Athena Mayor Son of Pioneer of This Area

ATHENA -- Mayor Philip Remillard was born at old Frenchtown (subject of these pages Aug 27) to Philip and Leona (Bergevin) Remillard in 1901.

"Father was the first Remillard in the Walla Walla Valley" the mayor says " He came here from Ontario as a young man.:

All of Mayor Remillard's schooling was obtained in Walla Walla County Schools. First was at the old St Vincent Academy and the La Salle School for Boys. He attended Prescott High School but didn't finish as he entered farming with his father in that area instead of completing school.

But, then during those World War I days, more youngsters probably went into jobs of one kind or another than went to higher schooling, the mayor opined.

Remillard moved to Yakima and was there until 1928 with his parents. Here he was a mechanic and auto parts man. In 1928 the family moved to Athena where the father and son partnership again came into being on a farming venture for some 10 years.

Braden Store

"Clarence Braden (of Walla Walla) opened a branch store here in Athena and I went to work for him.: said Remillard. After a year he became manager and served in that capacity for 15 years.

"Then I sort of free-lanced a little in machinery," he said, 'buying and selling around the area."

The last three years before he decided to retire (a year ago) he was bookkeeper and office manager for the A & A Elevator Co.

In 1934, Mayor Remillard was married to the former Francis Dupuis of Adams. The couple has twin daughters, now 21.

Remillard was active in the Lions Club when it was formed here and is a member of the Athena Chamber of Commerce and the Umatilla County Roads Advisory Committee.

Long a Hunter

Big game huntin in the Blue Mountains has been a pursuit of many years for Remillard. . . "never miss a season.: His favorite area has been from Tollgate to the Washington State line. A custom (where possible of course) of killing his deer or elk at a point above him earned for him the nick'name of "Shot-em-down-the-hill.:

"The late herb Clark gave me that name." said Remillard.

Now at 66, Remillard admits the 1966 season might have been his last. "It comes a bit hard now," he says.

He might be abanding big game hunting but not some other aspects of outdoor living. now owning a pleasure boat, Remillard finds many occasions to get out on the Snake, Columbia or other lakes in the region for steelhead and salmon fishing.

The steelheading are out of the Umatilla Boat Marina is a favorite spot of his and he has also been casting eyes up toward the Grande Ronde and Renaha Rivers around Troy.

Elected in 1962

Remillard was elected mayor the first time in 1962 and has since been re-elected in 1964 and 1966. He succeeded Cal Hanlon who had been mayor for many years here. Remillard had served two terms on the council before being named mayor.

Councilmen include: Charles Simpson (he is also superintendent of schools here), Don Weber, melvin Schmidtgal, A. J. Wernsing and Mrs. Lyle Hinkins. Recorder is C.B. Dugger; Dean Pinkerton is city treasurer and George Miller is marshal and maintenance man for the city.
