Generation No. 2

2. FRANCIS² FOLEY (JOHN¹) was born Jul 1834 in IL. He married HANNA REESE 06 Nov 1864 in Union county, Oregon, daughter of GEORGE REESE and MARGARET WRIGHT. She was born 22 Mar 1850 in Iowa.

Notes for FRANCIS FOLEY:

An Illustrated History Of The State Of Oregon: Containing A History Of Oregon From The Earliest Period Of Its Discovery To The, The Lewis Publishing Company, 1893, page 518

FRANCIS FOLEY, of Adams, Umatilla county Oregon, a pioneer of the Pacific slope, born in Vermillion county, Illinois, July 27, 1834, was the son of John Foley, a native of Ohio, and of Sarah (Hayworth) Foley, born in Ohio, of Scotch parentage. The father removed to Illinois, a single man, in an early day, was married there, after which he went to Lake county, Indiana, living there until 1852, when he settled in Dallas county, Iowa, taking up land, buying some and improving all into a good farm, upon which he lived, and where he finally died, February 22, 1892, aged ninety-five, having been born July 15, 1797. His wife, born July 22, 1811, still living in Iowa, bore him eight children, four of whom are yet living; one in California, two in Iowa, and one, our subject and the second child, in Oregon.

Francis Foley, reared upon a farm with much hard work to do, had but little opportunity for schooling, and what he did receive was in the not too thorough district schools. He remained at home until twenty-four years of age, when he went to Kansas, at that time a new country, settling upon a claim near Emporia, in Lyons county, and improved it, only to discover later that it was included in the Indian grant. It was hard to give it up after all the hard work he had bestowed upon it, but he had to do it; so in 1864 he pulled up stakes and went to Oregon, driving an ox-team all the way, taking six months for the journey. Our subject located at the Grande Ronde valley, near the cove, in Union county, living there ten years.

Our subject was married November 6, 1864, in Union county, Oregon, to Hannah Reese, daughter of George H., and Margaret (Wright) Reese, and born March 22, 1850. The parents of Mrs. Foley were natives of Ohio. Mr. Foley met his wife while on a long journey to Oregon, and seeing her day by day, the acquaintance ripened into love. In the year 1874, he with his wife retraced the way back to Iowa, remaining there eight years, when they came again to Oregon in 1882, settling near Athena, in Umatilla county, where they lived seven years. Our subject then took his family to Jackson county, but not liking the country, returned to Umatilla, and bought a farm of 200 acres, four miles south of Athena, near Adams, upon which he now resides. In 1891 he built a handsome residence upon this property, where he, his wife and children pass their days happily together.

The parents of Mrs. Foley crossed the plains to Oregon with her in 1864. Mr. Reese died in 1876, at the age of sixty-four years; his wife is living at the age of seventy, in Willow county. She is of Welsh descent, her father having been born in Wales. The union of Mr. and Mrs. Foley has been crowned with three children, namely: John W., George H., and Nellie, all of whom the parents have good cause to be proud. John W. began as a student at Salem, and finished his education at he Portland University, Portland, while George H. took the business course at the latter institution, and Nellie, also received an excellent education and has taught school, but is now at home with her parents. In politics Mr. Foley is a Republican.
