Dear Mr. Dupuis:

For the past 12 years I have done extensive research on our DUPUIS lineage, for eventual publication. Since my great grand-mother, Hermine Dupuis, was a sister of your father Nicolas Joseph Dupuis, I am respectfully turning to you for whatever ancestral data you might care to share with me.

You will, I believe, be interested to know that I have established our Dupuis line, step by step, back to the pioneer immigrant ancestor who came from France to Canada in 1687. His name was Louis Dupuis (called "the parisian") who was born in 1658 in St. Suipice parish of Paris, France. Louis married on the 18th of January, 1688, Miss Marie Barbe Dubeau, in Quebec City, Q. P., Canada.

Your paternal grand-mother was, as you know, Julienne Modeste Demers (who married your grand-father Nicholas Dupuis on 6 February, 1838 in Napierville, Q. P., Canada). I have also traced our DEMERS ancestry in an unbroken line, with full documentary evidence, back to the immigrant Canadian colonist, Andre Demers. Andre was born in 1631 at St. Jacques of Dieppe, France. He married on the 7 January, 1654, Marie Chefdeville in Montreal, Canada.

I would deeply appreciate your expert assistance in preserving an accurate record of your own branch of the family, as a tribute to the memory of our forebears. Therefore I am enclosing a Dupuis family questionnaire and a stamped, self-addressed envelope for your convenience in replying.

I would particularly welcome the names of all your brothers and sisters in their order of birth; their birthdates (including your own); and the names of the persons each one married. It would also be especially nice to have the death date and place of death (county and state) of your father, Nicolas Joseph; and of your mother, Louise LaReine Gagnon. The book Mantle of Elias by Nichols, pub. 1941 in Portland, states that your maternal grandfather, Francois (Fas) Gagnon died in Calif. between 1849-52, during the gold-rush. His widow (your grandmother) born Angelique Marcellais, later married Edward Bellanger, 11 Oct. 1852.

I descend through Hermine Dupuis' son, the late Edward William Suiste of Pendleton, Ore. My husband Loren and I have lived for the past 27 years in Baton Rouge, La., where he is professor of music here at the State University.

Please know that I shall be happy to share with you, or anyone interested, the tremendous amount of ancestral data I have carefully compiled. I look forward with pleasure to hearing from you; and send every good wish for your health and happiness. With much gratitude, I am

Cordially yours,

Doris Reimann Davidson

(Mrs. Loren D. Davidson)

JULIUS A. L. Suiste -- It is with pleasure that we accord this memorial to the prominent and talented gentleman whose name is at the head of this article, whose active Christian life has been a potent influence for good not only in this county but throughout the entire Pacific coast as well as many other portions of the globe. His was a masterful mind, combined with lofty moral integrity and a noble purpose to lift up and assist humanity, which purpose he faithfully carried out in many ways during his varied career of worthy activity.

His native place was Paris, France, and the date of his birth September, 1830. At fourteen years of age he started to travel and visited many portions of the globe, constantly studying the customs and languages of the people, until about the middle of the century, when he settled at Vancouver, Washington. Here he was occupied in teaching, especially among the Indians, and also with attending to the duties of justice of the peace, to which office he had been elected, and practicing law. In those primitive days he was arbitrator, advisor and instructor to the natives and also to the whites, who soon recognized and respected his ability and uprightness. After fifteen years here he went to California, teaching among the Indians, and in 1885 came to Umatilla county, locating near Vinson post office, of which office he was the incumbent for a number of terms. His brightness is manifested as a linguist, when we mention that he could speak, read and write seven different languages, besides many inferior Indian tongues. He could also speak fluently the language of the natives of the Sandwich Islands.

He was married, at Vancouver, Washington, in 1860, to Miss Hermine Depuis, a native of Canada. To them have been born the following children: Albert, Joseph, Charley, Edward, Thresa, Maria and Nellie, deceased. He was well known and respected by all, and has left behind that riches of all legacies, the bright example of a faithful, kind, Christian life. He died at the residence of his youngest son, near Pendleton, on February 18, 1901, and was buried at Pendleton.

I was just looking at papers written by my Aunt about Joseph Blanchet. He married Hermine Demers Dupuis Suiste after my great grandfather Julius Ange Leon Suiste divorced. He was my grandfather's stepfather. I have photos etc. of Hermine, Joseph and Julius. Just read where after Hermine died from childbirth Joseph remarried a woman who tried to poison him. Are you familiar with that story? I live near Hermine's gravesite and have photos of it if you are interested. There are more stories and history I plan on getting together to do my book. Don't have who Joseph Blanchet's parents were but think I can find out for you. Will let you know.
