3. EUGENE A.² DUDLEY (*SPENCER*¹) was born Nov 1856 in Beaverton, Oregon, and died 13 Mar 1944 in Athena, Umatilla, Oregon⁹. He married JESSIE MCDONALD 25 Nov 1885 in OR, daughter of DONALD MCDONALD and ELLEN KINNEAR. She was born 04 Nov 1861 in Ontario,Canada, and died 27 Jul 1955 in Dayton, Columbia,WA.

Notes for EUGENE A. DUDLEY:

EUGENE A. DUDLEY FAMILY

Mrs. J. L. Geyer

1970

Eugene A. Dudley came from Beaverton Oregon where he was born, to Weston Oregon, in 1879. He came to help his sister, Melissa Dudley Rogers, whose husband, Jerard Lot Rogers, had died, leaving her with seven children, the youngest, one year old.

Eugene A. Dudley, born 19 November 1856 and died 13 March 1944, married on the 25 November 1885 to Jessie McDonald, born 4 November 1861 and died 27 Jul 1955. They had six children; Eugene Earl; Donald Dean; Irene Isabel; Glenn Gerald; Max Marion, and Victor Verne. There is 16 grandchildren and 58 great grandchildren.

Eugene and his bride homesteaded a ranch, 2-1/2 miles West of Athena, where Dean Dudley's widow now lives. Five children were born here. The Taylor family, Til Taylor, Sheriff of Umatilla County, and Jinks Taylor lived on the ranch adjoining. About 1900 the Dudley and Taylor families bought adjacent land just East of Athena. The Dudley's built the 3-story house, which still stands just East of Athena. The story goes that Mr. Dudley planned the new house, and it was completed before Mrs. Dudley ever saw it, as it was too difficult for her to get into town with five small children. The sixth child was born in the new house. They lived in this home until Mr. Dudley's death in 1944

LOWELL and MINNIE ROGERS 1871

Lowell Lester Rogers, the founder of the Rogers Canning Company was born in Silverton, Oregon in 1869. Rogers attended school in Weston. His father owned a farm near Weston and at one time had worked as a miner. Because of the death of his father when he was only ten years old, Lowell was educated by his mother along with the rest of the children.

In 1893 Rogers married Minnie M Dupuis. The young couple moved to a farm near Adams, which his mother had paid $3,000 for 160 acres of land.

The canning company was started in 1935. Rogers was president of the company until his death in July 4, 1954.

Minnie Dupuis Rogers was born in 1873 in Vancouver, Washington to Catherine and John Dupuis. Her father was a saddle maker and owned a harness and stagecoach shop at Weston. Stage coaches were used between Pendleton and Walla Walla before railroads were built in the area. Her father's shop was destroyed by a fire in Weston. Added to the bad luck, her father suffered a stroke.

To support the family, her mother ran a furniture and undertaking parlor. Minnie, the oldest child of eight, attended schools in Weston, later passing a teacher's test of the Oregon State Board of Education. She was the youngest person at the time to teach school in Oregon at the age of 16.

She died in 1950.
