Bob Garred Dispatched Congratulations on His Anniversary with CBS

Robert (Bob) Garred was sent a congratulatory telegram Friday by the Walla Walla Chamber of Commerce, commemorating his tenth anniversary as a newscaster with Columbia Broadcasting system.

The son of Mr and Mrs J.D. Garred, 416 South Palouse Street.

Garred began his radio career here after being graduated from Stanford university, and, excepting for a period of service as a Navy officer, has been a regular from the Hollywood studios of CBS the past decade.

Garred frequently tells his listeners that Walla Walla is his home town, and watches news wires for any items he can use which originate in or tell about Walla Walla. It was in appreciation of his persistent attention to his home city that the Chamber appended a word of thanks along with its congratulations.
