Geiss - March 11 at a local hospital, Sarah C Geiss of Clinton Court apartments, age 83 years, mother of Mrs. Minnie G Winn and Mrs Winifred G McKenzie, Adams, Ore., sister of Mrs Mary Fuston, Puyallup. Mrs. Martha Nunnemaker, Walla Walla and A.R. Cox, Woodland, Calif. Born August 28, 1862 in Iowa. Member of Baptist church of Weston, Elderbloom society of California and Adams Ladies' club. Remains at DeWitt Funeral Home. Funeral notice later.

Walla Walla Union Bulletin (Walla Walla, Washington) > 1946 > March > 12

Pioneer Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Sarah C. Geiss, 83 year old pioneer of Umatilla County, who came to Weston with her parents when she was two years old, died in a local hospital Monday night after an extended period of ill health. She had made her home at Clinton court for several years although most of her life had been spent in the Weston and Adams district and in California.

Born August 28, 1862 in Iowa, she was the daughter of Rebecca Cox Lieuallen and Noah Lieuallen. Her mother was the first pioneer teacher of the early Weston district and her father, the first Baptist minister. Their home, built of logs, served as a school house week days and a church on Sunday.

The daughter, Sarah, married John Geiss who died 13 years ago. Their two daughters were born at Weston and the family later moved to Adams where they lived for years. Mrs. Geiss was president and active in the Adams Ladies' club.

She also belonged to the Baptist church of Weston and was a member of the Elderbloom society of Long Beach, Calif., where she made her home in latter years.

Survivors include the two daughters, Mrs. Minnie G Winn and Mrs. Winifred G McKenzie, both of Adams; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Fuston of Puyallup and Mrs. Martha Nunnemaker of Walla Walla; a brother, A. R. Cox of Woodland, Calif.; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The funeral is set for 1:30 P.m. Thursday from a Walla Walla chapel. Burial will be in the family plot of Keys cemetery at Weston, near the original homestead of Mrs. Geiss' parents.

Notes for JOHANNES GEISS:

The Centennial History of Oregon, 1811-1912 By Joseph Gaston

JOHN GEISS. For more than a third of a century, or since 1878, John Geiss has been a resident of Umatilla county. He has practically lived retired for the past six years but for an extended period was identified with agricultural pursuits and is still the owner of an excellent farm near Adams, in which town he makes his home. He is a native of Prussia, Germany, born July 22, 1857, his parents being John and Christina (Shubrpest) Geiss. The mother died in Germany when but thirty-two years of age and the father afterward came to the new world with his son John in 1870. They made their way to Illinois, settling in Beardstown, and five years after the arrival of John Geiss in the northwest the father also came to Umatilla county and spent his last days here. He was a butcher by trade and followed that pursuit in order to provide for his family. He had three sons and four daughters and with the exception of one of the daughters, all came to the new world. The girls married in Illinois and reside there, and one son returned to that state but John and Peter are still residents of Umatilla county.

John Geiss was a young man of twenty-one years when in 1878 he came to Oregon, "since which time he has resided in the county that is still his place of residence. He has always followed farming, working by the month at first until he had saved a sufficient sum to enable him to begin farming on his own account. He entered one hundred and sixty acres of land at Weston which he afterward sold, but he and his wife now own an entire section of land near Adams, which is being operated by their son-in-law. At an earlier period Mr. Geiss year after year cultivated his fields and harvested his crops and was numbered among the progressive and enterprising agriculturists of the community. At length his labors brought to him a substantial competence with which he retired to private life, turning over his farm to the management and development of his son-in-law.

In 1881 Mr. Geiss was united in marriage to Miss Sarah C. Lieuallen, who was born in Decatur county, Iowa, August 28, 1862, and in 1864 was brought to Weston, Oregon, by her parents, Noah F. and Margaret R. (Cox) Lieuallen. They were natives of Tennessee but were married in Missouri. The mother died in Morrow county, Oregon, while the father's death occurred in Moscow, Idaho. He was a stockman and farmer and secured a preemption right to a claim at Moscow and also owned a homestead at Athena. He was likewise a local minister of the Baptist church, being one of the first clergymen of this town. Mrs. Lieuallen taught the first school in Athena and afterward was teacher of the Rawhide school near the present site of the town. Mr. Lieuallen taught the first school near Moscow and both were pioneer teachers of the northwest. Mr. Lieuallen also engaged in teaching music. Unto him and his wife were born three sons and four daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Geiss have become the parents of three children: Minnie G., who is the wife of John Winn, of Adams; Winifred, at home; and Almond Raymond, who died at the age of seven months. Politically Mr. Geiss is a democrat and has served as a member of the city council of Adams for four years. He belongs to the Baptist church and to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows – associations which indicate much of his interests and the principles which govern his conduct. Whatever success he has achieved in life is due entirely to his own efforts, for he has worked hard, never being afraid of earnest, persistent labor. His business affairs, too, have been honorably conducted and his prosperity is the fitting reward of his labors.
