(THIS IS NOT MAX FREEMAN'S FAMILY, but one wonders if something like this could have happened to them)

Return Food Poisoning-1878

1878 , Coalinga, CA

"The following info is from a Fresno County Cemeteries book in the Fresno LDS Family History Center on Echo Ave across from Fresno High. The cemetery survey was probably done in 1965. It has not been field verified since then. The cemetery is one acre of privately owned land located at Priest Valley Road and Coalinga Hot Springs Road, near Coalinga CA.

The Freeman family was camped at Coalinga Hot Springs in 1878. They all died from food poisoning after eating canned beans. Their tombstones are signed by the carver, D.A.

Gilstrap".
