Funeral arrangements are pending the arrival of his son and family from California where they have been traveling.

OBIT - Feb. 5, 1952 (no newspaper name)

HEART ATTACK FATAL TO CLAUDE H. HARRIS

Claude H. Harris, 64, resident of this community his entire life, died Tuesday morning in an ambulance on his way to a Walla Walla hospital. He had suffered a heart attack at home.

Born March 2, 1887 in Milton, he was the son of James and Bertha Harris, early pioneers. After attending Central school here he began farming operations, buying his first ten acres about two and one half miles above Milton, up the Walla Walla River in the early 1900's and gradually building up to his present extensive holdings.

In 1918, he acquired considerable pasture and farm land and started stock farming and sheep raising. These interests he sold to his nephew about 1936. Since that time he has devoted his time to wheat farming east of Milton-Freewater and in the Butter Grade area.

At hte time of his death he was residing in one of his apartments recently finished on Walla Walla street.

Survivors are one son, Archie of Milton-Freewater; two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Harder of New York City and Mrs. Marcene Garriott of Milton.Freewater: two brothers J.B. Harris of Milton-Freewater and Clyde Harris of Pendleton; two sisters, Mrs M.H. Wagner and Mrs. Robert Smith, both of Milton-Freewater and six grandchildren.

GENE DEMARIS

Eugene "Gene" A. Demaris, 85, of 54819 Walla Walla River Road, died Feb. 6, 2005, at Mountain Meadows Dementia Care, 2102 Melrose St.

The funeral will be 11 am Friday at Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home, 902 S. Main St. Milton-Freewater, 97862. The concluding service and burial will follow in Milton-Freewater Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Parkinson's Foundation through the funeral home.

Mr. Demaris was born Aug. 11, 1919, in Walla Walla to Arch and Bessie Gumm Demaris. He grew up and worked on the family farm up the Walla Walla River. He graduated in 1938 from McLoughlin Union High School.

He continued on the farm, raising wheat, cattle and fruit. On June 3, 1942, he entered the U.S. Army Air Corps. He was an airplane maintenance technician on P-51, P-39 and P-40 airplanes and served with the 5th tactical reconnaissance squadron. While a crew chief, he received a Bronze Star for maintaining his plane for 83 missions without any mechanical failures. He was discharged Sept. 17, 1945.

He returned to work with his father and brother Leland on the farm. They bought more acreage around Gardena in the late 1940's and he moved there in the early 1950's to care for the farm. Irrigation was soon started. He and his brother raised alfalfa in summer and fed cattle in winter.

He moved back up the Walla Walla River in the 1970's to help care for his mother. He and his brother farmed both places until retirement in 1979.

He was a longtime, skilled bowler. He kept active in retirement with a variety of pursuits. He and good friend Frank Turner rode their horses for countless hours in the mountains and valleys.

Survivors include brother and sister-in-law Leland and Ruby Demaris of Walla Walla; nephew Dave Demaris of M-F; niece and nephew-in-law Donna and Kerry Boaz of Walla Walla; great-nephew Arch Demaris of Spokane; and great-niece Amanda Boaz of Walla Walla.

Andy Drewniak

Colonial Funeral Home

YAKIMA - Andrew D. Drewniak (92) of Yakima died Wednesday, March 22, 2006 at Memorial Hospital. He was born in Chinook, MT on October 9, 1913 to August and Zepha Drewniak. Andy served in the Army National Guard and the Merchant Marines in WWII. Andy worked at the atomic nuclear plant in Alaska, and as a chef at the Black Angus, retiring in 1980. Throughout his life, he has owned several of his own restaurants and bakeries. He enjoyed raising cattle, fishing, gardening, and making macramae belts. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Elaine of 31 years, who took care of him and nurtured him, of Yakima; two daughters, Dorothy (the late Louie) Mahan of Spokane and Barbara (Tom) Baca of Newark, CA; five grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren; one sister, Frances (the late Tony) Schomer of Spokane; brothers-in-law, Lyn Howerton of Spokane, Don, James and Steven Elliott of Yakima; aunts Marie, Nellie and Tiney; uncle Russell, and mother-in-law Edna Elliott, as well as many nieces and nephews. Andy enjoyed his many friends and his little dog Tiffy.

He was preceded in death by both parents, brothers Fred and Earl Drewniak, and sister Delora Howerton.

Mass of Christian Burial will be on Tuesday, March 28, 2006 at 11:00AM at Holy Family Catholic Church Chapel. Interment will follow at West Hills Cemetery. A potluck reception will follow in the Church reception hall. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
