John Charles Burg y I

Of French descent, the Burg y's came to the United States from Herrlisheim, Alsace Lorraine, France, where John Charles Burg y, his wife Mary Ann and their two oldest children were born. John was born on December 6, 1823, and was married at Herrlisheim ca. 1842/43 to Mary Ann Steffen who was born on January 16, 1826.

The family immigrated to the United States aboard the ship Susan in 1851, arriving at New Orleans, Louisiana. Their third child, Joseph Hubert, was born at sea on November 2, 1851, three days from their destination. In 1852 they joined the westward movement and on October 28, 1854, settled on a Donation Land Claim of 320 acres in Clark County next to the claims of John Bird and Peter Bersch. Although John was a carpenter by trade he also engaged in farming. He did not fulfill the requirements to receive the patent and the claim was later cancelled by the Land Office.

In 1855 the increasing hostilities involving the Indians developed into all out war and every able bodied man was recruited for defense of the settlers. The women and children were sent to the block house at Ft. Orchard for protection. John Burg y and a number of his neighbors joined Company "A" of the First Washington Territory Regiment of Mounted Rifles under the leadership of Captain William Strong. Her served for 63 days and later served with Captain Hamilton J.G. Maxon's Company, Second Regiment of Washington Mounted Rifles. Some years later he received a pension from the State of Oregon for his Indian War service.

At the beginning of the Civil War, on December 20, 1861, John enlisted with Company "C", First Oregon Cavalry at Fort Vancouver. He served until April 19, 1865 when he was honorably discharged with the rank of Corporal. He is described in the military records as: 5'10" tall, fair complexion, brown hair and hazel eyes. John received a Relief Bond from the State of Oregon in the amount of $180. The state gave its soldiers $5 per month over and above the pay of regular army troops to offset the depreciated treasury notes with which they were paid.

After moving to Barberton, the Burg y children were students at St. John's Catholic School. Their son Joseph was a master pilot on the Columbia River for forty-seven years, working aboard the Caliope, Traveler Ione, Undine and numerous other ships. He also towed sailing ships for the O. R. & N.

John passed away on October 31, 1901 and was buried in the St. James Catholic Cemetery at Vancouver. Although Mary Ann had been ailing slightly for some time, her sudden death was a great shock. She had retired at her usual hour with no indication of the on coming attack and when her daughter went to her room to look in on her. She found her quite ill and within a half hour she expired. Mary Ann died on April 1, 1905 and was buried beside her husband at St. James Catholic Cemetery.

My grandmother's neighbor's as a child in the 1940's were James Wallace Dupuis and his wife Mary Katherine Hennings Dupuis. They lived in Hazel Dell, Vancouver, Clark County, Washington. "Kate" went to nursing school in Tacoma, Washington. A picture of her in her uniform was taken there about 1918. She was the daughter of Luella McIntosh Hennings. Kate and "Wallace" had no children. He had a brother Herbert Dupuis who married Nathaniel "Herb & Nate". Kate passed away in 1963 at Vancouver.

I have some records and pictures on this family. Please write if you are interested in seeing what I have.

ALEXANDER GENDRON

Alexander Gendron was born at Colville on September 15, 1864, being the son of Alexander and and Eliza E. Gendron, natives of Canada and Washington, respectively. The father was in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company and settled in the Colville valley in very early days. He died in 1891, but the mother still lives in the Colville valley. They were the parents of fourteen children. Our subject was raised on the frontier and received very little education. At the age of eighteen, he commenced work for himself and having worked for wages for some time , he began freighting from Spokane to Colville and in 1892, came to the Curlew valley and located. Since that time, he has given his attention to stock raising and farming and now he and his wife have a fine estate of four hundred and sixty acres about four miles east of republic. Mr. Gendron, in addition to stock raising and general farming, has a threshing outfit which he operates during part of the year. He handles about one hundred acres of hay and grain, using the balance of the estate for pasture. he has good buildingd, a fine orchard, and other improvements.

In 1887, Mr. Gendron married Miss Mattie, daughter of Moses and Carolina (Scherette) Dupuis, natives of Canada and Washington, respectively. They lived in Colville almost all of their days and there the mother died many years since. The father now lives with his daughter, Mrs. Gendron. Mrs. gendron was born in Colville and there received a good education from the public schools. She is one of a family of eight children. To Mr.

and Mrs. Gendron five children have been born, Joseph, Alfred A., George, Melvina and Albert R. Mr. and Mrs. Gendron are members of the Catholic Church.

ALEXANDER GENDRON

Alexander Gendron was born at Colville on September 15, 1864, being the son of Alexander and and Eliza E. Gendron, natives of Canada and Washington, respectively. The father was in the employ of the Hudson's Bay Company and settled in the Colville valley in very early days. He died in 1891, but the mother still lives in the Colville valley. They were the parents of fourteen children. Our subject was raised on the frontier and received very little education. At the age of eighteen, he commenced work for himself and having worked for wages for some time , he began freighting from Spokane to Colville and in 1892, came to the Curlew valley and located. Since that time, he has given his attention to stock raising and farming and now he and his wife have a fine estate of four hundred and sixty acres about four miles east of republic. Mr. Gendron, in addition to stock raising and general farming, has a threshing outfit which he operates during part of the year. He handles about one hundred acres of hay and grain, using the balance of the estate for pasture. he has good buildingd, a fine orchard, and other improvements.

In 1887, Mr. Gendron married Miss Mattie, daughter of Moses and Carolina (Scherette) Dupuis, natives of Canada and Washington, respectively. They lived in Colville almost all of their days and there the mother died many years since. The father now lives with his daughter, Mrs. Gendron. Mrs. gendron was born in Colville and there received a good education from the public schools. She is one of a family of eight children. To Mr. and Mrs. gendron five children have been born, Joseph, Alfred A., George, Melvina and Albert R. Mr. and Mrs. Gendron are members of the Catholic Church.

15. JOSEPH NAPOLEON<sup>3</sup> SUISTE (HERMINE<sup>2</sup> DUPUIS, NICHOLAS JOSEPH<sup>1</sup>) was born 04 May 1864 in Washington Territory, and died 28 Sep 1925 in Umatilla, OR<sup>79</sup>. He married MINNIE WILHELMINA JOSEPHINE FIX 04 May 1898, daughter of MONROD FIX and REGINA SCHELL. She was born Oct 1870 in Michigan, and died 31 Dec 1935 in Pendleton, Umatilla, OR<sup>80</sup>.

Notes for JOSEPH NAPOLEON SUISTE:

An illustrated history of Umatilla County, W. H. Lever Publisher, 1902, page 387-388

Joseph N. Suiste -- A prominent and rising agriculturist of Umatilla county, where he has spent most of his life, the man whose name is mentioned above is well known as a potent factor in development and progress, while his uprightness and capabilities have won him the respect and confidence of all.

He was born May 4, 1864, in Vancouver, Clarke county, Washington, to Julius A. L. and Hermine (Depuis) Suiste, natives of France and Canada, respectively. When thirteen years of age he was brought to this county, where he has resided ever since. He was educated in the Holy Angels College at Vancouver and also at home, receiving a fine training from his father, who was an excellent educator.

Mr. Suiste was married, in Pendleton, on May 4, 1898, to Miss Minnie J. Fix, a native of Michigan, whose parents were early pioneers to this state and are mentioned in this volume. To Mr. and Mrs. Suiste have been born one child living, Andrew J., and one, Louis H., who is deceased.

Our subject and wife are members of the Catholic church, where they are held in high estimation because of their active interest in the affairs of their church and their life of devotion to their faith. Mr. Suiste owns four hundred and eighty acres two miles west from Vinson, where he devotes his attention to raising hay, producing many tons each year.
