Notes for JOHN T. SMYTH:

John was killed in 1878 in the Paiute Bannock war in Harney Co. Ore

*****

Ca ndacy's husb. and step-father were burned to death by Indians near as fol lows: To Harney Valley in the fall of 1872.

The actual settlement of Harney Valley began in 1872, when George A. Smy th and his sons D.H. & John. George A. & Presley Smyth, Stilly Riddle, Jo hn Boone & the Chapmans came in with horses & cattle. The Smyth family fir st settled at Warm Springs, 5 miles south of Burns which is the present si te of the Hines Sawmill. The winter of 1873 was the winter of the deep sno w. Snow covered all the feed. On the advise of Robie they moved their fami lies South to the lakes (Happy Valley) where there was no snow. by J.J. Do negan 1878.

For five years the pioneers were busy improving their homes and raising th eir standard of living. Then they learned that the Bannock Indian War part ies were spotted in Barren Valley. Rye loaded all the women and childr en in wagons and took them to Fort Harney for safety. George Smyth and s on John stayed behind to care for the livestock. A few evenings later t he dog would not stop barking, and when George went out to check on him, an Indian shot him in the leg and broke it. The story told years lat er by one of the Indian Braves was that the young man (John) was upstairs shooting out the window and that the old man (George) was making bullets downstairs. He said they killed thirty Braves before they ran out of ammunition. The Indians set fire to the cabin and George Smyth and son John were killed in the fire. The day after the raid, Son, Rye Smyth and a friend rode up on the rim not far from the cabin, They could hear the death lament and could see the Indians dancing. They knew there had been trouble so they returned to Fort Harney for help. when they got back to Happy valley the Indians were gone and had taken many of the Smyth horses. George and John's remains were put in a tub and buried on the little slope a cross from where the cabin had stood. This continues to be the family cemetery for the descendants of George Smyth.
