RICHARD E. PELL, who resides near Clearwater, owns land but devotes himself almost entirely to freighting. He has become expert in this line of business and has handled goods from Lewiston before the railroad came but now handles from Stites to Elk, Buffalo Hump, and other places. He is a man of enterprise in his labors and does a good business.

Richard E. Pell was born in Linn County, Oregon, on November 24, 1870, the son of John G. and Nancy (Tinley) Pell. The father was a farmer and was born in Clarke County, Missouri, in 1839, January 8. He was a pioneer in Linn County, came to Idaho in 1878 and now lives in Clearwater. The mother was born in Linn County, Oregon, in 1849. His parents crossed the plains in 1848. Our subject came with his parents to Tammany Hollow, near Lewiston, in 1878, there received his education and remained until he was nineteen. He learned the art of cooking and followed it in various places. In 1889 he came to Clearwater, in Idaho County, and took a homestead. In 1895 he went to Montana and cooked for two years, but returned to Idaho County, as he was taken sick. Later he retired from the kitchen altogether and gave his entire attention to freighting. At the early age of eleven, Mr. Pell commenced to do for himself and he has been hustling since that time. In politics he is allied with the Democrats, but is not an office seeker. He is one of the substantial wealth makers of the county and has made a good record.

7. WILLIAM B² FINLEY (*RICHARD CHISM*¹) was born 11 Apr 1854 in Linn, Oregon, and died 14 Feb 1942 in Umatilla, Oregon⁴⁹. He married HANNAH E WINDOM 07 Mar 1875 in Harrisburg, Linn, Oregon, daughter of SYLVIA ?. She was born 06 Mar 1857 in Sonoma, California, and died 25 Jan 1932 in Umatilla, Oregon⁵⁰.

Notes for WILLIAM B FINLEY:

An illustrated history of Umatilla County And Morrow County, W.H. Lever, Publisher, 1902, page 508

WILLIAM B. FINLEY. -- Among the many industrious and enterprising agriculturists and stockmen of the prosperous county of Morrow, especial mention should be made of the man whose name appears at the head of this article; because of his public spirit and breadth of mind that have led him to be a potent factor in the advancement of the interest of the county: because of his excellent success, which he has achieved within its boundaries, being the legitimate outcome of his industry, distinguished capabilities and wise procedure: and because of his integrity and intrinsic moral worth and unsullied life of uprightness.

He is a native of the Web-foot state, being born in Linn county on April 11, 1854, to Richard C. and Polly Finley. He was educated in the district schools of his native place and there grew to manhood, remaining there for twenty-seven years of his life. At the age of nineteen he started on a farm of his own and remained there until 1881, when he emigrated to Umatilla county, settling six miles northeast from Pendleton on land he purchased from the railroad company. Here he remained for three years and then went to his present place, twenty-five miles north from Heppner, between Butter and Willow creeks, giving attention to raising wheat and horses until 1896, when he embarked in the sheep business with a flock of thirteen hundred and fifty head. His excellent ability as a stockman is manifest in that he now owns four thousand five hundred head of stock sheep and two thousand one hundred acres of deeded land, besides five thousand acres of land leased from the railroad company. His success in this line of business is marked and excellent, and he takes rank with the leading stockmen in this land of stock raisers. His sheep are of the best grade of Merino and fine wool producers.

The marriage of Mr. Finley and Miss Hannah E. Windom, a native of California, occurred in March 1875, at Harrisburg, Linn County, Oregon, and to them have been born the following children: May Augustus, wife of Harvey E. Bartholomew, of Heppner; Arthur A.; Ralph; Claud; and Walter C. and Nellie, deceased. The three sons are on the ranch. Our subject affiliates with the K.O.T.M., of Heppner. Mrs. Finley is a member of the Christian church, of Athena, but she and all of the family attend the nearest point of worship, manifesting a liberal spirit free from sectarian bias. Mr. Finley enjoys the confidence and esteem of all the community and is considered one of the most substantial citizens of the county.

8. ALEXANDER KIRK² FINLEY (*RICHARD CHISM*¹) was born 12 Jun 1859 in Linn, Oregon, and died 01 Feb 1947 in Los Angeles, California⁵³. He married ISABELLE DERRICK 28 Jan 1878 in Crawfordsville, Linn, Oregon, daughter of H. DERRICK and ELIZABETH RAY. She was born Apr 1862 in OR.

Notes for ALEXANDER KIRK FINLEY:

An illustrated history of Umatilla County, W.H. Lever, Publisher, 1902, page 451

ALEXANDER K FINLEY -- The son of the earliest pioneers, a native of the west, a champion of the right, and a true American from start to finish, the man whose name stands at the head of this article is a citizen well worthy of a place in the chronicles of this county high in the roll of honor. His parents, R. C. and Polly Ann (Kirk) Finley, threaded the plains in an ox train three years before the excitement of '49. they settled in Linn county and built the first grist mill south of Oregon City. In the fall of 1848 his father started on horseback to the gold fields of California, arriving there on foot, as his horse gave out on the Pitt river. The next spring he returned via Portland with a thousand dollars of "dust" in his belt and settled on the old place, where he remained till the time of his death, in 1892, October 4.

Our subject was born in Linn County, on June 12, 1859, and lived there twenty years. During this time he acquired a common-school education and a good training on his father's farm. In the fall of 1878 he toured through the Palouse country for a home and then came to Umatilla county and took up a homestead and pre-emption where he now lives, four and one-half miles southeast from Helix. To this he has steadily been adding until now his realty holdings aggregate eight hundred acres, all excellent wheat land. With this mamouth estate to oversee he is yet enabled to operate four hundred acres more, making a grand total of twelve hundred acres of wheat. On this vast acreage he averages thirty-two bushels per acre each year through wise husbandry.

At Crawfordsville, Linn county, on January 28, 1878, Miss Isabelle, daughter of H. B. and Elizabeth (Ray) Derick, among the earliest pioneers of Umatilla county, and Mr. Finley were united in marriage, and to enhance their connubial bless the following children have graced the union: May, Robert, Nancy, Myrtle, Walter, Lloyd.

The quota of fine improvements have kept pace with the increase of his estate and commensurate with its generous proportions are the elegant residence, modern and commodious barn and numerous and substantial outbuildings that his taste has planned and executed in the finest manner. His political activity is well known and his forceful operations in that field testify that he is no pigmy in that arena. His sentiments are with the Prohibition party and his acts are with his sentiments. On that ticket he ran for county commissioner at the last election. He is a member of the Christian church at Helix and is active for its interests and in disseminating the truth, which, with his consisten and upright life, have made him a power for good in his community.

Generation No. 3

11. WILLIAM IRA³ VAWTER (SARAH JANE² FINLEY, RICHARD CHISM¹) was born 24 Mar 1863 in Boston Mills, Linn, Oregon, and died 04 Feb 1916 in Jackson, Oregon⁷⁵. He married ETTA M HILL, daughter of SARAH R ?. She was born Abt. 1869 in Idaho.

Notes for WILLIAM IRA VAWTER:

VAWTER, WILLIAM I., of Medford, president of the Jackson County Bank, was born in Linn County, March 24, 1863, and graduated from the University of Oregon in 1886. He was principal of the Eugene public schools till 1888, when he established the bank at Medford. He is an earnest Republican, has been a delegate to county and state conventions and league meetings, a member of the congressional and state central committees, and chairman of the county central committee.

Hines, H. K. "An Illustrated History of the State of Oregon." Chicago: Lewis

Pub. Co. 1893. p. 564.

WILLIAM I. VAWTER

Among the substantial institutions of southern Oregon is the Jackson County Bank of Medford, which was established September 1, 1888, and was conducted successfully as a private bank by William I. Vawter until July 1, 1892, when the capital stock was increased from $25,000 to $50,000, and incorporated with the following named officers: William I. Vawter, president; William Slinger, vice-president; G. W. Howard, cashier; and J. E. Enyart as assistant cashier.

Exchanges drawn on Portland, San Francisco and New York. The bank has done a safe and prosperous business since its doors were thrown open to the public and it ranks among the substantial banking houses of the State.

William I. Vawter, whose name heads the official list, is a native of Linn county, Oregon, born March 24, 1863. His father emigrated from Indiana across the plains to Oregon, in 1853. His mother is a native of Missouri, and also crossed the plains by ox teams, with her parents, as early as 1846. Her people located in the Willamette valley, which at that early day was populated with Indians.

William was reared and educated in his native State, graduating from the university of the State in 1886, and filled the position of principal in the public schools in Eugene, until 1888, when he established the Jackson County Bank, at Medford.

Politically he is a stanch Republican, and takes an active interest in the party. He is a member of A.F. & A.M. Since he became a resident of Medford, he has been closely identified with the interests of that city, and is always among the first to give his support, financially to every public enterprise tending to develop the city. Although a young man, he has gained a reputation for himself in the community as one of the most influential and progressive citizens, as well as an able scholar and financier.
