Text: History of Walla Walla County, 1918

Orlando Demaris, who throughout his active business life followed farming, but is now living retired in the city of Walla Walla, was born in Iowa on the 7th of Jan 1851 and is the son of James and Eliza J. (White) Demaristhe former a native of Ohio and the latter of Kentucky. They came to Washington in 1863 and located on a farm in Walla Walla County on Dry Creek, where the father built a log cabin with a clapboard roof, board floor and stick chimney, which was the home of the family for several years. Later the parents removed to Walla Walla where both died. In their family were 12 children, of whom 9 still survive.

Orlando Demairs was 12 years of age when he accompanied his parents on their removal to Walla Walla County, where he grew to manhood and attended school. After completing his education he remained under the parental roof until he attained his majority, giving his father the benefits of his labors. He then purchased a farm and engaged in its operation until his retirement, since which time he has made his home in the city of Walla Walla. He is still owner, however of 700 acres of land, well improved and under cultivation.

In 1875, Mr. Demaris married Miss Mary M. Lewis, a native of Iowa, which state was also the birthplace of her parents, Reese and Mary (Jackson) Lewis, who brought their family to Walla Walla County in 1863 and settled on a farm where they continued to make their home throughout the remainder of their lives. They had four children and three of the number are still living. The children born to Mr. and Mrs. Demaris are as follows: Laura and Frankie both deceased; David, Fred, Guy and Alva and Edwin. Guy and Alva are now in the government service at Fort Riley, Kansas. The three other sons now operate their father's farm.

By his ballot Mr. Demaris supports the men and measures of the Democratic Pary and he has served as school director. He is a memeber of the Odd Fellows Lodge at Dixie and his wife belongs to the Rebekahs taking a very active and prominent part in its work. She is now past Noble Grad. They attend the Methodist Episcopal Church and are held in the highest esteem by all who know them.
