Marriage Notes for EUGENE ELTON and EMMA WHEDON:

Woodland Daily Democrat (Woodland, California) > 1895 > September > 16

A marriage license has been issued to Eugene Elton, age 21, of Yolo, and Emma Whedon, age 20, of Dunnigan.

Woodland Daily Democrat (Woodland, California) > 1895 > September > 19

The wedding of A Elton, of Yolo, and Miss Emma Wheadon of Dunnigan, took place today. The wedding was at the residence of the bride's sister Mrs. Scofield, and was a very quiet affair, only relatives and intimate friends being present. Both of the young people are well and favorably known in the Northern Yolo where both have lived for a long time. May their future be one of great happiness is the wish of their many friends and acquaintances.

Woodland Daily Democrat (Woodland, California) > 1895 > September > 20

Did Not Take Place

The Elton-Wheadon Nuptials were Postponed on Account of Sickness.

The announcement of the wedding of Arthur Elton, of Yolo, and Miss Emma Wheadon, of Dunnigan, which was chronicled as having taken place yesterday, by our Dunnigan correspondents and an account of which also appeared in the Mail of this morning, seemss to have been rather premature as the event did not take place.

The cermonies were to have been performed Thursday at the bride's residence, about eight miles west of Dunnigan, but Mr Elton was attacked by a severe cold yesterday morning and was unable to leave his bed therefore the ceremonies had to be postponed. The groom is much better today and the happy event will take place next Sunday.

Woodland Daily Democrat (Woodland, California) > 1895 > September > 25

Rev. Calfee, of Yolo, came up on the train yesterday to officate in the nuptials of Arthur Elton and Miss Emma Wheadon.

Marriage Notes for CLARA ELTON and RICHARD WERNER:

Woodland Daily Democrat (Woodland, California) > 1922 > April > 28

Miss Clara Elton, Charming Yolo Girl, to Wed Dick Werner.

Interesting to many friends in Yolo county, Sacramento and Berkeley, where the principals are well known, is the engagement of Miss Clara Elton, exceedingly talented local girl, to wed Richard J. Werner, principal of the Esparto Union high school. The marriage is to be an event of the early summer months, according to present plans.

The bride-elect is living at present at Yolo, her mother being Mrs Rambo of that place. She is giving private instruction in music, having forsaken a stage career although many predicted a bright future for her if she had cared to follow the opera, spoken drama or the silver screen. She is highly cultured and accomplished.

As head of the Esparto school for the last three years, Werner has not only achieved splendid results educationally but has won recognition for interesting his students in a practical way in farming pursuits and business endeavors. The plan of the students taking over a newspaper, the Esparto Exponent, and operating it themselves was Werner's and the scheme has brought favorable comment from journals and newspapers of broad circulation. Only recently Werner was called to Pasadena to acquaint the state principals with his methods of interesting the youth in agricultural work. Werner is a graduate of the University of California. His mother is Mrs Anna M Werner, who resides at 2799 H street, Sacramento.

The young couple plan to reside at Berkeley next year. Mr Werner is take a special course at the State University, with a view of going East to do administrative work. He will present his resignation before the Esparto school trustees at their next meeting.

Wants Marriage Annulled

Sacramento, Nov 14 -- Mrs Esther E Stannert began suite in the Superior Court to obtain an annulment of her marriage with Wilson P Stannert. The woman alleges her husband had married her without having obtained a divorce from his first wife. The Stannerts were married in San Francisco, March 30, 1905. Since that time they have lived in the East. They have one child 8 years of age. Mrs. Stannert alleges her husband told her nothing of his first marriage. When she learned of this, she claims, she became a nervous wreck from worry. Mrs Stannert asks custody of the child, $25 a month alimony and a judgment of $10,000 to reimburse her for the suffering she has experienced.
