He married MYRTLE BEATRICE HAWKS 14 Nov 1908, daughter of ROBERT HAWKS and MARY DUGGER. She was born 29 Jun 1882 in Washington²⁵², and died 10 Mar 1971 in Deschutes, OR²⁵³.

Notes for FRED ADCOOK LIEUALLEN:

The Centennial History of Oregon, 1811-1912 By Joseph Gaston Pg 834

FRED A. LIEUALLEN, M. D., is a physician residing in Pilot Rock, Umatilla county, Oregon. He is a native son of Oregon and of the county of Umatilla, his natal day being November 6. 1880. His parents are James Thomas and Lucy .T. (Adcock) Lieuallen, the former a native of Missouri and the latter of Oregon. James T. Lieuallen, who came to this state in the year 1865, is now a resident of Adams, Umatilla county. Unto him and his wife were born nine children, all of whom survive.

Fred A. Lieuallen was reared at home and educated in the academy and at the State University at Eugene. On the completion of his studies in the university at that place he became a student of medicine in the University of Oregon at Portland, from which department he was graduated with the degree of M. D. in the class of 1905. Immediately following the completion of his medical studies at the university he was associated in the practice of medicine with Dr. Cole at Pendleton. At this place he remained for one year. He afterward removed to Helix, where he was engaged in the practice of medicine for one year. He then changed his location, moving to Huntington, where he spent seven months as local physician for the railway. In 1908 he established his permanent residence at Pilot Rock and is now in the enjoyment of a large and lucrative practice.

In November, 1908, Dr. Lieuallen was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle B. Hawks, a native of Washington and a daughter of Robert O. and Mary (Duger) Hawks. The father still survives and makes his home at Pendleton, but the mother has passed away. Unto Dr. and Mrs. Lieuallen has been born one daughter, Barbara, whose natal day was May 5. 1910.

Dr. Lieuallen is affiliated with the democratic party, consistently voting with this great political organization in its national, state and county campaigns. His fraternal relations are with Lodge No.'93, F. & A. M.; Lodge, No. 288, B. P. O. E.. of Pendleton; Lodge No. 22 of the Improved Order of Red Men; and the Knights of Pythias. Mrs. Lieuallen is a member of the Presbyterian church. Dr. Lieuallen's work as a physician in his chosen field absorbs all of his time and attention, and to this work he has consecrated his life and abilities. His practice has steadily increased since he became a resident of Pilot Rock and to it he is devoting his undivided attention.
