13. JAMES MONROE³ FERGUSON (AARON², MOSES¹) was born 04 Apr 1844 in Johnson county, Missouri, and died 09 Apr 1921 in Pendleton, Umatilla, OR. He married MARY M. MARQUIS 14 Dec 1865 in Lawrence, Kansas. She was born Oct 1850 in Missouri, and died in abt 1962.

Notes for JAMES MONROE FERGUSON:

An illustrated history of Umatilla County was found on page: 407

JAMES M. FERGUSON - One of the largest real-estate owners, a leading agriculturist, and prominent citizen of Umatilla county. Mr. Ferguson has a reputation for industry and uprightness, together with good financial ability, which he justly merits in every respect, while socially he is pleasantly distinguished.

He was born in Johnson county, Missouri, on April 4, 1844, where he lived until after he had attained to his majority, receiving a good education in the public schools of that place. His father was a prosperous farmer and he was occupied in general farming and stock-raising with him until he enlisted in the Twelfth Kansas Infantry, Company E, under Captain A. J. Jennings, on August 10, 1863. From this time until the close of the war he was in continuous service, participating in the battle of Jennings' Ferry and numerous skirmishes with bushwackers and Indians, being stationed much of the time on the border of the Cherokee Nation. He was mustered out at Little Rock, Arkansas, on June 30, 1865, with the rank of corporal. He immediately went to Lawrence, Kansas, and rented a farm for two years. At this place on December 14, 1865, he was married to Miss Mary M. Marquis, a native of Missouri. In 1867 he returned to the old home place and rented it for two years, after which he moved to Bates county in the same state and purchased one hundred and twenty acres of land, which he farmed until 1878, when he sold it and came west across the plains with teams, in a train of twenty-three wagons. It was during the time of the Indian outbreak so well remembered in this county, but the train was not once molested, although the citizens were all in arms when they arrived at Adams, where they located. August 7 was the date of his arrival here and soon after he bought a quarter section on Wild Horse creek, later adding a section more, to the cultivation and improvement of which he devoted his attention with assiduity until 1893, when he sold it and purchased his present fine domain of over one thousand acres of fine wheat land, situated near Adams. Since this he has moved into Pendleton, owning a tasty and comfortable home at the corner of Lewis and Long streets, where he lives, being occupied with superintending his estate.

He has five children: William S., on the farm; Elmer E., a physician and surgeon at The Dallas; Ida E., married to George E. Peringer, of Pendleton; Laura A., wife of Thomas A. Lieuallen of Adams; May, at home with her parents. Mrs. Ferguson and the four elder children accompanied her husband in their trip across the plains. The oldest son is a graduate from the law department of the University of Michigan and has practiced for six years, but finds an agricultural life more congenial to his tastes, being occupied at the present with the oversight of his father's large estate. Elmer E. graduated from the Rush Medical College, of Chicago, later taking post-graduate courses in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York, since which time he has been achieving a brilliant success in the practice of medicine.

Mr. Ferguson is a member of Adams Lodge, No. 74, I.O.O.F., and of the Kit Carson Post, G.A.R. In the quiet retreat of his cosy home, with the vista of an active and faithful life brought into relief by the bright memories of the past, with the oversight of his estates to give zest to his enjoyment, surrounded on every hand with friends, cherished by a loving family, this worthy veteran is passing the golden years of his life in ideal happiness and enjoyment, beneath the flag he bravely defended on the fields of blood, when rank treason's hand would have torn its unsullied folds from Freedom's staff.

MARIE DORION AND THE TRAIL OF THE PIONEERS

Page 35 = J. M., MARY FERGUSON

1878

Taking charge of 20 wagons, J. M. Ferguson arrived in July of 1878 in Pendleton. He and his wife then took up homesteading near Adams, raising primarily a wheat crop. In 1893, Ferguson retired and sold his holdings.

Five children were born to the Ferguson's. Two grandchildren are currently living in the area. They are E. L. Ferguson of Milton-Freewater and Otis Lieuallen of Adams.
