William Folsom

The respected and prominent citizen of whom we now speak is well known in educational, social and political circles in our county, and merits his position both by his integrity and ability, which have been demonstrated continuously in the various capacities where he has been called to operate. He is a product of the west, being born in Oregon City, this state, on October 1, 1859. When but an infant, his parents moved onto a farm seventeen miles from Oregon City, where they continued for eighteen years. In 1880 he came to John Day valley and Long Creek, and engaged in teaching the same year, after which he moved to Pendleton and was occupied in various lines until he took the contract to carry the mail from Pilot Rock to Alba. Here he served for four years on a sub-contract and four more years as original contractor. Umpon the completion of this work he entered the drug business at Alba an followed it for six years with flattering returns financially, when he was burned out. During this period he was postmaster, which duties he discharged with accuracy and dispatch to the satisfaction of all concerned. After the fire he came to Pilot Rock and engaged in farming for two years and then was called to fill the office of postmaster at Pilot Rock, where he still is the incumbent.

On June 14, 1885, he was married to Miss Mary Johnson, who was born in St. Joseph, Missouri, on October 7, 1866. They have three children as follows: W. Percy, born July 26, 1887; Jessie H., born April 9, 1889; Jack, born January 1, 1892. In fraternal relations Mr. Folsom is associated with the Woodmen of the World, the I.O.O.F. and the United Artisans. The father of our subject was born in Old Town, Maine, in 1824, and died in 1897 at Sprague, Washington. His mother was born in Indiana in 1834, and is now living at Sprague, Washington. Mrs. Folsom's mother is living in Peck, Idaho. Her father, David Johnson, was a veteran of the Civil war and died here October 15, 1880. He has six brothers living and two dead. In Public office and private life Mr. Folsom has always maintained an enviable reputation, seeking to fulfill the duties of the trying position of federal postmaster as well as all other trusts that devolve upon him with a conscientiousness that has met with much approval as the call to his present postition testifies, and it is with pleasure that we accord him a representation in this volume that will preserve the account of his faithfulness as a stimulus to the moral virtues of those to follow.

Mr. Folsom is a lineal descendant of the Old Town Folsome family.

Notes for WALTER G. FOLSOM:

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~walincol/obitsspragelsewheretok.htm>

Folsom, Walter G.: "Walter G. Folsom, the 9-year-old son of Mr. & Mrs. H. G. Folsom, died Thursday night after an illness of two weeks with encephalitis. The funeral took place at Gresham church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. D. E. Davies, who had married Mr. & Mrs. Folsom, preached the funeral sermon. Interment was in Gresham Cemetery. A large number of friends of the family from Sprague and vicinity followed the body to the grave. The little fellow was a precociously bright boy but was never very robust and it is probable that the trouble which resulted in his death was of long standing, as is often the case with brain trouble. Walter had, during his nine years of life, made many friends, who regret his untimely death. It is useless for the Times, or, in fact any one, to attempt to say anything that will to any great degree assuage the grief of the sorrowing family. Such a loss is a personal one to such an extent that no one except those near and dear to the loved and lost can appreciate its poignant bitterness. No philosophy of life suffices; the only thing possible under the circumstances is an assurance of heartfelt sympathy, and in the name of the family the Times extends such sympathy." (Sprague Times-9 Feb 1906)

Folsom, Hiram Gilliam: "Hiram Gilliam Folsom, the four year old son of Mr. & Mrs. H. G. Folsom, died at his parents' home southeast of Sprague yesterday. The little fellow died of lung trouble following measles and whooping cough. The funeral was held in the Gresham church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Mr. & Mrs. Folsom have the sympathy of friends and neighbors in their bereavement." (Sprague Times-13 March 1903; Edit: the TS appears as H. J. Folsom)
