CHAPTER VI START OF RANCH AND FARM Page 40

Excerpt:

In 1879 Charles Black built a house on Spring creek and moved his family there the next spring. In the same year Joseph Loving and family built a house on the ranch still known to old-timers as the "Yank Robinson" ranch. In the same year ISAAC W. GARRETT located on Spring creek and filed on land that afterward belonged to John Hailey. Mr. Garrett moved his family there on July 4, 1880. He was elected to the legislature in 1880 and it was due to his efforts that a bill was enacted into law giving the citizens of Alturas county the right to vote at a special election held on September 12, 1881, to locate the permanent county seat of said county. In January, 1883, he accepted the office of deputy auditor and recorder at Hailey.

Among the localities visited during our recent tour through Boise county was the pleasant home of MR. C.C. GARRETT, brother of HON. I.W. GARRETT of this city. Mr. Garrett's home is situated at the head of a beautiful little valley formed by Isaac's creek, a tributary of the middle branch of the Payette river. We passed a few hours of the day, (Sunday, July 27) very pleasantly with the family with only one circumstance to mar the pleasure of our visit; the failing health of Mrs. Garrett, who has been suffering for several years with a complaint of the lungs. Mrs. Garrett was the first white child born within the Territory of Idaho. She was born at Old Ft. Boise, near the mouth of Boise river, while her parents were crossing the plains to Oregon in early days. She is a lady of the most amiable disposition and of the most indomitable courage and energy of character, and her failing health excites the kind interest and sincere sympathy of all who know her.

Mr. Garrett is one of Idaho's most worthy pioneers, whose share of earthly bliss would be quite complete in his beautiful home in this charming little valley, if good health, the common boon of most of those who have their homes in Idaho, could have been granted to him and his.

ISAAC W. GARRETT died at 7:15 o'clock last evening at his hime at the corner of Seventh and State Streets.

Mr. Garrett had been ill for about a year. He had a complication of troubles which appeared to have their seat in the bladder. He kept failing from month to month and at last in Hune realized that his case was serious. A trip was taken to Oregon in hope the change would prove benevicial but in July he returned more poorly that when he went away. He had since been confined to his house and much of the time was bed ridden, but his family continued to hope for his recovery until Friday, when it became manifest that yis end was approaching.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon he passed into an unconscious condition and remained so until the hour of his release came. His death was entirely peaceful.

Mr. Garrett leaves a widow and 11 children, who were gathered about the bed during his last moments. W.E. Childs, his brother-in-law, was also present. Mrs. W.E. Brownell of Elgin, Or., Mr. Garrett's sister, arrived on the evening train an hour before his death.

The time for the funeral has not been fixed.

Deceased was born in Illinois, February 19, 1838. In 1847 his parents moved across the plains and settled in the Willamette valley near Portland. There Mr. Garrett grew up, receiving a common school education. At 16, he became a school teacher and followed that profession at times for a number of years. He received an appointment in the secret service of the national government and served in that capacity for some time. While he was still a citizen of Oregon he was elected to the legislature for one term.

In 1861 Mr. Garrett Joined the stampede to Oro Fino and Florence; afterward he went to Walla Walla, returning to Idaho in 1863 with a pack train, which he took into the Basin. He went back to Oregon again but soon returned to Idaho and at Placerville opened a meat market in partnership with his uncle, W.J. Stark, the latter having a cattle ranch on Snake river. The meat market was sold out in 1878 and Mr. Garrett moved to Boise, still retaining an interest in the stock ranch.

In 1880 Mr. Garrett moved to Wood river and took the ranch now owned by John Hailey. On January 1, 1882, he was appointed deputy recorder of Alturas county which position he held until 1888, when he was appointed recorder. In 1890 he was elected auditor and held that position until he was chosen secretary of state in 1894. He served in the latter capacity until January 1, 1897.

On March 1, 1898, he was appointed receiver of the Boise land office, which position he held at the time of his death.

Mr. Garrett was twice elected to the Idaho legislature, first from Boise county in 1873 and afterward from Alturas county in 1880. He served in the capacity of secretary of the Senate during one session.

Deceased was twice married, first in Oregon in 1859. By this marriage he Oregon in 1859. By this marriage he had one daughter. Mrs. Stanton, of Hailey. His first wife died when her child was a few months old. In May 1873, Mr Garrett married Emma Childs of Boise, who survives him.

Deceased was a member of the A. O. U. W. and the order of Elks. Mr. Barrett cast his first vote for Lincoln and was always an earnest republican.

I. W. Garrett was a man of the highest character. He was universally esteemed and the news of his death will cause sorrow among thousands of people whose privilege it was to know him while he lived.
