3. JOHN EDWARD² FOLSOM (*PETER*¹) was born 19 May 1824 in Maxfield, Penobscot, Maine, and died 24 May 1897 in Sprague, Lincoln Co., Washington. He married MARGARET ANN WARNOCK 06 May 1855 in Oregon City, Clackamas, Oregon, daughter of PRESLEY WARNOCK and RACHAEL FRAME. She was born 19 Jan 1834 in Porter, Indiana, and died 20 May 1930 in Chewalah, Whitman, Washington.

Notes for JOHN EDWARD FOLSOM:

As a young man he had much experience in the whale fishing industry in the South Sea Islands. He kept a "record book and daguerreotype of all the whales caught on each four-year voyage. He went to San Francisco with a cargo of wheat from some of the South Sea Islands when he heard of gold mines being discovered in California, but could hardly get enough for it to pay for the sacks --no mills to grind it. He fell in with his bro. Moses and they both went to Oregon, John to Oregon City and Moses to Pendleton, Umatilla County. He m. and raised a large family." (Gilman Nathaniel Folsom).

Notes for MOSES EMERSON FOLSOM:

<http://www.oregongenealogy.com/umatilla/pendleton1.htm>

Pendleton, County Seat, Umatilla County, Oregon

In August 1880, a public meeting was held to consider the question of incorporating. A committee was appointed to draft a charter and petition to the legislature. This resulted in the Act of October 25, 1880, incorporating the "Town of Pendleton," with boundaries "commencing at the north-east corner of Jacobs' addition to the town of Pendleton; running thence north to the north bank of Umatilla River ; thence down said bank of said river until it strikes the north line of section ten in township two north, range 32 east ; thence along said section line to the north-west corner of the north-east quarter of said section 10 ; thence south through the center of said section to the north bank of said Umatilla river ; thence easterly up and along said bank until it strikes a line continued from the westerly line of Arnold and Raley's addition to the town of Pendleton ; thence southerly on said line to the line of the Umatilla Indian Reservation ; thence easterly along the line of said reservation to the east line of Jacobs' addition ; thence northerly along said line to the place of beginning." The government was placed in the hands of a mayor, six councilmen, recorder, marshal, treasurer, and commissioner of streets. The city election occurs annually on the third Monday in December. The town was prohibited from creating a debt of more than $1,000, or levying a tax to exceed five mills on the dollar. The first election occurred December 30, 1880, and resulted as follows: Mayor, Lot Livermore ; Councilmen, John Watson, S. Rothchild, M. E. Folsom, Jeremiah Despain, W. M. Beagle, J. H. Raley; Marshal, B. F. Gray ; Recorder, J. A. Guyer; Treasurer, G., W. Webb; Street Commissioner, N. Daughtry. The officers chosen December 18; 1881, were: Mayor, Lot Livermore; Councilmen, W. F. Matlock and G. W. Webb; Recorder, M. F. White; Marshal, P. R. McDonald; Treasurer, I. Hathaway; Street Commissioner, H. Bowman.

SIERRA NEVADA

WOOD AND LUMBER COMPANY

Truckee - Donner

Historical Society, Inc

Working as a contractor was veteran Tahoe-Truckee lumberman Gilman Folsom, who had been a partner in a sawmill at Clinton below Boca from 1870 to 1880. In 1880 Folsom partnered with Sam Marlette and they took up a 40,000 cord a year wood cutting contract that employed over 400 men year round, and starting contract logging for the company the following year.

<http://www.sierrasun.com/article/20070619/LIFE/70618008>

A reservoir had been built downstream from Hobart Mills by Gilman Folsom when he was partners in the Pacific Lumber & Wood Company at Clinton below Boca. It provided a head of water for sawlogs that were floated down Prosser Creek and the Truckee River to the sawmill.
