born on May 11, 1915, in New Bridge to Robert I. and Ollie J. (Strang) Connall. He grew up in the New Bridge/Sparta area on the family ranch.

He married Roselle Lynnette Baker on Aug. 28, 1934, in Eagle, Idaho. The newlyweds rode the "milk train" to Burns and lived on Grandpa Tom Baker's Sandhill ranch. During the Depression, they moved to Richland, where Connall worked at any job he could find.

The couple returned to Burns at the start of World War II, and Connall worked for Edward Hines Lumber Company.

Connall helped build the Experiment Station on Highway 205 and worked for Copeland Lumber and Cyc Presley at the Burns Richfield gas station. The couple bought the Hines Richfield station in 1950. Connall sold the station in 1957 and began working as a mechanic throughout Oregon and Washington.

He first worked on the Brownlee Dam, then the Oxbow, Wanapum, Mason and finally the John Day Dam. He also worked on I-84 on the Columbia River.

In the early 1970s, the couple moved to the Portland area, where Connall worked for a barge and tug company on Swan Island. He retired in 1991, and they returned to Hines. The Connalls moved to The Aspens in November 2005.

Connall was preceded in death by his parents; and his brothers, Ellis and Wilbur.

He is survived by his wife, Roselle; his children, Robert, Lyle and Julia of Hines; his grandchildren, Robin and Marc Mitchell of La Grande, Marty Connall of Redwood Shores, Calif., and Kyle and Iva Marie Connall of West Linn; his great grandchildren, Robbie Lynnette and Marcus Allen of La Grande and Elliot Richard and Madeline Marie of West Linn. He is also survived by his sister-in-law, Jean Connall of Richland; numerous nieces and nephews and Roselle's sisters and their families.

A funeral service will be at 3 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 16, at Pioneer Presbyterian Church in Burns, with a graveside service to follow. Family and friends are invited for lunch at the church following the services.

Memorials may be made to the Harney County Senior Center.

Lyle Lyman Connall, 70, died on Nov. 8, in Redwood City, Calif., after a two year battle with pancreatic cancer. He and his wife, Julia, were staying at his son's (Marty) home while undergoing treatment at Stanford Cancer Clinic in Palo Alto, Calif. He was surrounded by the presence and love of his immediate family.

Connall was born in Boise, Idaho, on May 18, 1936, to Lionel L. and Roselle L. (Baker) Connall. When Lyle was 6 months old, the family moved to Burns, where he lived and enjoyed his entire life. He graduated from Burns Union High School in 1954, and married his high school sweetheart, Julia Lee Gibson, on July 7, 1957.

Besides spending time with his family, he was passionate about all sports, hunting and fishing. Connall excelled in football, basketball and baseball. He was especially a lifelong fan of the University of Oregon Duck athletics. He made many lifetime friends during his sports and high school days. His classmates of 1954 remained very close and stood by his side throughout his courageous battle.

Connall was employed by Edward Hines Lumber Company, where he worked a number of positions from 1955 until they were purchased by Snow Mountain Pine. He continued working at Snow Mountain Pine until they closed in 1995. He then continued to work other positions in the community until he retired in 1999.

Connall is survived by his wife, Julia Connall; sons, Marty Connall of Redwood City, Calif., and Kyle Connall and wife Iva-Marie of West Linn; grandchildren, Elliot and Madeline Connall; mother, Roselle Connall; and brother, Robert Connall.

He was preceded in death by his father, Lionel Connall.

Cards and condolences can be sent to Julia Connall, 700 Baltic Circle, #724, Redwood City, CA 94065. Contributions in his name may be made to PanCAN, 2141 Rosecrans Ave., Suite 7000, El Segundo, CA 90245 or

The family is honoring Connall's wishes for no formal service. The family would also like to recognize and thank the care and support of Pathways Home Health and Hospice providers, particularly Karen Ashiku, Connall's care nurse.
