Notes for GEORGE WHITFIELD MORGAN:

My wife is descended from Roberts and Elliotts in Flat Creek, N.C. Some years ago, we obtained the Flat Creek Baptist church records as far back as 1833. While recently researching some Civil War data, I discovered this interesting notice on George Whitfied Morgan, dated June 18, 1865. I have copied the note as it is recorded in the church minutes

"June 18th 1865"

"We Notice George Whitfield Morgan has departed this life the 36 of April 1865 Aged 33 years 5 months & 18 days he protest Religion November 11 1856 and joind the B Church at Flatcreek November the 8th 1856 & Remained a awrdley pious member during that time & when it become nessary for him to take up armes in defense of his cuntry he volentierd under Capt Hardy of the 60 NC in which servis he spent 14 months of his life as a faithful souldier in defense of his cuntry & he got a sick furlow & came hom & while at home he was assign to the office of lieutenant in A Company at home & thair he faithfully discharged his duty as a offiser & a souldier in defense of his home & fire side & while on duty he was killed on beverdam NC buncombe county he left a beloved wife & 2 children & many relations to lament & mourn after his departure yet we have to submit blieving he is with his beloved saviour in the Glory

Notes for ELIZABETH TIPTON:

Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1956 > April > 4, page 5

Mrs. E. Dixon, 101, Is Dead

MILTON-FREEWATER -- Mrs. Elizabeth Dixon, 101, who had resided in this district 50 years, died Tuesday afternoon in a local nursing home.

She was born Nov. 16, 1854, in Burnsville, N.C. She was the only surviving member of six girls and six boys. She married Joe Dixon in 1875 and to this union were born nine children: seven boys and two girls. Teh Dixons moved to the Fruitvale district in 1906 where they bought a farm. Dixon died in 1913. A son, the late George Dixon served in the Spanish-American War and James Dixon, Milton-Freewater, another son, in World War I. She had five grandchildren in World War II.

Other survivors include: a daughter, Mrs. Bessie Weathers, Walla Walla; and a son, H. P. Dixon, Milton-Freewater; and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Friday from the local funeral home. The Rev. Edward Stubbs of the Baptist church, of which she was a member, will officiate. Burial will be in Mountain View cemetery at Walla Walla.
